WILL TURN RAILWAYS OVER TO WILSON

WAR BOARD STATES THAT IS PURPOSED IF TROUBLE COMES

Transportation Interests Will Step Aside to Let President Rule Operation to Save War.

BROTHERHOODS TO ACCEPT MEDIATION

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Formal announcement was mode today by the railroad war board that the railroads of the United States had decided that if any crisis should arise, to place their interests in the hands of President Wilson for protection and such disposition as he may deem necessary to prevent interruption of transportation during the war.

The four brotherhoods who have made demands for increased wages have agreed to mediation of the dispute but have refused an unconditional submission of the questions to a board of arbitration. Today's announcement by the railroad war board is regarded by officials as elminating the possibility of a strike by giving the president a free hand so far as the railroads are concerned when he meets the brotherhood leaders in conference here next Thursday.

"Speaking for all the railroads today, we reiterate our belief in the principle of arbitration. In the midst of war we are, however, prepared to go further. As no interruption of continuous railroad operation can be tolerated under war conditions we are ready, should any crisis now arise, unreservedly to place our interests in the hands of the president for protection and for disposition as he may determine is necessary in the public interest."

The entire war board was present at the conference with Judge Chambers, including Mr. Harrison, who is president of the Southern railway, and former President Howard Elliott, of the New York, New Haven & Hartford, and Presidents Hale G. Holden, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; Julius Kruttschnett, Southern Pacific, and Samuel Rea, Pennsylvania.

Representatives of the brotherhoods will confer Thursday with the president regarding the points at issue and means of settlement. It is expected that the railroad war board will meet immediately after this conference to learn the attitude of their employes. Suggestions are being considered by

Summary of the Day's War News

(By the Associated Press.)

In the Trentino and along the Piave the Italians have the Austro-Germans in check for the moment and there are indications of a reawakening of fighting activity on the western front, especially in Flanders and around St. Quentin.

East and northwest of Ypres the British are now well established on the Passchendaele ridge. These positions have been under heavy bombardment by the Germans for several days, apparent evidence that the Germans are nervous and hope by their artillery fire to check a new British thrust. Around St. Quentin, north, northwest of the Allette, where the French gained a notable success, recently, German and allied patrols have been busy. North of St. Quentin both

ANOTHER APPEAL FOR WARCAMP SERVICE AID

Washington, Nov. 19.—Appeals to cities and towns which have not yet raised their quota of the $4,000,000 war camp community service fund to do so at the earliest possible moment were issued by the national headquarters of the service here today. The purpose is to look after the soldiers and sailors during their leisure hours. Reports from campaigns already completed show aggregate subscriptions of $1,500,000.

DRY TIMES AND PLENTY OF WORK CUT INEBRIETY

New York, Nov. 19.—Drunkenness has decreased greatly in New York because of the demand for labor caused by the war and indirect prohibition, according to conclusions reached by officials of the board of inebriety and hospital authorities made public today. Arrests for intoxication dwindled from 1,022 in February to 969 in August, while the psycopathis ward in Bellevue hospital has had fewer alcoholic patients in the last six months than at any time in its history. Similar decreases in other hospitals also have been reported.

IS PROBLEM OF DEFENSE

Rail Rate Increases Are No Longer Merely Economic Question.

ROADS NEED HELP TO DO PART IN WAR

Eastern Roads Prepared to Make Demand for Still Higher Rates.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Inadequacy of wartime revenues of the nation's railroads is no longer a purely economic problem, but a vital question of national defense, George Stuart Patterson, counsel for the east roads today told the interstate commerce commission in his closing argument for the carriers in the 15 per cent advance case.

He asked for a sweeping readjustment of prevailing rates to allow roads to meet soaring operating costs and serve more efficiently the transportation needs of the nation in the present emergency.

An increase of $97,000,000 produced by rate increases granted by the commission earlier in the year, taken in conjunction with the supplemental advance now asked, Mr. Patterson said, would give a total of $155,000,000, or a little more than half the advance of $278,000,000 in operating expenses.

To Ask Further Increases.

GEN. MAUDE IS CALLED

Britain's Brilliant Commander in Mesopotamia is Dead.

ILLNESS REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN BRIEF

Was Hero of Campaign to Capture Bagdad and Career Was Long.

London, Nov. 19.—Gen. Maude, British commander in Mesopotamia, died yesterday.

An official announcement issued today says Gen. Maude died in Mesopotamia yesterday evening after a brief illness.

Major General Frederick Stanley Maude, the captor of Bagdad, was rated as one of the most brilliant commanders of the war. After a series of British defeats in Mesopotamia Gen. Maude was placed in command last year and won an unbroken series of successes. Advancing from the Babylonian plains, he captured Kut-el-Amara, where Gen. Townsend's army had been compelled to surrender. He continued his drive up the Tigris, advancing ninety miles in two weeks, and last March captured Bagdad.

With the opening of the new campaign this fall he pushed up the Tigris more than 100 miles beyond Bagdad, his operations being designed primarily to defeat the expected attempt of the Germans and Turks to recapture the city.

Gen. Maude was 53 years old. He had a distinguished military record before the war. He took part in the Sudan campaign in 1885 and received the medal and the Khedive's star. He served with distinction in the South African war, where he won the distinguished service order and the queen's medal with six clasps.

Prior to taking command in Mesopotamia Gen. Maude saw service in France, where he was wounded. He was mentioned five times in the dispatches and made a commander of the Bath.

From 1901 to 1904 he was military secretary to the governor general of Canada.

GERMAN RAIDER CREW PAID HIM FOR HIS LABOR

San Francisco, Nov. 19.—Two hundred and fifty German marks were paid John M. Tweed, first mate of the schooner A. B. Johnson, during his captivity on the island of Mophea, after being taken prisoner by the crew of the German raider Seeadler, which was wrecked on that island. Tweed arrived here today from Tahiti. His work on the island consisted of building quarters for his captors and other prisoners. With Tweed were three members of the crew of the schooner R. C. Slade, who also were compelled to work while on the island.

The men were rescued by a trading schooner after the Seeadler was wrecked and the Germans sailed away on a captured ship. The marooned men were left three months' provisions.

Tweed said the German officers drew a dead line about the prisoners' camp and told them they would be shot if they stepped across it, pointing to four graves on the island to emphasize the threat.

RAILROAD GIVEN PRIORITY.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Orders to insure adequate supplies of coal to the Lehigh Valley and the Chesapeake & Ohio railroads were issued today by the fuel administration. Bituminous mines along the Chesapeake & Ohio are directed to apportion among themselves the railroads' requirements. The Lehigh Valley is supplied by mines not located along its line and its needs will be filled by giving priority for shipments from its mines.

EIGHT-HOUR DAY FACTOR

Must Be Considered in All Industries Where It is the Rule.

GOMPERS SAYS IT IS A PEACE BASIS

War Work in Industry Cannot Be Steadfast if It Be Violated.

Buffalo, Nov. 19.—Questions involving the extent of the application of the eight-hour day to contracts on government work connected with the war were expected to come before the delegates at the thirty-seventh annual convention of the American Federation of Labor this week.

Federation leaders were hopeful that no action would be taken that would hamper the spirit of co-operation that thus far has marked their negotiations with President Wilson. There was a determination, however, to stand behind the individual unions of the federation in any reasonable demands that may be made.

"If," said President Gompers today, discussing general industrial conditions in relation to wartime strikes, "employers in munition plants and ship yards make unjust demands on the workers, nothing can be done by the American Federation of Labor to settle strikes.

KOKOMO RAISES HER Y. M. C. A. BIT AT REVIVAL

Kokomo, Ind., Nov. 19.—Over $2,500 of the $3,400 that remained to be collected to put the Y. M. C. A. war work campaign "over the top" in Howard county was raised in an hour among 5,000 people at a revival being held here, last week. One subscription of $300 and several $100 brought the congregation to their feet waving handkerchiefs and flags. One widow supporting four children gave $10 for a boy in France. The campaign will be completed for the minimum today and a large oversubscription is assured.

GROUNDED SHIP HAS SLIPPED INTO DEEP

Alaskan Liner Mariposa is Lost With Cargo, But All Lives Saved.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 19.—The steamer Mariposa, which grounded on the rocks in the narrow passage of Sumner strait, southeastern Alaska, slipped from its perch and sank at a late hour last night, according to word received here today. The 265 passengers were picked up by steamers and landed at Wrangel. Included among the passengers were Charles A. Sulzer, congressional delegate from Alaska, his wife and son, who are journeying to Washington, D. C.

The Mariposa was one of the largest in the service of the Alaska Steamship company and carried a cargo of 1,100 tons of ore and 5,000 cases of salmon.

LATINS HURL A COUNTER STROKE AT THE INVADERS

TEUTONS UNABLE TO GET ACROSS PIAVE

Rome, Nov. 19.—Italian forces have begun an offensive on the Asiago plateau and have occupied advanced elements of trenches, the war office announces today.

Further attempts of the Austro-Germans to cross the Piave have been stopped.

The statement reads:

"Last night there was lively artillery activity between Lake Garda and the Astico.

"On the Asiago plain the enemy made violent concentrations of fire on our positions at Monte Toubrecar and Monte Badenocche without following up with any infantry. Our parties in new offensive operations reoccupied advanced elements of trenches, capturing six officers and 202 men.

"South of Quero enemy forces in great numbers are attacking our Monte Monfenera and Monte Tomba lines.

"On the plains the vigilance of our troops has stopped the enemy from renewing any attempt whatsoever to cross the Piave."

Enemies also are prohibited approaching within one hundred yards of water fronts, docks, railroad terminals or storage houses and are forbidden to enter or reside in the District of Columbia.

The proclamation issued as a supplement to the one declaring a state of war with Germany provides further that an alien enemy shall not, except on public ferries, be found on "any ocean, bay, river or other waters" within the United States. They are forbidden to fly in airplanes, balloons or airships and to enter the Panama canal zone.

There are mild cases of smallpox in these two homes, which at first were thought to be chickenpox. Dr. Linvil has ordered all the school children to be vaccinated.

JAPAN WILL NOT SELL SHIPS TO UNITED STATES

Washington, Nov. 19.—Coming coincidentally with the beginning of a semi-week of festivities in honor of the Japanese economic and financial commission here to broaden commercial relations with the United States, news from Tokio, of Japan's apparent refusal to sell her ships at the price offered in an exchange for American steel caused interest, but not surprise, today, to officials making the negotiations. The officials remain confident, however, that the negotiations will be successfully concluded as the price is the only issue involved.

The matter runs back to last summer when a United States embargo was placed on steel exports, denying steel shipments for allies in the war. Japan, which had pending large orders here for ship plates, protested and the United States agreed to furnish steel if Japan would divert tonnage to the trans-Atlantic service. The United States finally offered to release 100,000 tons of steel and to purchase outright at $175 a ton any amount of Japanese ship tonnage. Japan's attitude is indicated by the fact that ships are selling in the open market as high as $200 a ton.

AMERICAN CAPTAIN USES CAMOUFLAGE TO DECEIVE U-BOAT

An Atlantic Port, Nov. 19.—Fires kindled on the hatches of an American freighter saved it from submarine attack recently, according to officers of the steamer which arrived here yesterday. Shortly after leaving a European port a U-boat was observed approaching. The captain ordered small blazes made on the hatches, using material almost non-combustible but which produced heavy smoke.

When the submarine came close the steamer was stopped. The captain told the U-boat commander he carried explosives and that on account of the fire he was about to abandon ship. The submarine immediately departed, its commander evidently believing an explosion was imminent.

BOWSER VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT

Adopt Resolutions in Honor of Former Members Now Serving Uncle Sam.

At a well attended meeting of the Bowser volunteer fire department held in the shop office last week, a set of resolutions were adopted in honor of the former members who are serving the government. The resolutions are as follows:

Whereas, President Wilson, on April 6th, 1917, did proclaim that a state of war did exist between the United States of America and the imperial government of Germany, and

Whereas, The president did issue a call for all loyal American citizens to enlist their services in the defense of our flag and for the defense of humanity against the tyranny and oppression of imperalism, and

Whereas, Everett Litchfield and Glenn Burt did, on September 10, 1917, enter into the services of their country from the ranks of the Bowser volunteer fire department, be it

Resolved, That we, as members of this organizatioin, show our respect for their loyal and patriotic act by giving them not only every encouragement possible, but also by giving them our support and assistance, when called upon to do so, so far as it is possible for us to do.

Be it further resolved, that we cause their names to be placed upon the records of this organization as honorary members of the same, and be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this organization and one sent to the family of each.

We wish them God speed in all the duties they may be called upon to perform while in the service of their country and an honorable discharge from service as soon as peace has been declared.

S. H. RODGERS,
ARCHIE SPICE,
Committee.

After the resolutions had been adopted the members were surprised by being invited to a rabbit supper by the officials of the fire department, and the boys had a great time, as one of the officials expressed himself in this way: "They sure did pitch in and eat, but that is all right," he added, "the fire boys at Bowser's always do pitch in when there is a fire."

Five hundred people, including a large number from out of the city, were present Sunday at the exercises marking the laying of the cornerstone of the African Methodist church at the corner of Wayne and Francis streets. Rev. J. W. Saunders is pastor of the church, which has been holding its meetings in Dehm's hall during the construction of the new edifice.

Rev. M. C. Tunison, secretary of the Fort Wayne Ministerial association, opened the ceremonies with scripture reading and prayer. Rev. A. G. Neal, pastor of the First M. E. church, followed with a brief address, and Rev. H. B. Hostetter, president of the Ministerial association, then spoke. He was followed by Rev. L. M. Krider, of St. Paul's M. E. church. After his address the ceremony was turned over to the colored Masons. Daniel W. Caine, of Seymour, grand master of the colored lodge of Masons in Indiana, was in charge of the services.

VENICE HEARS THE BOOM OF BIG GUNS

Venice, Italy, Sunday, Nov. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—The rumble of guns is heard throughout the city by night and day as the fleet and Venice coast batteries shell the enemy at the mouth of the Piave. At 3 o'clock yestedray an Austrian airplane flew over the city, but it dropped no bombs. The batteries of Venice did not fire, but when the machine flew over the Grand canal Italian torpedo boats discharged a score of shots with effect.

The city's water supply has not been interrupted, although it is feared the mains coming from the north will be cut. The American wife of a Milan writer named Barelli has had an unusual experience. She was at Venice, while three of her horses and two blooded hounds were at Mestre, a suburb. The railway refused to take the horses and dogs, owing to the needs of the military. She mounted one horse, took the two others and the dogs by leash and rode night and day to Bologna, 200 miles away, over roads packed with military traffic and refugees.

SHIN PLASTER ERA IN JAPAN.

Tokio, Nov. 19.—Japan seems to be entering a shin plaster era. Her stock of small coins is inadequate to keep pace with the advance in the price of commodities and an issue of 50, 20 and 10-sen bills is under consideration and may be issued toward the end of the year. The present high price of silver has tempted some to melt the coins and to transform them into the more valuable form of bullion. This is forbidden by law; but a good example, if any were needed, was given by the Yokohama Specie bank which, upon the declaration of the gold ban by the United States, threw all its American gold dollars into the melting pot to allay the nervous fears of the Japanese dentists and jewelers.

BRITAIN'S SUGAR AND TEA.

London, Nov. 19.—It is officially announced that the approximate quantities of tea and unrefined sugar in bonded warehouses in the United Kingdom on September 30, 1917, were, tea, 3 ,415,000 pounds and sugar, 3,914,000 cwt. which compares with tea, 118,663,000 pounds and sugar, 2,112,000 cwt. on September 30, 1916.

COAL SITUATION IN ALLEN COUNTY

Fuel Administrator Henry Beadell Urges Everybody to Save Fuel.

Henry Beadell, fuel administrator of Allen county, has issued the following statement on the coal situation in this city and county:

"On November 1st there was about 7,000 tons of coal among the dealers of Fort Wayne, while there should have been about 70,000 tons. This is why deliveries are restricted to one ton at a time. In the surrounding towns of Huntertown, Grabill, Harlan, Woodburn, Gar Creek and others, the situation was worse, many of them having no coal at all. Up to the present my entire time has been devoted to getting coal to the places where the need was very urgent. On November 3rd, 132 cars of coal were in transit to Fort Wayne and Allen county; on November 19th 86 cars, and orders sent in November 17th were for 72 cars.

"Everybody must economize and save the fuel. Except hospitals, no houses, churches, schools, public buildings, factories and business blocks should have a temperature of over 70 Lithographic posters will be sent to all firemen of large buildings as a stimulus to them to be saving with the coal.

"In regard to the price of coal, this will be taken up in a few days. There may be a slight reduction on bituminous coal. Prices must be fair to the public and fair to the dealer. The president's proclamation of October 1st, 1917, states that the dealer's margin (the price in excess of the cost of coal landed at his siding) shall be the same as in the year 1915 plus 30 per cent. The 30 per cent is to make up as near as possible the increased cost of labor and other items that enter into the conduct of this business. Wages of the miners have been increased considerably and no class of toilers were more entitled to it. On November 17th anthracite miners were granted an increase from 15 to 44 per cent in wages; $1.40 per day increase has been granted to miners of Kentucky and West Virginia. The railroads (and they needed it) in some districts have been allowed an increase in freight rates from 15c to 45c per ton In consideration of these facts, cheaper coal can hardly be expected.

"On account of the car shortage it is essential that the freight agents of the various railroads co-operate with us and see that cars of coal are switched over without delay to the consigned dealers; the dealers must unload the cars at once and the railroads must take up the empty cars promptly and rush them back to the mines. Freight agents and dealers can report to me any slow service or delay in these transactions.

HOW THEY DID IT

THE NEED OF A HEAD.

There appears to be some violence of dissent in Great Britain from the proposal that the entente allies pool their military operations, put their armies and their employment of other resources under the direction of a single head, co-ordinate all their efforts and go in to win the war. So violent, indeed, is the objection that out of it has issued the premonitory symptoms of a cabinet crisis. The ministerial situation most probably will be cleared up and perhaps some tolerance may be found for a fair discussion, if not an altogether friendly reception, of the proposal to knit the allies together in a supreme endeavor to overcome the foe and bring the war to a victorious conclusion.

The want of supreme military direction has cost the allies enough to make the lesson of it clear. The situation on the Russian and Italian fronts and the moveless enterprise in the Balkans show in a painful way the continuing price of independent operations and hit and miss smashing. It is conceivable that the complete demoralization of Russian arms might never have come about had there been among the allies some semblance of that coherence of forces and concord of effort that have been the chief marks of the Germanic conduct of the war. It is to be recognized, of course, that not under any circumstances can the allies place all their military concerns under any domination so complete and absolute as that imposed by Germany upon her allies, for whatever our allies may do to this end must be a free and unconstrained acquiescence in measures for the general good, while Germany's allies are subordinated to the supreme will of the kaiser and his general staff by compulsions they dare not question.

It is known that the government at Washington views with misgivings the failure of the allies to make headway against the central powers. It sees ahead the necessity to shatter German power by effectual strokes or the inescapable alternative of a war terribly prolonged and at a cost that will be staggering. If America is going to finance the conflict America must have high authority in the conduct of the war. This country is going into the fight with its all. It has everything to expend that victory may be made speedy, complete and conclusive, but nothing to waste that narrow opinion, political distrust and stubborn selfishness may have their way.

The coming winter should witness a consolidation of the allies into a military machine as effective in its co-ordination and arrangements as Germany's and vastly more powerful. With all their inestimable resources of men, money and materials the allies have only to develop and apply their undeniable potentialities to secure and seal the victory. The United States must be given a proper place in the councils and conceded a suitable authority in the conduct of the war. This nation is seeking nothing but its own security. It wants no territory, no indemnity, no revenge. Its purpose is now as it will be to the end what it was at the outset. It is resolved to smash the military autocracy that has insulted its flag, violated its rights, assaulted its integrity and threatened its security. That achieved and proper hostage taken for the future, America's part in the war is accomplished.

There cannot be victory until the central powers have been checked on all the fronts. Today the German campaigns are offensive everywhere save along the Franco-Belgian line. Russia has been put out of the war and Italy is in the midst of a most critical struggle to keep herself in the war. We are just getting into the welter. It will take yet many months before our strength can be exerted sufficiently to constitute any sort of counterbalance to what the allies have lost by the defection of Russia and a year or two to offset the allied depletion if the Austro-German drive into Italy should succeed. It is time for this government to assert its view, as it is understood the purpose is in sending a special commission abroad to sit in the councils of its allies.

STILL MUST GIVE.

Fort Wayne went "over the top" with its Y. M. C. A. war work campaign fund in distinguished fashion. More than the quota of the city was subscribed and the community's record for coming fully up to every demand made upon it for the war stands in all its shining integrity.

But the giving has not been made an end of. Another campaign for money is afoot. The Young Women's Christian association is now moving for the collection of a fund to carry on its work among the women of the cantonment towns and cities. This is a vital labor of the war and an imperative duty of society. It has bearing at once upon the welfare of the young men in the camps and the future of that class of women it is purposed to reach. No other agency can so well undertake this work as the Young Women's Christian association. To accomplish results there must be organization of effort and persistent endeavor. This will take a good deal of money.

The Northeastern Indiana district for the collection of money for the fund is expected to raise $21,000. Over a territory so extensive, populous and wealthy that does not look like an undertaking offering many difficulties and we do not believe there is going to be any difficulty about it. Fort Wayne, however, must be the backbone of the movement to get this money. In this city the work of the Y. W. C. A. has furnished its glowing example and the people are familiar with the vast good it has done and is doing. Outside of the city there has been no opportunity for the people to understand this quite so well and the need of raising this fund for the association's work may not make so strong an appeal as here in this community.

It is not to be doubted that other parts of the Fort Wayne district will be ready and willing to assume their share of this task, but Fort Wayne is looked to for insuring the success of the movement to raise $21,000. Do not underestimate the importance of this work the Y. W. C. A. is undertaking about the cantonments. It is a necessary and a righteous labor for which everything can be said and against which nothing can be urged. It looks to the morals, the health and the fighting strength of the armies in a very essential way and it will have effect not to be estimated in saving both young men and young women. It is a part of the great purpose of the government and people of America to make the armies of liberty the finest and cleanest armies that ever in the whole world's history have gone forth to battle.

TRY TO UNDERSTAND IT.

Nothing humanly possible at this time can avert a general shortage of fuel throughout the winter that is now upon us. That is the opinion of all the experts of one sort and another who have given any opinion. It is the conservative estimate that there now is a shortage of fifty million tons of coal. With cold weather coming on to increase and accentuate the natural difficulties of transportation and the government's war preparations making a continually heavier draft upon the railroads there can be no great measure of relief expected.

What the government and the railroads are undertaking to do is to employ all possible measures that there may be no actual distress in the country for want of coal. Fuel must go abroad to the allies that need it. Fuel must be kept going in a steady stream to industries here that are performing work without which the war cannot be carried on and to all industries essential to the employment and prosperity of the country. It is a vast problem with many complexities.

The people can help greatly by understanding how vital to the situation is the conservation of fuel. There cannot be waste and there cannot be extravagance, but there will be fuel enough distributed to prevent suffering if all consumers of coal will join together in common purpose to make the best of a situation for which there is no complete remedy. Understand your part in it and help.

The food administration has not yet made it clear whether there is to be turkey and cranberries or chuck roast and dried apples for Thanksgiving. We judge, however, that the price of the big birds is due for a moderate drop now or a crash later on.

NOVEMBER.

Upon a garden wall with winding way,
A clinging vine kept creeping noiselessly.
While nourished by the mouldering wall's decay,
Upon a garden wall with winding way
The vine still grew a little, day by day;
And Summer wept and smiled so cheerfully,—
Upon a garden wall with winding way,
The clinging vine kept creeping noiselessly.

But Autumn came and with his chilling blast
He pressed the vine still closer to the wall.
The green leaves paled, a varied hue was cast,
When Autumn came with bleak and chilling blast—
To try it, then, and see if it were fast,
He shook the vine and caused the leaves to fall,
For Autumn came with bleak and chilling blast,

DEEPER AND DEEPER

HOW UNCLE SAM IS GOING TO WORK HIS NEW SCHEME FOR FINANCING THE WAR

BY MILTON BRONNER.

Mr., Mrs., Miss, or Master American Citizen, have you 25 cents?

If so, Uncle Sam wants you to lend it to him to help whip the Huns.

That is the meaning of one of the most gigantic financial plans in the world, which will be launched on December 3, and extend over a year.

The government has raised huge quantities of money in two liberty loans, which appealed to every citizen who had $50 or $100 or more to spare.

The campaign to sell war savings certificates is designed to raise $2,000,000,000 from people who did not feel they could afford $50 at a time, and yet are anxious to prove their Americanism.

The method is simple; on and after December 3, at any postoffice, bank or trust company, and at many railroad offices, stores and factories, THRIFT STAMPS and WAR SAVINGS STAMPS will be on sale.

Here is how it works out: Little Mary Jones, milliner, wants to help her government win the war. When she draws her week's wages she feels she can spare 25 cents. She goes to the postoffice and buys a thrift stamp. At the same time they give her a thrift card, which has spaces for 16 thrift stamps.

She pastes her thrift stamp on the thrift card, and writes her name and address in ink. Then if she loses it, the finder can drop it in any letter box and the postoffice department will return it to her. As soon as Mary has bought 16 thrift stamps, at 25 cents each, her thrift card is filled.

War savings stamps sell at different prices. During December, 1917, and January, 1918, they will sell at $4.12 each; in February, 1918, at $4.13; in March at $4.14; and so on, increasing regularly one cent each month. Now if Mary Jones completes her thrift card in March, 1918, she trades it in to the government, giving with it 14 cents, and then becomes the owner of a war savings stamp. She gets with this war savings certificate, which has spaces for 20 war saving stamps. If she buys just one stamp, at the end of five years—January, 1923—instead of getting back her original $4.14, she gets back from Uncle Sam $5.

In other words, her money has paid her four per cent. at compound interest.

The moment Mary pastes her war savings stamp on the war savings certificate, she has something that is safe from thieves or fire. She can take it to any postoffice and have it registered in her name free of charge. No one else can then cash in on it, and if it is destroyed, upon proof, she gets a new one.

When a war savings certificate is registered it is payable only to the owner, and at the postoffice where it wsa registered.

If Mary Jones becomes hard up next year and needs money, she can surrender her war savings certificate and get her money back, plus 3 per cent. interest. However, the government hopes every buyer will hold the certificates until they mature in 1923.

The price at which war savings stamps were to be sold was determined for each month by taking the number of dollars and cents which at 4 per cent. interest compounded, quarterly, will on January 1, 1923, equal $5.

The 25-cent thrift stamps are green and little larger than a postage stamp. The war savings stamps, also green, are about four times the size of a postage stamp. On each side is engraved a list on the months during which they will be sold, and the price during that month.

As often as Mary Jones buys a war savings stamp she pastes this on her war savings certificate until she has 20. This fills the certificate, and she can then start on another. Purchases are limited to $100 maximum at one time, and to $1,000 to any one person. If a person bought 20 war savings stamps next December or January he would pay $82.40 and get back $100 on January 1, 1923, making $17.50 interest.

MAKE THE NATION'S WATERPOWER AID TO WIN THE GREAT WAR

BY GIFFORD PINCHOT.

The great war in which our nation is engaged will be won not alone by food and men, but by mechanical power as well. Without mechanical power we could not make or move the weapons with which we fight—guns, ammunition, ships and supplies. Our national resources of power, whether from coal, oil or water power are national war necessities. We need them to win the war.

In this gigantic struggle our security requires us to use all these great resources and to use them wisely and well. The people of the United States own some fifty million undeveloped water horsepower, or about enough to run every train, trolley, factory, mill, mine and electric power plant we have.

For ten years the friends of conservation have urged the development of public waterpowers in the public interest. But development has been held back by a little group of waterpower magnates and their friends in congress, who have blocked all legislation which would not give them these valuable properties forever and for nothing.

Today, when the nation needs all its resources, the same men who have been blocking reasonable waterpower legislation own and are holding millions of water horsepower undeveloped and out of use while clamoring for more.

The time has come when such obstruction threatens the nation's safety and success. We need the development of these powers in war even more than in peace. At the coming session of congress sound waterpower legislation should be enacted as a war measure, based upon principles fair to all sides. These principles I believe to be as follows:

(1) The thing to do with waterpower is to develop it. Whatever retards or restricts the development of public waterpowers on terms fair to the public is against public policy and hostile to the general welfare.

(2) Waterpower belongs to the people. The sites where it is produced should always be held in public hands, for only so can effective control in the general interest be secured.

(3) Where public development is not desired, the right to use waterpower sites should be leased for periods long enough to permit sound, attractive and profitable investment, but never longer than fifty years. At the end of each lease all rights should return to the people who gave them.

(4) In order to protect the consumer against extortion, rates and service should be regulated by federal authority when state or local authorities fail to do so.

(5) Reasonably prompt and complete development and continuous operation, subject to market conditions, should be required. Already millions of water horsepower are held out of use to further monopoly by private corporations.

(6) Corporations or individuals who make money out of rights granted by people should share their profits with the people.

(7) The public has a right to complete information about every business based on the use of public property.

These are the principles for which the friends of conservation have been contending. Many waterpower men believe them to be fair and sound. They will, I hope, commend themselves to you as wise and reasonable. I am writing to ask your support for immediate legislation, based upon them, when congress meets.

This is no time to give away public assets necessary for the welfare of our people, both in the war and after the war, and we should not longer tolerate the selfishness of private interests which take the dog-in-the-manger position that they must have these waterpowers on their own terms or no one shall use them at all.

As the president has said: "The supreme test of the nation has come. We must all speak, act and serve together."

WAR ON OUR OWN GROUND.

(Indianapolis Star.)

If we do not win the war in Europe the conflict will be transferred to this soil. The fellow is a desperado, side and fought out on our own soil, but there are ways of carrying on war other than by contest of arms, and some of them apparently are in operation in this country now. They are stealthy, cunning, dishonorable ways at which the common enemy has proved itself adept. One is the circulation of seditious sentiment—opposition to the war, false peace propaganda, subtle efforts to weaken the war spirit, the dissemination of falsehoods concerning war conditions—another the destruction of food, munitions and other property important to the prosecution of the war.

The extent of this destruction, so far as it affects insurance companies, is easily and exactly measured. Statistics recently published show that since the United States entered the war more than $25,000,000 worth of food has been destroyed by fire. This is at the rate of about $45,000,000 a year, or enough to feed an army of a million men for almost a third of a year. From known facts and from well-based inferences it is estimated that three-fourths of this loss has been incendiary.

One ground for this conclusion is the fact that the total incendiary loss in the United States in 1915 was $10,000,000. The total loss in 1916 showed an increase in the total of incendiary fire losses of $40,000,000, chiefly in munition fires and explosions. What is known as the Black Tom explosion caused a loss of $11,000,000, but this item is not listed as incendiary by underwriters, since it is not definitely proved that it was caused by enemy agents, though there is little doubt that this was the case. This year the work of the anti-American "firebugs" has been directed more to foods than to other property. The items include the Rochester fire, $1,000,000; the Kansas City stock yard fire, $1,500,000; the Brooklyn elevator fire, $2,000,000; the Baltimore fire, $5,000,000; food loss from other fires in October may run easily, to $10,000,000. The Rochester, Brooklyn, Kansas City and Baltimore fires are admittedly the work of incendiaries.

These figures supply a definite measure of the underground war campaign that is being carried on in this country. On the other side we fight an enemy in the open field; here it steals upon us in the night and with the torch. Considering the danger from this source, no intelligent person can afford to look at the war lightheartedly and feel safe because it is so far away. The war is already with us.

The regular meeting of the Isaac Knapp Dental coterie was held last evening at the office of Dr. M. A. Mason, the president. Dr. H. C. Sites and the following members were in attendance: Drs. S B. Brown, M. A. Mason, W. W. Shryock and S. B. Hartman. Dr. H. C. Sites read a paper on "Dental Prosthesis."

Telegrams were sent all along the line of the Pennsylvania this afternoon to arrest a man who had possession of train No. 1 with a revolver and was running it to suit himself. At a number of stations the police were present to make the arrest, but were afraid to tackle the desperado, who was armed with a big 42 calibre revolver. The police force of the city was notified and Lieutenant Lapp and Officer Quinn were at the station with the patrol wagon. The train was two hours late. When it arrived Conductor James C. Craig stepped to a window and told the police that the desperado was in the rear coach and had his revolver. Both officers closed in on the man and after a desperate struggle, handcuffed him and rolled him into the patrol wagon. A forty-two calibre revolver was taken from him. At the station the man gave his name as Henry Kaufman and said he was a hotel porter living at Delphos, Ohio He said he had been out the night before with an actor and both got drunk. He got on the train at Delphos. The passengers lived in terror of the fellow all the way. He walked up and down with his revolver ready to shoot the first one who disputed his possession of the train. A large bottle of whisky was on his person.

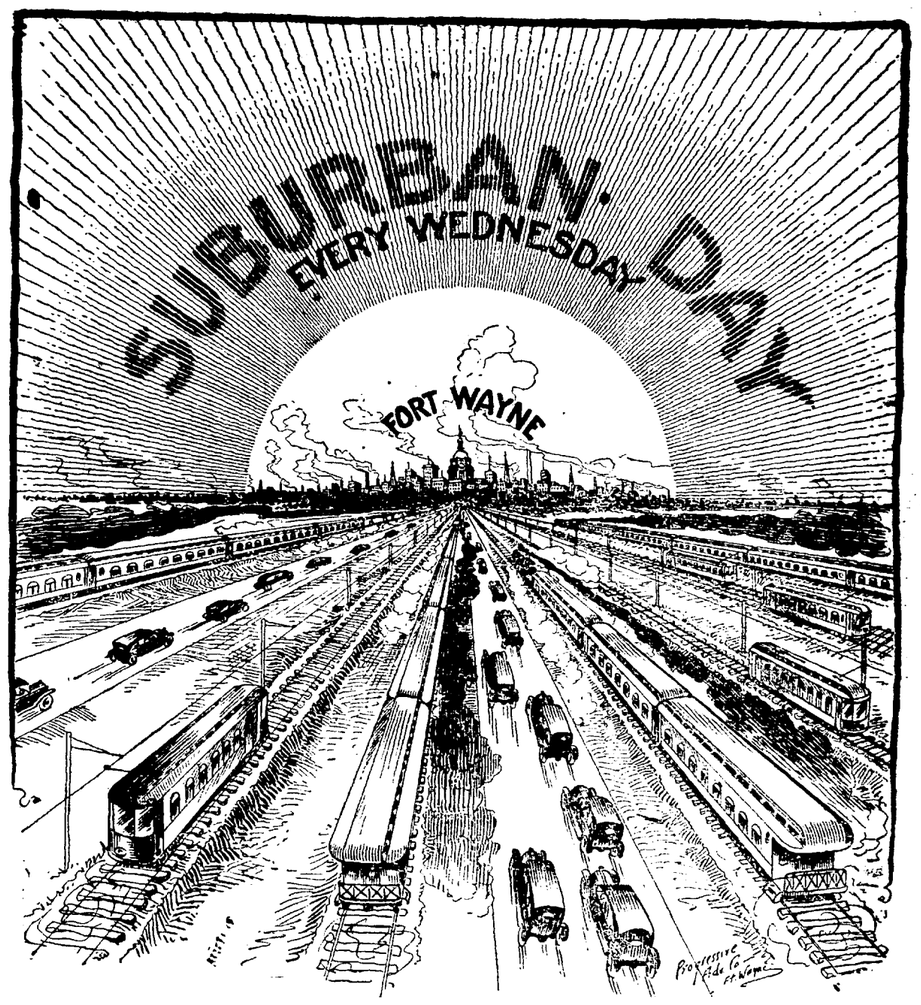
Suburban Day Fort Wayne's great weekly shopping event, has already accomplished four important objects:

1—It has proven to be a wonderful money-saving institution. And the holidays are approaching!
2—It has shown the out-of-town people that Fort Wayne can supply the needs, and it is not necessary to turn to the metropolitan cities or to the mail order houses.
3—It has promoted a close friendship between the merchant and the people of the neighboring cities and farming districts.
4—It has taught the people to support the merchant in the home town by proclaiming the advice: "Try your home merchant first—then try Fort Wayne."

Come to Fort Wayne this week Wednesday. The stores are filled with seasonable goods at attractive prices. The theaters have splendid attractions. "Indiana's Second City" is a delightful place to spend a day for profit or recration. Make your plans NOW to come WEDNESDAY.



Uncle Harry Explains The Importance of The New American-Japanese Agreement

"What's the lesson this evening?" asked Uncle Harry, looking over Joe's shoulder at the geography that his nephew had spread out on the table. "Oh, Japan; that's interesting—and very timely."

"Why do you say it's timely, Uncle Harry?" asked Helen, who had stopped her knitting for a moment. "Do you mean the new treaty or whatever it is that Japan and the United States have just signed?"

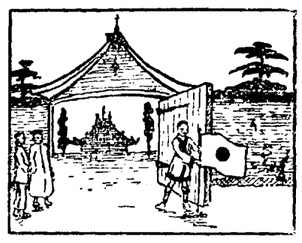
"That's the very thing," answered Uncle Harry.

"The newspapers have printed a lot about the treaty and it seems to be very important, but I don't understand why," added Helen. "Japan and our country have been good friends; haven't they Uncle Harry?"

"Yes, the two countries have been good friends," said Uncle Harry. "But they are even better friends now; they understand one another better, and the treaty and the conferences between Mr. Lansing, our secretary of state, and Viscount Ishii, which led up to the treaty, or rather agreement, for it isn't, strictly speaking, a treaty even though it serves practically the same purpose as a treaty, will mark the beginning of increased good will between many millions of people."

"Who did you say held the conferences with Secretary Lansing?" asked Jimmy.

"Viscount Ishii, one of Japan's foremost statesmen, who has lately visited our country at the head of a delegation of other Japanese statesmen, who came here for the express purpose of talking over with our government officials, the interests that the two countries have in China—for it has been China, the great new republic of the Orient, with its vast natural resources, very largely undeveloped, that many people believed might lead to trouble, and possibly war between the United States and Japan."



"There has been a lot of talk about trouble between our country and Japan, for a long time, hasn't there?" asked Joe.

"Yes, there has," answered Uncle Harry, "and President Wilson and Secretary Lansing, and the leading officials of Japan, have been very wise in meeting and talking the whole matter over and coming to what seems to be a very sensible agreement.

"Japan and China, you know, are very, very old countries," Uncle Harry continued. "Japan is a small, island nation, and China is big in territory and tremendously rich in natural resources. But it has only been during the last half century that Japan and China have been trading, to any extent, with the rest of the world. It is true that China has made much greater progress politically, in recent years, and is now a republic; but Japan has developed much more in a business way—principally in manufacturing. Japanese manufacturers need the raw materials that are to be found in China, and during the last few years many people have become to believe that Japan intended to take advantage of China, get possession of her resources and prevent the rest of the world from trading with China."

"Is that what people mean when they talk about Japan closing the 'open door' in China?" asked Joe.

"Exactly," said Uncle Harry. "And, the Philippine Islands being one of our possessions, many people said that Japan might same day try to take the Philippines away from us. Then there was the trouble in California, a few years ago, about Japanese attending the public schools, and owning land. Then, too, you remember there were rumors from time to time that Japan was looking for an opportunity to get some land in Mexico. Finally, our government revealed the would-be plot of the German government to get Mexico and Japan to attack the United States, in case we went to war with Germany."

"I don't wonder people were a little suspicious of Japan with all that talk," said Helen.

"That was the very point," said Uncle Harry. "There was so much talk and so few people really knew just how Japan felt toward the United States, that our officials and the Japanese officials decided that they ought to get together and talk the whole matter over; come to a definite understanding, and then make a complete announcement to the people of both countries. And that is just what has been done. Japan has announced in the new agreement that she has no intention of interfering with China's independence or taking any Chinese territory, and that instead of wanting to close the 'open door' to China, she is in favor of keeping it wide open. Our government says that it recognizes that Japan, because of her nearness to China naturally has special interests in China, but at the same time believes that Japan intends to play fair with China and every other nation."

"And after the agreement had been signed," said Uncle Harry, "Secretary Lansing and Viscount Ishii gave statements to the newspapers which make it very clear to the people in Japan as well as in the United States, that only the most friendly feelings exist between the two governments, and that there is no reason at all for talk about unfriendly relations between the two peoples and no reason for trouble."

"Why, that sounds as though progress were being made toward a continued and assured peace in one part of the world at least, even in the midst of the world's greatest war," spoke up the boys' father, who had come into the room a little while before and had been listening to Uncle Harry's talk.

"Yes, and without a single shot being fired," replied Uncle Harry. "Which just goes to show what can be done when people are willing to sit down together and talk things over and be fair and reasonable with one another, as Secretary Lansing and Viscount Ishii were when they held their conferences in Washington."

Editor's Note—Uncle Harry will be glad to answer inquiries, either in this column or by mail, provided letters are signed with the full name and address of the persons writing. The correspondents' names will not appear in the articles.

Rapid Transit To Country Club Gardens

The convenience of rapid transit is one of the numerous features of Country Club gardens, located just west of the Country club. There is the Huntington road on the north and Taylor street on the south, both smooth roads, connecting with the city pavements, and also the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana traction line, which makes quick trips between the gardens and the city. This removes the last obstacle of life in the country, which so many people desire. Country Club gardens make it possible for the city man or woman to purchase a small tract at a price which comes back to them in real returns from the products of the ground within a short time, while they are partaking of the real joy of living

Howard Pfeiffer, 1218 Rivermet, a carpenter, has just purchased from the City and Suburban Building company a lot in the gardens, where he expects to build in the spring.

POILUS LAUGH UNDER SHELLS

Correspondent Lyon Has a Bit of a Frolic on French Front.

WRITER IS IN THE VERY HEART OF WAR

Unshaken Spirit of the French Shows They Are Good Sports.

BY C. C. LYON.

(Staff Correspondent of The Daily Sentinel.)

With the French Army on the Western Front, Oct. 26.—A terrific artillery duel was on, the day we crawled up the winding tortuous approaches to "Dead Man's Hill" in the Verdun sector.

Across the way, on Hill 304, we could plainly see, through our glasses, the French infantry that for days had been holding the first line trenches against the repeated counter assaults of the Germans.

The roads were almost obliterated by the intense cannon fire that had gone on day and night, unceasingly, for weeks.

Within the range of vision there was not a building of any kind whose roof or walls had not been shattered by German shot.

On the very edge of this desolate, fire-swept world the French guide had stopped his small party of Americans and had said:

"Somebody is being killed around here every hour almost. It is very dangerous. Each of you must declare he understands the situation and accepts the risk."

We all so declared and accepted.

"Then follow me closely," he said, and he led us up the slope into what a few weeks before had been the first line French trench, but which had been left behind when the French pushed forward into new positions.

Hidden in the hills behind us, the French artillery, with deadly accuracy, was planting shell after shell in the German trenches.

Fascinated, we watched the black clouds of smoke and debris that indicated where each shot found its mark.

"Wonderful!" exclaimed one of the Americans. "How can those Germans over there—"

He didn't finish. Just then a big German shell fell with an ear-splitting explosion not more than 150 yards from us.

A minute later a second shell came within 100 yards.

The French guide, who had been under shell fire hundreds of times, admonished us.

"There's no use ducking your heads. The shells you hear never hit you and the shells that hit you you never hear."

"Nevertheless," said Harris Dickson, short story writer, who was along, "I get a good deal of consolation out of these ducks, and if you don't mind I'll take a few more."

"And as for me, gentlemen," said Irving Batcheller, author of "Eben Holden," "I think I'll be going back down hill. I'm not afraid of the shells, understand, but I don't want to get this new raincoat of mine all spattered with mud."

At the foot of the hill we came upon a group of French soldiers examining a brand new shell hole.

"Why don't you get away from there?" I asked one of them.

"Because I might get hit if I did," he answered. "Shells seldom, if ever, strike twice in exactly the same place."

A little farther along a French ambulance was backed up to a shattered wall and a wounded poilu was being loaded into it. He was gay as he laughed and chatted with the ambulance men.

His left arm had been shattered.

"C'est la guerre (It is war)," he called to us. "I'm thankful it wasn't my head. ANYWAY, I STILL HAVE MY GOOD RIGHT ARM TO MAKE LOVE WITH."

"That's the secret of the strength of the French army," our guide observed. "The French soldier is a good sport, as you would say in America. He takes what comes and makes the best of it."

While we were in the vicinity of Dead Man's Hill and Hill 304 a number of French airplanes took to the air and flew far behind the German lines.

Each was a target for scores of shots from the enemy's anti-aircraft guns but none of the machines was hit.

"The German airmen are afraid of us today," said a French ofgcer. "You've noticed, haven't you, that they're not offering us an air battle." us today," said a French officer. up with an invitation from the French general to visit his headquarters.

We found his office and living quarters to consist of several rooms cut out of solid rock about 30 feet underground.

As we sat around his table we could hear German shells breaking overhead.

"I'm very sorry I have to bring you so far underground to offer you my poor hospitality," he said.

"Oh, that's all right," said the American who responded. "We assure you some of us would feel more comfortable if you were down 60 feet instead of only 30!"

KENDALLVILLE MAN IS HIT BY AN AUTO

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Albion, Ind., Nov. 19.—Dr. W. F. Carver, of this city, was summoned to Kendallville Friday to minister medical aid to Adam Alabaugh, who had been run over by an automobile and seriously injured. Alabaugh several years ago resided near Albion. Jacob Alabaugh, a son, a few days prior to this, accidentally broke a leg while at work in Fort Wayne and died at the hospital, where he had been taken for treatment, dying before service could be rendered.

I found that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gave the quickest relief and that he never objected to taking it."—Advertisement.

ANNUAL REPORT IS SPLENDID.

Needlework Guild Round-Up Shows Great Progress.

The Fort Wayne branch of the Needlework Guild of America presents this year at its annual round-up a remarkable showing of work of garment members. From a total of twenty-three sections 6,005 new garments were turned in while the shoe fund donated by men, women and children, summed up $192.26. A further showing of interest in the work is noted by the fact that ten sections sent in many more than their required number of new garments, which must be twenty-two and a money member besides. Ten sections sent in over 200 garments each and one section sent in over 700, so it was no wonder that instead of a total of 506, the required number of twenty-three sections, the energetic directors and section presidents got so interested that they multiplied that number several times. Two new sections are counted in this year, having been organized in time for the report and there are thirty-six new directors. A director is one who pledges herself to secure ten garment members, or members enough to contribute 110 new garments, household linen included as a "garment." Five of these directors form a section and the one who gets her ten garment members and secures the aid of four other women, men or children to act in the same capacity as herself becomes a section president and the other four with their garment members come under her jurisdiction. New section presidents for the coming year are Mrs. O. R. Kelsey, Mrs. F. J. Thieme, Mrs. Allen Courtney, Mrs. E. R. Ruff, Mrs. Frank Bohn, making a total of twenty-eight. The thirty-six new directors include Mrs. F. D. Bond, Mrs. F. S. Hunting, Mrs. Charles Bales, Mrs. I. L. Walker, Mrs. Harry Fletcher, Mrs. C. M. Niezer, Mrs. Cora Eiter, Mrs. C. W. Honeck, Mrs. O. L. Hutchins, Mrs. A. Weinstein, Miss Ruth Levy, Mrs. Henry Jordan, Mrs. William Horner, Mrs. S. Hinds, Miss Irene Hazzard, Mrs. Theodore Koch, Mrs. Myra Vesey, Miss Marguerite Langford, Miss Margaret Ann Keegan, Mrs. C. L. Baird, Miss Mabel Bowers, Miss Helen Gilmartin, Miss Stella Merz, Miss Maud Jolliff, Mrs. George Hibbins, Mrs. Dean Metcalf, Mrs. Fred Martin, Mrs. C. Mize, Mrs. Francis Miles, Mrs. Charles Paul, Mrs. George Philbrick, Mrs. E. R. Ruf, Mrs. Frank Tolan, Mrs. Gus Willson, Mrs. Noah Zehr. New section presidents reported from last year are Mrs. Charles Hughes and Mrs. Charles Bales.

The distribution of the 6,005 garments sent in is made always partly according to requests from institutions and from principals of schools concerning children in their respective buildings. The distributions are:

Ice Cream Price Goes Up

The unusual advance in milk products and all other things used in the manufacture of ice cream, makes it necessary to raise the price of ice cream.

Ice cream contains nothing but food products. While it goes through a special preparation that makes it more pleasing to the taste, it is never-the-less a food in its highest form. Wholesome, delicious and nourishing.

Water ices and sherbets require 3 times as much sugar as ice cream and have very little food value. For that reason, the ice cream factories of Fort Wayne will not make sherbets until sugar becomes plentiful.

EVERYBODY'S KNITTING FOR SAMMIES IN FRANCE
SOME FIRST THINGS TO REMEMBER IF YOU HELP

BY GRACE JOHNSTON.

New York, Nov. 19.—One of the largest auditoriums in the city of New York was crowded with women. They had come together at the invitation of the womens' committee of one hundred for non-partisan government to hear Mayor John Purroy Mitchel speak.

It was not a roaring, noisy, wild gathering such as men are wont to make of their political meetings. The women sat composed and quiet, diligently applying themselves to their knitting. But when the mayor rose to address them, a burst of enthusaism greeted him and a perfect sea of gray and khaki worsted waved before him. Then the knitting of sweaters and scarfs and helmets was resumed while the "fighting mayor" presented the campaign issues to an interested audience.

In a middle western city a preacher patriotic preaches severy Sunday morning to an audience, half of which—no, probably at least three-fourths of which—are women who knit and listen, knit and listen, knit and listen.

In New York women knit in automobiles, at the theaters, at tea in the hotels. They knit in the railroad stations, in the subway and on the street corners.

A gorgeous knitting bag of silk or velvet or chintz trimmed with satin flowers and gold lace or wool embroidery or beading is as important a part of a new fall costume as veil or collar or any other trapping.

To be sociable, you must knit; to be smart you must knit; to be patriotic, you must knit.

And most important of all, you must knit according to directions so that your work will be serviceable—there is need for all your knitting—none should be useless because it has not been made according to directions. Red Cross official directions must be followed as to the weight of the wool used, the size of the needles, the color of the yarn and the fashioning of the article.

The matter of color has been considered with the authorities of the war department and with the American Red Cross commissioner for Europe who is stationed in Paris. Either gray or khaki is acceptable to both these sources.

There is difficulty in securing khaki colored yarn in large quantities and the American Red Cross supply bureau is carrying the gray yarn (oxford mixture, 4-ply 01's construction.)

The needles recommended are standardized Red Cross needles, the diameter as follows:

No. 1—125-1000 inch.
No. 2—175-1000 inch.
No. 3—200-1000 inch.

No. 1 needles are supplied in either steel or celluloid.

When yarn and needles other than those of Red Cross standard are used knitters must be careful to observe the measurements given for each article, and a larger or smaller number of stitches used as may be required to meet the specified measurements.

some cooks that they are wasteful, but the boys in the trenches over there are aided or injured by what we do here to save or waste food and if kitchen warfare is necessary to put a quick stop to extravagance, why let us have war.

"I do not make the assertion that all cooks are wasteful and all heads of homes thrifty. Often the contrary is the case. But I do want to emphasize the fixed belief of many men that if their wives did the cooking as they did in the early days of their home making the family table would cost far less than it does now, when club work, and socks for soldiers and all the other activities of the life of modern woman leaves little time for the supervision of the buying and preparation of food.

"It is hard to purchase personal interest with servants' wages. And that is why the best service many women may give their country is a renewed attention to the kitchen end of the home. There is no stirring appeal that makes the blood rush the quicker, in the baking of cornmeal muffins, instead of biscuits. It may be more inspiring to roll Red Cross bandages than to follow the precepts of 'Hoover Thrift' cards; it surely is not more necessary and when the records are written the woman who has helped in the war in her kitchen will share equal honors with those who have served closer to the battle line."

Sensible Sweets for Thanksgiving

BY BIDDY BYE.

The omission of pumpkin pie from the Thanksgiving spread would be even more calamitous than the omission of turkey and since the ingredients of this plump yellow delicacy are still within reach of the ordinary purse we hasten to add an excellent recipe for the standard pie and recipe in which eggs are absent.

PUMPKIN PIE—One and one-half cupfuls steamed and strained pumpkin, 2-3 cupfuls brown sugar, 1 teaspoonful cinnamon, 1-2 teaspoonful ginger, 1-2 teaspoonful salt, 2 eggs lightly beaten, 1 1-2 cupfuls milk, 1-2 cupful cream. Mix as for custard and bake in rich pastry crust.

EGGLESS PUMPKIN PIE—One pint of prepared pumpkin, 1 quart rich milk, 3 tablespoonfuls flour, 1-2 teaspoonful cinnamon, 1-4 teaspoonful allspice, 1-4 teaspoonful cloves. Fill crusts and bake slowly. This recipe makes three pies.

FROZEN CHOCOLATE WITH WHIPPED CREAM—Two squares bitter chocolate, 1 cupful sugar, pinch of salt, 1 cupful boiling water, 3 cupfuls rich milk.

Scald the milk and melt chocolate in saucepan set in hot water, adding one-half the sugar, salt, and gradually, the boiling water. Boil for 5 minutes and then add to scalded milk and remaining sugar. Cool mixture and freeze. Serve in tall glasses garnished with whipped cream, sweetened and vanilla flavored.

CRANBERRY FRAPPE—One quart of cranberries, 2 cupfuls water, 2 cupfuls sugar, juice of 2 lemons.

Cook cranberries and water 8 minutes, then force through a sieve. Add sugar and lemon juice and freeze to a thick mush, using equal parts of ice and salt.

ICEBERGS—Four cupfuls sugar, 3-4 cupfuls lemon juice, green vegetable coloring, creme de menthe to flavor.

Make a sirup by boiling water and sugar 20 minutes. Cool, add lemon juice and coloring. Freeze and serve in champagne glasses, pouring 1 teaspoonful of creme de menthe over each portion and sprinkling with chopped nut-meats.

We are thoroughly equipped to do your dry cleaning. Peerless—phone 6095.

Dr. Barnard Suggests Women Watch Cooking

"Who is the greatest slacker, the cook in the kitchen who wastes food because she has never learned the value of thrift or the mistress who will not take the trouble to teach her better methods of work?" asks State Food Director Barnard. "It is easy to shift responsibility and blame the cook for the ever-increasing grocery bills. It would be more patriotic to go into the kitchen and see that every waste is stopped. I am quite aware of the fact that trouble somtimes comes to women who with the best intent, try to change the working methods of their helpers. But the possibility of a conflict over the proper way to pare potatoes or utilize drippings should no longer deter any woman from taking action when action is necessary. It may be bringing the war into the home to tell you are trying to live up to the suggestions of the food administration at your house; (2) an interesting and valuable book of suggestions and recipes, entitled "Ten Lessons on Food Conservation"; (3) a wall card to hang in your kitchen, entitled "The Kitchen War Creed," to show you how you can help win the war in your own kitchen if you wish.

And the food administration will mail you other helpful things later, perhaps.

To sign this card is a patriotic privilege. It will make you a leader in your neighborhood in the task of saving certain foods for our soldiers and our allies.

Sign this card. Show Mr. Hoover you are with him. Hang out your window membership card when it comes. Read the interesting literature that will be sent you.

The government is not going to ask for your canned goods or for anything else, because you sign this card. You incur no obligations. You merely promise to study the problem of "food saving to win the war" and do what you can to help.

Auburn Short Notes.

The Auburn high school basketball team defeated the team from St. Joe Friday evening in a game played at St. Joe. The score was 43 to 17. This is the second game the Auburn lads have won from St. Joe this year.

Two violators of the game laws were arraigned in Justice Chester Hodge's court Saturday afternoon and were fined each $5 and costs, making the sum of $25 for each violator to pay. The parties were Walter Hose, whose home is three and a half miles south of Butler, and Charles Riser, of three miles east of Butler. Both pleaded guilty to killing fur-bearing animals out of season. Neither of the men had a hunting license, which would prohibit them from hunting at any time.

Deputy Sheriff Fisher, of Berrien county, Michigan, was in this city Saturday and with Sheriff Frank Baltz, of Auburn, went to the Double Fabric company and arrested Allen L. Blood on a charge of wife and child desertion. He said he would return to Buchanan, Mich., with the sheriff without extradition papers. He also claims that his wife refused to live here with him, stating that she returned to Michigan last August. He has been working in Auburn since May.

The marriage of Clifford G. Hart aged 20, and Miss Vera M. Guilford, aged 17, occurred Saturday afternoon at the Lutheran parsonage in this city, Rev. Slater officiating. The groom is from Monroeville, while his bride is an Auburn resident. They will make their home on a farm near Monroeville.

Both parties reported at police headquarters. C. W. Fultz, 330 Kinniard avenue, reported to the police that he struck a rig driven by James Potter, R. R. 10. Mr. Potter and another man were thrown to the pavement, but escaped serious injury.

A. W. Garman was removed to his home, 2720 Hoagland avenue, on Sunday, after a week's confinement at the Lutheran hospital, because of injuries.

FARMERS WHO HOARD POTATOES NOT WISE

Crop is Immense and History Shows What Will Happen by Spring.

Indianapolis, Nov. 19.—Indiana farmers and growers who are hoarding potatoes are asked by the Indiana state food administration and the Indiana state council of defense to give attention to statistics which have been compiled by the federal authorities. This is in order that they may not be deceived either as to the extent of the potato crop or the price at which potatoes may sell next spring. Dr. Harry E. Barnard, state food administrator, authorizes the following official executive statement through the Indiana state council of defense on this vitally important subject:

"The price of potatoes is at present $1.65 per bushel. Crop reports for October give the crop for 1917 as 453,000,000 bushels. This is the biggest crop of potatoes in the history of the United States. In view of this fact the prices are all out of proportion to what they should be. The farmers all over the country are storing the crop in hope of higher prices in the spring. No more foolish practice could be imagined. It will be very surprising if the big drop does not come before April.

"The year books of the United States department of agriculture show that whenever a poor crop is followed by a good crop, the prices in the fall of the good crop are always high and the spring prices are low. In 1908 the potato crop was poor, followed by a good crop in 1909. In September, 1909, potatoes were selling at 65 cents per bushel; in October for 55 cents; December, 58 cents; April, 1910, 31 cents, and May and June at 34 and 28 cents, respectively.

"In 1911 there was a short crop, followed by a heavy crop in 1912. In September, 1911, the price of potatoes was $1.30 per bushel; in October the price was 85 cents; November, 95 cents; December, $1; January, 1912, $1.15, and in April $1.70. Then came the heavy crop in the fall. In September the price was 95 cents; December, 65 cents; January, 1913, 52 cents; April, 43 cents, and June, 36 cents.

"It is almost certain that a similar situation will come about this year. The crop is being held for higher prices which will not come. The man who is worrying about the price to be paid for potatoes next spring is making a mistake, because the price undoubtedly will be less than a dollar a bushel."

Only recently the Indiana state council of defense was informed that potatoes were being shipped into the state from Colorado and the local retail price met, which would indicate that the Indiana producer is going to find a market pretty generously supplied when he does bring forth his potatoes, now not apparent on the market.

CAN'T SELL THEIR CORN TO THE DISTILLERIES

Dr. Barnard Counsels the Farmers of Northern Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 19.—Farmers of central and northern Indiana who are holding their 1917 corn in the expectation that they will realize more on it through sale to the distilleries are urged to disillusion themselves. "There isn't a chance," says Dr. Harry E. Barnard, Indiana food administrator, who is working through the Indiana State Council for Defense and county councils in an effort to save perhaps 15,000,000 of the late corn which suffered from frost.

The Indiana State Council of Defense has figures to prove that even the distillers are directed by the federal government to proceed with the manufacture of commercial alcohol and stock feed from all the corn they can handle, their capacity isn't large enough to take care of all the corn in that section of the state which early in the spring was flooded, thus necessitating a recultivation of the corn crop. If it is possible to save any of this crop it will be given preferred attention, first because of its proximity to the distilleries and second because of the inability of the growers to realize from t n any other way.

In the central and northern sections of the state almost all of the standing corn may be used profitably for feed. Farmers are urged to gather crop where it is ready and feed it before the rot prevents. Where the corn is still standing it is suggested that it be permitted to mature and then turned into feed, at once. Otherwise their corn may be a total loss, for the federal government has no plan whereby they can be given any relief.

A Good Suggestion.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY THE SCHOOL BOARD

In Memory of Late Chester T. Lane, for Years High School Principal.

Resolutions in memory of the late Prof. Chester T. Lane, for years principal of the Fort Wayne high school, have been passed by the school board. The resolutions are as follows:

On October 21st there passed from this life, Chester T. Lane, who for thirty-six years, the span of a generation, had given, as its principal, direction and impulse to the Fort Wayne high and manual training school. Thousands of men and women, citizens of our community, owe to his vision and his work a debt which can in no wise be measured. He came to Fort Wayne and to Indiana at a time when the High School was an experiment in education. To his far-sighted direction, to his ability in foreseeing criticism and demand, the high schools of the state are largely indebted for their present standing in the educational system of Indiana.

Mr. Lane, as principal of the high school, established as its fundamental principles, two qualities—work and discipline. A thorough scholar himself, he tolerated nothing but the student's best efforts. Himself an honest and discriminating citizen, he demanded from all his pupils that unquestioning obedience to authority which forms the only secure foundation for citizenship. We feel that the solidity of our institution in this city, the careful conservatism which marks our reputation in the state are due in no small measure to the standards held up before our young people for all these years by this man.

Proper and fitting, therefore, it is, that the Board of Education of the City of Fort Wayne shall make this public acknowledgement of his ability and his services.

The resolutions were signed by A. L. Randall, E. W. Cook and W. H. Shambaugh, the members of the Fort Wayne school board.

Backache? Rheumatism? Run-Down?

Those of us who are past middle age are prone to eat too much meat and in consequence deposit lime-salts in the arteries, veins and joints. We often suffer from twinges of rheumatism or lumbago, sometimes from gout, swollen hands or feet. There is no need of this as the new prescription, Anuric, is bound to give immediate results as it is many times more potent than lithia, in ridding the impoverished blood of its poisons by way of the kidneys. Simply ask for Anuric (double strength) for kidneys or backache, the discovery of Dr. Pierce. It will overcome such conditions as rheumatism, dropsical swellings, cold extremities, scalding and burning urine and sleeplessness due to arising from bed.

A MARVELOUS HERBAL TONIC FOR WOMEN.

Elkhart, Ind.—"After becoming a mother I did not get along well, could not gain back my strength. I was extremely nervous and became very weak; was in a general run-down condition and two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription built me up in good health, cured me of all nervousness and my general health was better than it had been for some time. I can recommend 'Favorite Prescription' as being a splendid medicine for women." —Mrs. G. E. Timerman, 513 William St.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been sold by druggists for nearly fifty years. It is put up in both liquid or tablets. If not obtainable at your dealer's send 50 cents to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and he will mail direct a package of the tablets.

ENGLAND'S BOND SALES.

London, Nov. 19.—Since the issue of the new five per cent. war bonds, the applications received by the Bank of England have totalled 37,991,550 pounds. The average daily sales have been nearly 3,500,000 pounds. During eleven days in which the five per cent. exchequer bonds were on sale applications amounted to only 12,000,000 pounds. The last named bonds have now been suspended.

GERMANY'S STANDARD SHOE.

Amsterdam, Netherlands, Nov. 19.—A standard shoe is to be introduced in Germany this winter, according to the German papers. Millions of pairs will be manufactured, being made of a leather substitute. The soles will be formed of wood and small pieces of leather.

WILL PLEAD FOR GIRLS

Women Workers Present Peril of Young Women in Camp Towns.

Y. W. C. A. CAMPAIGN ON THIS AFTERNOON

A PICTURE.

In her address Sunday afternoon Miss Frances M. Crittenden said: "To mobilize the girls in and around the cantonment centers—for instance, at Rockford, Ill., from which place the men off duty go so far away as Beloit, Wis., which is not in the 'dry' belt, and where we have to face the matter of the spoilation of women and girls by other women and girls—has brought to us a terrific problem. * * The most unheard-of situations brought suddenly into being through the establishment of military camps containing 30,000 to 50,000 men—in many instances in the neighborhood of small settlements—has made necessary the bringing together of thousands of women and girls to meet the legitimate needs of the camp town. As soon as the government representatives awoke to the startling situation they appealed to the Y. W. C. A. for help."

Following an intensely impressive meeting this afternoon of the one hundred and fifty young women who are to be responsible for the success of the Y. W. C. A. drive for funds to help save the young women of the cantonment towns and thereby strengthen the army of the United States in its stupendous task of winning the war, the workers have started on their rounds. The Fort Wayne district must produce $21,000 or fall short of the nation's expectations.

Pictures Deplorable Need.

Yesterday afternoon, before a large audience of earnest men and women, Miss Frances M. Crittenden, of Chicago, who has made an inspection of cantonment conditions and assisted in organizing the work for the betterment of the conditions of the women and girls, gave an address in the gymnasium of the Y. W. C. A. building.

Miss Crittenden made clear the fact that from the beginning of time it has evidently been the place of woman in the world to meet emergencies. The call of the Fosdick commission to the Y. W. C. A. to undertake this big task is the logical thing in the scheme of the nation's affairs. Already the importance of the work has been recognized to the extent that $50,000 has been subscribed by the international committee of the Y. W. C. A., $50,000 by Rev. W. A. Sunday, $500,000 by the Rockefeller Foundation—in fact, a total of $768,000 on condition that the association meet the challenge to raise the funds to undertake all that the government's representatives have asked it to do.

The Work to Be Done.

Miss Crittenden drew an impressive, if not appalling, picture of conditions which necessarily prevail in many of the contonment communities. In some of these centers where associations were already at work, additional secretaries and workers were added, and the situation was handled with immediate success, but in thirty-two of the cantonment centers there was no organization, and the situation had to be handled from the ground up. One happy thought has seemed to come as a godsend to the women to whom was given the great task of discovering a means of taking thousands of girls of all types and degrees in the social scale and uniting them in large bodies to teach them the true ideals of life and to give to their country the great expression of patriotism. It is the organization known as the "Patriotic League," whose members subscribe to a pledge which requires the member to (a) do her work every day better than she ever did it before, (b) to do whatever duty her country calls her to do, and (c) to be careful of her conduct so that no one may be wrongly led by her example. Each member wears a white button containing a blue square.

TWO—WILL PLEAD

Miss Crittenden asserted that the organization of these leagues in each of the cantonments and cantonment towns has worked wonders in keeping girls and young women from entering upon the evil ways which are so easily invited by camp conditions. There's only one way to meet the problem and that is to induce the girl to join with other girls in some organization of such size and attractiveness that it will appeal to all the girls of a community. You can't set a girl on a bench and teach her morale. We have to deal with high school girls, grade school girls, girls who work, girls who don't work, the girl tramp—the loafer—every class of girl; and unless we can engage them in something that is really patriotic, the cause is lost. The 'Patriotic League' is meeting the need. But the problem grows."

Business Girls Active.

Under the generalship of Miss Anna Roehm, of the general Y. W. C. A. campaign committee, two teams of business girls have been appointed for work in the industrial centers. The personnel of the teams is as follows:

PFLIEGER IS UNABLE TO GET $1,000 BOND

Louis J. Pflieger, the Chicago man arrested by Sergeant Detective Brennen and Lieutenant H. Grimme, on a charge of shooting and seriously wounding his wife, is still in jail at Chicago. Although the man's bond has been set at $1,000 he is unable to furnish it and no friends have offered to come to his rescue.

Just before Pflieger left Fort Wayne he stated that he had any number of friends in Chicago who would help him out in a short time, but these friends are evidently lacking. When asked if the Wells Construction company, for whom he was working, would fight his case, he stated that it was not necessary, that he had plenty of friends without them.

In the meantime Pflieger's wife is slowly recovering in a Chicago hospital. Her ultimate recovery is certain, and Pflieger's sentence will probably be comparatively light, as he has made a good record previous to this time.

NOVEMBER TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT OPENS

Most of the Day is Devoted to Hearing of Criminal Cases.

The November term of the circuit court convened Monday morning with one of the biggest dockets for several terms. The opening day was devoted principally to the hearing of criminal cases.

James Taylor, colored, was found not guilty of petit larceny. He was charged with stealing a pair of shoes from a Pennsylvania box car. The court stated that while circumstances led to Taylor's guilt, the testimony presented had not been sufficient to convict.

Charles Frederick, charged with wife neglect, was found not guilty.

The case against George Mills, charged with child neglect, was postponed and Mills was allowed to go on his own recognizance.

The case against Arthur Swain, charged with the unlawful possession of an automobile, was dismissed. The same action was taken in the case of Willis Weber, charged with grand larceny.

SURETY SUED.

Clover Leaf Casualty Co. Demands $150 from Homer J. Kelsey.

Suit for $150 was filed in the superior court Monday by the Clover Leaf Casualty company against Homer J. Kelsey. The complaint sets out that Kelsey was surety for Mott R. Long, an agent for the casualty company, who, it is charged, collected and has failed to pay over to the company the sum asked for in the suit.

DRANK EXCESSIVELY.

Eliza Stephenson Sues John M. Stephenson for Divorce.

Because her husband is addicted to the drink habit, Eliza Stephenson filed suit Monday in the superior court, through Attorneys Hartzell and Todd, asking for a divorce from John M. Stephenson. Mr. and Mrs. Tinsley were married on Nov. 6, 1915, and separated Nov. 5, 1917.

Many Tax Remittances.

During the last two weeks of taxpaying County Treasurer William F. Ranke received exactly 19,096 pieces of mail. This shows that the sending in of tax remittances by mail is becoming more popular inasuch as it does way with the necessity of waiting in the long line of the cashier's window.

The civil and claim dockets will be called Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock by Judge J. W. Eggeman in the circuit court.

On His Way Home.

David C. Stout, county clerk, who has been hunting for the past week in the wilds of northern Michigan, is expected home Tuesday. URGE FRIDAY AS MEATLESS

State Food Commission in Suggestion for Saving More Food.

DR. BARNARD BACK FROM CONFERENCE

Declares Food Situation in Country Much Worse Than Realized.

Indianapolis, Nov. 19.—The Indiana food commission today recommended the observance of a meatless Friday in addition to a meatless Tuesday. Dr. H. E. Barnard, state food administrator, who attended a conference with Herbert Hoover, national food director last week, today said the situation is much worse than generally is realized. He declared that efforts to save more wheat, sugar and animal fats must be made. The following program was recommended:

Meatless Tuesday, meatless Friday; wheatless Wednesday, no bacon at breakfast at any time, one wheatless meal each day; use less sugar, use less animal fat.

Dr. Barnard also suggested that all after-luncheons and lunches usually given after card parties and entertainments be eliminated.

Defining meatless days, he said it meant no beef, pork or mutton in any form.

WAITERS IN CHICAGO SAID TO BE SPIES

Chicago, Nov. 19.—Investigation of charges that waiters employed in Chicago hotels were alien enemies, agents of foreign espionage corps eager to glean information from the men of affairs they served, has been ordered by the Chicago Federation of Labor. The federation intends to report the result of its inquiry to federal authorities. The charges were made by B. M. Parker, representing the Waiters' union. Parker asserted that most waiters serving in large hotels are members of an organization known as the Geneva association, with headquarters in Dresden, Germany, and that 75 per cent of these waiters are not citizens and that a majority of the mare German and Austrian subjects.

LADY WITNESS STILL UP IN SHAY MURDER CASE

Indianapolis, Nov. 19.—The cross-examination of Mrs. Gertrude Anderson, the woman companion of Dan Shay in the cafe of a local hotel the night of May 3 when Shay is alleged to have shot a negro waiter, continued in his trial here today. Her testimony under cross-questions by the prosecution, was similar to her story Saturday when first called by the defense. She continued to say that the waiter started the trouble. She admitted under cross-examination that although she knew the police were searching for her as a witness after the trouble she kept her identity hidden for several days.

SAND POINT LADIES GIVE RED CROSS $71

Proceeds of Chicken Supper Held Friday Night Yields This Sum.

The ladies of Sand Point realized $71 from the supper they served last Friday night at the Sand Point school and turned this amount over to the general fund of the Red Cross Monday afternoon. The ladies gave a "perfectly wonderful" chicken supper, to quote from an enthusiastic Red Cross worker, and only charged twenty-five cents for a meal served in real country style. The place was filled, as is shown by the excellent sum realized. The ladies are deserving of much appreciation for their work for everything served was donated by the women of the district.

Mrs. Freda Straus will open her French classes Monday night at the Red Cross headquarters on East Berry street. The classes are open to everybody, but those who expect to leave soon for the army are especially urged to attend. The classes are to be free, but if anyone feels like paying for the instruction the money will be turned over to the general Red Cross fund.

On a recent visit of a Red Cross representative to the First Baptist church she found twenty-five women working on hospital garments. They were using seventeen machines for the work. This is a record that shows how the American women of all factions are helping in the war.

One woman created a new record for individual Red Cross work last week. This was Mrs. J. E. Wolf, 1526 Lake avenue, who made and turned into the Red Cross twelve suits of pajamas.

Miss Frances Ott will not be able to meet with her classes at the Red Cross headquarters Monday night, as word has been received that she is very ill at her home in Plymouth. She will be present Tuesday night and will meet with all of the classes at 7 o'clock.

The classes in surgical dressing, which will be held this week, will commence Tuesday morning in charge of experienced teachers. Anyone interested may take the course which will be taught by Mrs. Fred Heine, Mrs. Arthur K. Remmel and Miss Mallie Johns.

Sixteen local Red Cross workers have received their cards entitling them to teach classes as recognized teachers. Those receiving this honor are: Mrs. A. L. Johns, Mrs. George Sears, Miss Sadie Fleming, Mrs. Arthur K. Remmel, Mrs. W. W. Rockhill, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Herman Mackwitz, Miss Carrie Schraeder, Mrs. W. K. Noble, Mrs. Fred Heine, Miss Mallie Johns, Mrs. Elizabeth Harkenrider, Miss Winifred Callahan, Mrs. Hal Reher, Mrs. Ralph Clark and Miss Jane Branson.

The mite-box still keeps up its good record at the local chapter headquarters and averages around a dollar a day. Monday morning it contained $1.86.

The women of the St. Patrick's Catholic church have sent in an order for 100 cut garments which they are going to finish and turn over to the Red Cross.

The information desk at the Red Cross headquarters is adding another duty to its many daily tasks. The ladies are going to keep a roster showing the location of every Allen county soldier and sailor. They want the next relative of every departed soldier and sailor to leave his present and home address at the desk and each name will go into the roster. All those leaving for the national army are requested to come in and leave their name and address before going.

The Red Cross warehouse received large shipments from Bluffton and Renssalaer Monday morning. Word was received that all knitted socks sent to the warehouse should be thoroughly washed with white soap. This is done to keep them from shrinking any more than can be helped.

SEVENTY-EIGHT JOIN ARMY SINCE NOV. 1

There have been seventy-eight enlistments at the Fort Wayne recruiting station since the first of the month. Sixteen men left Monday for various branches of the service. The eight Italians who enlisted last week left Monday for service in the aviation corps. Three others went to the coast artillery, two to the medical reserve and three to the aviation corps. The news that men of draft age cannot enlist after December 15 has caused a rush at the local station and November promises to be a record breaker.

TRIAL OF BIANCA DE SAULLES IS BEGUN

Mineola, N. Y., Nov. 19.—The trial of Mrs. Bianca De Saulles, Chilean heiress, for the murder of her divorced husband, John Longer De Saulles, politician and former Yale athlete, began here today. The greater part of the day was devoted to obtaining a jury. Indications were that the defense would be insanity. Talesmen were questioned by her lawyers in a way to give that impression. Mrs. De Saulles is alleged to have shot her former husband during a quarrel about their four-year-old son, the custody of whom was decided between the parents.

ONE CAUSE FOR THE SPREAD OF SMALLPOX

Case is Cited Where Rules of the Health Board Were Ignored.

A case was brought to the attention of the health board Monday which, as stated by Dr. L. P. Drayer, is a cause for the spread of smallpox. Over two weeks ago a case of smallpox broke out in the family of Eugene Heaney, 603 Prospect avenue, and in a short time all members of the family excepting the father became ill with the disease. No word, however, was sent to the health board, no quarantine kept nor a doctor summoned. Sunday the father became ill and shortly broke out with the eruptions. Instead of calling a doctor he proceeded down town, exposing many people to the disease. The doctor promptly sent him home and quarantined the house. With the exception of the breaking of quarantine by one person, no other cases of disregard for the orders of the health board have been reported.

Reject Bids on Trucks.

The board of works met Monday afternoon for a final decision on the automobile truck question for the garbage plant. At the meeting held last week the salesmen from various factories placed their bids and presented the merits of their cars and the board decided to prolong the decision for one week. At the meeting Monday afternoon the bids were rejected and the project will be readvertised. It will probably be some time before a truck will be contracted for as the board has decided to give the buying of the truck a thorough discussion to avoid a mistake in choice.

Park Developments.

The Lincoln cabin erected in Foster park has been fully completed and is now ready for dedication. The structure is an exact duplicate of the original structure. The park department is planting trees in Kensington place addition. Owing to the heaviness of the soil it has been found necessary to use dynamite to loosen it up.

RED CROSS CIVILIAN COMMITTEE TO MEET

Many Matters of Importance to Be Brought Up Tuesday Evening.

The Civilian Relief committee of the Red Cross has been called to meet at 8 o'clock tomorrow, Tuesday evening, at the Commercial club. Copies of the law have been received by the chairman and the committee will read it and discuss their duties under its terms. The committee consists of C. R. Lane, chairman; O. E. Mohler, Mrs. Lew Ellingham, Rev. Joseph F. Delaney, O. A. Newall, P. A. Thompson, W. H. Kruse, Miss Minnette Baum and Dr. M. F. Porter, sr. The law became operative November 1 as to payments and the treasury department which has charge of it, is having the blanks filled out so that payments may begin. This is a large task and it may be several months before those entitled to payments will begin to receive them. The payment of half the soldier's pay to the wife is compulsory and it is also compulsory as to any divorced wife who has not remarried and is entitled to alimony. The soldier must also pay half to the support of children who have no mother. All payments to other dependents are voluntary. The payments are made by the government to the persons named in the application. The amount due a wife with children is $15 from her husband, if a private and to $15 from the government making $30 in all; to a wife with one child $25 in addition to the half of her husband's pay; to a wife with two children $32.50 and $5 for each additional child up to $50 a month, in addition to the half from her husband.

FIVE DIVERS IN ONE DAY

SAYS HE NO LONGER FEARS SUBMARINES

Ex-Premier Asquith Talks Against Plan of Allied War Council.

London, Nov. 19.—Five German submarines were destroyed on Saturday. Premier Lloyd George made this announcement today in the house of commons.

In the house of commons today former Premier Asquith opened the debate in the creation of an allied war council and the recent utterances of Premier Lloyd George.

Mr. Asquith deprecated the setting up of any organization to supersede or interfere with "the unfettered activity and independent position" of the general staff. He opposed interference with the ultimate responsibility of each allied government for its own forces and to its own peoples.

Has No Bias.

Mr. Asquith said he looked at the new machinery without bias to see how far it would conduce toefficiency in prosecution of the war by the allies. The new scheme had been launched, he declared, in an indictment of the general strategy of the allies on the ground that it had been in several instances dilatory or misdirected. He felt that he would be failing his duty if he did not call attention to it.

Replying to Mr. Asquith Mr. Lloyd George said the machinery for consultation among the allies had become inadequate and that they had suffered previously on account of defects of the system.

His Former Criticism.

The premier said that any criticism which he had directed against the conduct of affairs of the past, in proposing the change, was not directed against any staffs or commander-in-chief of this or any other country.

The premier, continued Lord Kitchern, suggested an inter-allied council. It was again proposed last July by the military heads of the allies. As far as he could gauge public opinion in America would have preferred a council with executive powers but there were reasons why he thought it undesirable to set up a council with full executive authority unless the allies were absolutely driven to it by failure of the present scheme.

The premier said he had no further fears of submarines.

SAMMY IS MAKING HIS WINTER PREPARATIONS

With the American Army in France, Nov. 19.—(By Associated Press.)—Preparations for winter were begun actively today by the American troops. Various units have been ordered to cease drills temporarily on account of this work. The principal tasks are found in the towns where the soldiers are billeted in buildings which are draughty and in some cases damp. The weather has been cold and wet for the last week and the troops welcome the opportunity to provide for their own comfort.

INDIANA BEATS MINIMUM IN LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 19.—The sixty-eight Indiana counties in the Seventh federal reserve district subscribed $69,652,600 to the second Liberty Bond Loan according to a report received here today from district headquarters in Chicago. The estimate at the close of the campaign was $72,000,000. The shrinkage was caused by duplications and mistakes in reports. The amount subscribed was $14,291,320, more than the minimum allotment. The maximum allotment was $92,200,000.

ONLY THE AMERICAN ARTILLERY ENGAGED

With the American Army in France, Sunday, Nov. 18.—(The Associated Press.)—The artillery fighting and patrol activities continue on the American sector. The infantry had not taken any part in engagements and for the past few nights the Germans have not been coming near the American lines, apparently having learned that it is dangerous to do so. Nothing of special interest has been reported from this front during the past twenty-four hours.

TWO DIE IN AUTO SMASH.

Kokomo, Ind., Nov. 19.—Mrs. William S. Johnson, aged 64 years, and Benjamin Johnson, aged 45 years, both of Indianapolis, are dead as a result of an automobile accident occurring near Underhill, north of here last evening. There were nine persons in the machine when it struck some fresh gravel at a curve and turned over. All the other passengers were injured, but

FRIARS DEFEAT HEAVY COLUMBUS PANHANDLES

Spectacular Playing First Quarter Gives Locals Two Touchdowns.

The speedy Fort Wayne Friars swept the heavy Columbus Panhandles off their feet during the first quarter of Sunday's game and did all the scoring of the afternoon before they were stopped. The final score was 13 to 0. Specht, Pliska, Chambers and Dorais gained at will during this period and it is well they did, for the Buckeyes braced and were hard to beat after that. The Columbus aggregation, billed as a light team, outweighed the Friars to a man. Their back field was light, however.

Coming before the two biggest games of the season, with Wabash and Hammond, Sunday's game had a decidedly unfavorable ending, because Al Feeney, the Friars' star center, sustained injuries that will probably put him out for the remainder of the season. During the second quarter Feeney had his knee severely wrenched. Soon after Dorais was thrown into the fence but was not severely injured. The Panhandles had a hard way of playing which detracted from the interest in the game and made it dangerous for any of the Friars who got in their way.

First Quarter.

Captain Dorais won the toss and chose to defend the north goal. Fred Nesser kicked off to Lockwood, who was downed in his tracks. On two end runs Specht and Pliska made first down for the Friars. Specht followed with a twenty yard gain around the left end, aided by good interference. On two plays Pliska made eight yards and Chambers made two more through center. With the ball on the Panhandles' twenty yard line Chambers made two, Specht added six, but Helvie lacked three inches of making it first down. Chambers made the gain through center carrying the ball to the five yard line. On the next play Helvie bucked center to the one yard line, but the Friars were penalized for off-side play. Specht was given the ball and started on a wide end run, but he suddenly whirled, retraced his steps and shot through center for a touchdown. This was the first ever scored by the locals against the Panhandles and the crowd went wild. Dorais missed his kick. Score, Friars 6, Columbus 0.

Fred Nesser kicked to Dorais, who made a pretty return to mid-field. With a six point lead Dorais opened the Friar aerial attack, but the first attempt was intercepted by Corcoran. Gulke hit the line for a five yard gain. Ted Nesser hit for three, but a pass to Fred Nesser failed and it was the Friars' ball. After Dorais failed to gain he followed with a pretty forty yard pass into Rochne's arms. On the next play the Friars were penalized for off-side play. A pass into Pliska's hands slipped through his fingers. Dorais broke loose for a twenty yard gain and Specht made it first down. Pliska hit center for a touchdown. Dorais kicked the goal. Score, Friars 13, Columbus 0.

Fred Nesser kicked off to Dorais, who returned to the Friars' forty-five yard line. Chambers failed to gain, a long pass to Helvie went wild and a pass to Pliska was missed as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter.

It was the Panhandles' ball and Gulke dropped the ball after hitting center for five yards. Feeney recovered. The Friars failed to gain and after receiving a penalty Dorais tried a long pass, which was intercepted by Gulke. On the next play Gulke made three through center, Ted Nesser added three more, and a pass to Gulke made first down. Pliska was hurt trying to break up the play, but resumed after a brief rest. Here Feeney received a badly wrenched knee that may put him out for the rest of the season. The fans cheered the popular Al as he was carried to the Friar bench. Nesser's pass to Kuehner was wild, and on the next attempt Pliska intercepted.

Dorais tried to gain after a fumble, but was thrown for a five-yard loss. The Friars could not gain and Dorais punted. The Panhandles could make but little headway and Fred Nesser punted to the Friars' twelve-yard line. Specht carried the ball for fifteen yards out of danger. Dorais followed with twenty more. After several losses Dorais gained twenty yards on a spectacular play, but was thrown into the fence and forced to retire from the game. Ambrose went in for Dorais. Glockson went in for Dennison.

Glockson kicked to J. Nesser and it was the Panhandles' ball. Glockson stopped the first two Buckeye advances. Chambers intercepted a pass as the half ended.

Second Half.

During this half neither team had much of a chance to score. The Friars were weakened with injuries and were playing the game safe. Even now the heavy Panhandles could not gain. Fred Nesser kicked off. The Friars could not gain and Glockson kicked to J. Nesser. Several passes were broken up and Fred Nesser punted to Specht. Specht made a ten-yard gain. Several passes failed and Glockson punted to J. Nesser. Berghoff intercepted Ted Nesser's pass and returned ten yards. The Panhandle line held and the Friars lost the ball by a few inches. The Friar line held and Fred Nesser punted to Specht. After a few short gains Specht punted. Nesser's passes went wild and Gulke punted to Ambrose. The Friars could not gain and Glockson punted to the Panhandle thirty-yard line. Smith went in for Pliska and received Nesser's punt. Glockson kicked to mid-field. A pass from Gulke to Fred Nesser made fifteen yards. Young went in for Chambers and intercepted Nesser's pass. Smith, Specht and Young made eighteen yards on three plays. Specht failed for the first time on making a gain and Huntington went in for him. Young again intercepted Nesser's pass, but Ted Nesser got it right back by intercepting Ambrose's pass. Berghoff kept it up by nabbing the next pass. Both teams were passing wildly.

Glockson punted to J. Nesser. The Panhandles made their biggest gain when Ted Nesser broke through the line for thirty yards. His slowness kept him from making a touchdown for with a clear field before him Smith ran him down and made the tackle. The Panhandles lost it right back by being penalized twenty-five yards for dirty playing. The game ended with the ball in their possession. Score: Friars, 13; Columbus, 0.

AFTER THE GAME.

Three straight wins for the Friars and they are looking better all the time. Wabash and Hammond will furnish the next two victims.

It will sure be tough to start a game without the old reliable Al Feeney in the line-up.

Specht has established a record this season for hard work. No back field man ever had a bigger stock of work, fight and "pep" than has he. With only a few regulars in the line Sunday he kept them fighting all the way and when others could not gain the ball went to Specht and the gain was made. His efforts at keeping Bashaw fighting, when he was nearly out, had such an effect that Bashaw stopped everything that came his way.

Glockson was greeted with a warm reception as he went in for Dennison. The big boy is welcome on the Friar lot. He played a nice game, although the wind stopped his puting power.

Ted Nesser, Panhandle fullback, is not as young as he was once, and his playing caused amusement on several occasions. He is a fighter though, and kept going all the way.

Rockne played another star game at end and had the same ability to catch a pass as he had last Sunday. Elward and Rockne are one and the same, but his real name was withheld last Sunday.

Pliska has been having a string of hard luck the last two games. He has failed to catch several passes by a few inches which would have resulted in touchdowns if he could have got them.

Ambrose made several attempts to get lose for a sensational run, but could not make it. "Am" has made a record at this kind of play.

Smith played a hard game during the last quarter and if he was thirty pounds heavier would have few equals at his position.

Young has learned a number of new tricks this season and has them all going at fullback. He has learned to follow the ball so closely that it is no unusual occurrence to see "Bull" recover a fumble or intercept a pass. He hits the line with twice as much steam as last season.

The Panhandles did not look as dangerous as on their two previous visits to the local field.

And now our old rivals, Wabash, will be here next Sunday. The hardest and best game of the season will no doubt be waged, as the Wabash team has always proven to be a dangerous bunch to the Friars.

WABASH TICKETS TUESDAY.

Tickets for the Wabash game next Sunday will go on sale early Tuesday morning at the Wayne and Calhoun streets store of the Meyer Drug company, where all reservations will be made, including those from out of town. If, however, any requests for tickets accompanied by remittances are received through the mails in the meantime, they will be given prompt attention by the management.

SUPER-BACKFIELD MEN MAKE THE UNBEATABLE GEORGIA TECH ELEVEN WONDER TEAM OF COUNTRY

Vanderbilt university has always been looked upon as about the toughest football nut to crack in the south, year in, year out.

The teams of the Tennessee school have always been placed on a pedestal similar to that occupied by Yale and Harvard in the east and Chicago and Minnesota in the west.

This rating is no doubt just. Vanderbilt has won the southern title more times than any other member of the conference. On several occasions the Vanderbilt warriors have come north and always have given a good account of themselves.

All of which leads up to the case in point—the victorious season of Georgia Tech, the wonder team of America.

It is not for us to say that Georgia Tech has the greatest team in the country. Pittsburg or Ohio State both have great teams and the issue will never be satisfactorily settled.

But a team that can beat Vanderbilt 83 to 0 is far out of the ordinary—and deserves the name "the wonder team."

This year Tech has produced one of the really great backfields of the country led by Everett Strupper, one of the super-backs of 1916 and Joe Guyon, the former Carlisle star.

The rest of the team is not much inferior to these stars and working under the leadership of J. W. Heisman has developed into one of the most feared scoring machines of the decade.

HAMMOND BEATS WABASH IN LAST PERIOD, 7-0

Clabbys; However, Are Outclassed in the First Three Quarters.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 19.—Outclassed in the first three quarters of the game, Hammond by a concerted spurt in the last quarter shoved Holstrom across the goal for the only touchdown and for the second time this year defeated Wabash. The count was 7 to 0. Captain Blocker of the visitors, participated in almost every play, but his prowess hardly equalled that of Captain Miller, of the locals, who hit the Hammond line for big gains. Allen's tackling, Reno's fast footwork, and heavy line smashing of Falcon, formerly of Evanston, gave Wabash the best of it in the three periods. The lineups:

HAMMOND.	Pos.	WABASH.
Kole	L. E.	Gurtner
Whitlock	L. T.	Yount
Sulliger	L. G.	Schneider-McMurray
F. Blocker	Center	Tibbs

ALBION HIGH DEFEATS THE CHURUBUSCO TEAM

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Albion, Ind., Nov. 19.—Albion high school basketball team in a heated engagement with the Churubusco team at the opera house Friday evening completely routed the visitors and scored a satisfactory victory, which atones for the drubbing administered our boys in the first struggle for supremacy at Churubusco. The attendance was good and cheers were long and loud when victory became assured.

G. E. JUNIORS WIN.

In a good game at the Cathedral gym Saturday afternoon the G. E. Juniors triumphed over the St. Mary's high school team by the score of 20 to 10. Excellent guarding and fast work on the floor featured the play on both sides. The lineups and scores:

Suber	F.	Bail
Horstman	F.	Moses
Fox	C.	Zurbuch
Gausephole	G.	Jauch
Passino	G.	Woehnker

PROSPECTS DIMMED.

Minneapolis, Nov. 17.—Prospects of a repetition of last year's success when Minnesota tied with Illinois for the Western Conference basketball championship, are somewhat dimmed owing to the lack of veterans and promising material this season.

Captain Douglas and "Pudge" Wyman are in military service, Stadsvold has graduated and all members of last year's second team either have graduated or are ineligible. Thus L. J. Cooke, coach, is facing a difficult problem.

Captain Gillen and Kingsley are the only veterans who are expected to answer the first call, but the Gopher coach hopes to complete the quintet with Arntson, Hauser and Schroeder or Eklund, all football men.

DEFIANCE DEFEATED.

TIGERS DEFEAT THE OVERLAND SPECIALS

In the preliminary game at League park Sunday afternoon the Tigers defeated the Overlands in a fast and hard-fought game by the close score of 7 to 0. It was not until the third period that a touchdown was made and this was done by means of a twenty-yard forward pass. The lineup of the two teams was as follows:

OVERLANDS.	Pos.	TIGERS.
Martin	L. E.	Bruner
E. Martin	L. T.	Burlage
Holstine	L. G.	Millhouse
Magers	Center	Murphy

NOT CUSTER TEAM THAT PLAYED HERE.

Elsewhere on this page appears a story by wire telling of the defeat of Camp Custer by Pine Village. It was not, however, the Camp Custer team that opened the season here with a win over the Friars. The team which played Pine Village Sunday was an eleven representing Company C, 339th machine gun battalion.

"TOMMY" ATKINS SET FOR GO WITH EMMETT

Local Battler is Full of Confidence and Hopes for Victory in This Fight.

Tommy Atkins, the classy little local battler, is training hard and faithfully for his coming fight November 30 with "Frankie" Emmett at Indianapolis. At their former meeting Atkins lost on a decision but is full of confidence now and counts on an easy victory. In his training at the Lucky Athletic club, 120 East Wayne street, he has shown that he has developed a punch. This is what he lacked in the previous fight.

The bout at the capital city is a ten round go, but Atkins don't think it will go over six, for he intends to jump right after Emmett on the start and stop it as soon as he can. From the steam and punch he has been showing in his training his words are not mere idle remarks. The addition of the punch to his stock of ring tactics has given Atkins a world of confidence and his comeback is sure to stick.

PINE VILLAGE TEAM BEATS CAMP CUSTER

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 19.—Pine Village played in improved form yesterday and defeated the Camp Custer soldier eleven 2 to 0. King, the great Harvard player, made two touchdowns and was in every play. Bacon and Fenter also made touchdowns. The game was a fast one and the soldier boys played strong at times. The Custer team was outweighed twenty pounds to the man and Harry Costello, Custer quarterback, played a dashing game. Thompson and Miller also played good defensive ball.

WILL FLY SERVICE FLAG.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—A "service flag" will fly in every park in the American league next season, if a suggestion made to B. B. Johnson, president of the league, is carried out. Mr. Johnson has taken the plan under consideration.

It has been suggested that the flags be uniform and show the total number of ball players who have left the league to join the forces of Uncle Sam. Some of the clubs may display a second "service" flag to show how many of its members have joined the army or navy. To date several ball players have been called to the colors; some have entered officers' reserve training camps, and others are expecting a call in the next drawing for the national army.

OAKWOODS ARE WINNERS.

The Oakwood basketball team opened its season at the Smart gymnasium by defeating the Internationals by the score of 30 to 16.

SPORT CHATTER

THE PEST.

He sits behind you at the game
His chatter always is the same
"There's old Ty Cobb, why him and me
"Is buddies, close as we can be.
"I knowed him when he was a kid.

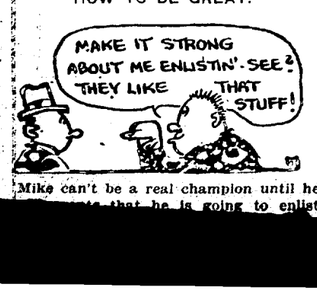
HOW TO BE GREAT.



Mike can't be a real champion until he [illegible] that he is going to enlist

St. Paul has at last corralled the middleweight championship, but it's a safe bet that Mike Gibbons doesn't feel any better about it.

Anyway, Mike O'Dowd can claim to be champion of Al McCoy, which is more than Mike Gibbons and a lot of others can say.

100 IS NEARER.

It takes ten years to build a championship ball club according to Charlie Comiskey. Garry Herrmann probably doesn't

Wrinkles Disappear "As If By Magic"

"In the removal of wrinkles, I have discarded cosmetics entirely," writes Mme. Corsan, the celebrated beauty expert. "The results they produce are deceptive and never permanent. Massaging is only partially successful and it is too slow a method.

"I've never seen anything work such wonders as a simple, harmless solution any woman can prepare and use at home without the least trouble. A half pint of witch hazel and an ounce of good powdered saxolite are all you'll need. Mix the two and apply this refreshing solution to your face daily. The effect is marvelous—instantaneous. The skin becomes firmer, 'tighter'—every wrinkle and sag is affected. You feel so refreshed after using the wash; you look refreshed, too; soon you will look ten years younger."

HIBERNIANS TO HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICE

An entertainment under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will be held at 8 o'clock Friday evening in commemoration of the anniversary of the Manchester martyrs, Allen, Larkin and O'Brien. Claude G. Bowers will make the keynote address and in addition a musical program will be given. All members of the A. O. H. and friends are invited to attend. There will be no admission charged.

HOLIDAY SHOPPERS FROM OUT OF TOWN

Many During Past Week, Especially on Wednesday and Saturday.

The past week witnessed unusual activity in the retail stores, which report exceptionally large movements of holiday goods. Many of these were purchased by out-of-town shoppers, who came on the regular Saturday visit, but a great portion of the business was transacted on Wednesday, the new mid-week Suburban shopping day. Large numbers of people from the counties of northwestern Ohio were here on Wednesday. This portion of Ohio has always considered Fort Wayne as its logical trade center.

Many who are now making a regular trip to Fort Wayne on Wednesday of each week could not have done so in the years gone by for the reason that the automobile and the interurban car have revolutionized the lives of the people in the rural districts and the smaller towns. So, although many continue to visit Fort Wayne on Saturday as regularly as ever, they find it convenient and agreeable to make a visit to the city on the now popular Suburban shopping day in the mid-week.

Preparations for this week Wednesday's trade specials are completed and The Sentinel of tomorrow will contain the announcements of many splendid, money-saving items.

A. H. Hans, successor to Fred Kreibaum, wall paper and paint store, is now on the corner of Barr and Wayne. Phone 717.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN CHICAGO

Mrs. Mary Dalman Passes Away After an Illness of Four Years.

Mrs. Mary Dalman, age 70, a former resident of Fort Wayne, died Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Agnes Staugh, in Chicago, after a four years' illness, due to heart trouble. Surviving are the following children: Mrs. Mattie Gray, Elkhart George Dalman, living on the family farm at Shipshewana, Ind.; Mrs. Agnes Staugh, of Chicago, and E. W. Dalman, of Fort Wayne. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Irvin Koontz, Mrs. L. Dolan and Mrs. Andrew Miller, of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Lizzie Bradbury, south of the city; Mrs. Amelia Mills, west of Fort Wayne, and Mrs. Lydia Lehman, of Roanoke.

The deceased was born in Fort Wayne seventy years ago, when it was just a small village and moved to the family home in Shipshewana forty years ago.

The body will be sent to her late home in Shipshewana for burial. The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon from the First M. E. church of that place. Interment in the Davis cemetery, beside the grave of her husband.

SPORT JOTTINGS.

Indiana turned an unexpected trick on Depauw and piled up a 35 to 0 score on the Methodists. After the previous showing of the Greencastle team, especially holding Purdue to a 7 to 6 win, Indiana's overwhelming victory was a surprise. The state athletes used only straight football but the plunges of Howard and Cravens proved to be too much for Depauw.

Purdue had a harder time with Wabash than was expected and only piled up a 28 to 0 score. On the basis of comparative scores Indiana is made the big favorites over the boilermakers in their annual clash next Saturday.

* * *

Ohio State again won the conference championship by defeating Illinois in the championship struggle. It was another case of too much Harley Michigan and Chicago, the two other undefeated conference teams, went down in surprise defeats.

* * *

The first real setback for the West came in Michigan's defeat Saturday. The warriors of Yost had been making such a wonderful showing all season that they were expected to have an easy time Saturday. Alas! The worm will turn.

* * *

Minnesota pulled that expected surprise and reversal of form that was anticipated and romped all over Chicago.

"Of all the sad words of tongue or pen, The saddest are these, the 'Aggies' lost again."

* * *

Notre Dame marched through the Michigan farmers for an easy victory. The "Aggies" have been represented with so many good teams that their showing this season has been a bitter disappointment.

* * *

"We were privileged" to announce, exclusively, last Saturday, that the Friars had signed to play Hammond on December 2. Where have we heard those words before?

RETAINS GOLD MEDAL.

In a three-game match at the Olympic alleys George Schellhammer, holder of the Kirkhoff gold medal, successfully defended his right to its retention against E. A. Molitor, the challenger. Clarence Kinder is the next in line to roll for the trophy. The scores:

Schellhammer	174	182	150—515
Molitor	166	169	155—490

Pianos for Christmas

--It is hardly possible that Christmas is only about six weeks off.

Now is the time to select your instrument.

"Yes, It's a Steinway"

Never in the history of Fort Wayne was shown such a wonderful line of fine Pianos, Players and Grands of all sizes and different woods than at the present time at the JACOBS MUSIC HOUSE.

Choice examples for our Holiday displays in all the new finishes have arrived from Steinway & Sons, Kranich & Bach, Sohmer, A. B. Chase, Krakauer, Lyon & Healy, Shoninger, Brinkerhoff, and other factories.

We like you to hear the most wonderful, most natural reproducing Player-Piano, the Melville Clark Solo Art-Apollo that renders an exact re-creation of hand playing of all the great Masters, whenever you desire.

Next in line we have the Welte Mignon and Dina Chord reproducing Pianos of national reputation, both are electrically driven; these Players can be had in any make Piano desired.

In foot power players we have the Kranich & Bach, Apollo Krakauer, Air Oplayer (all metal action), Schieffer, Brinkerhoff, Washburn, Smith & Barnes, Strohber, and others, which gives you an assortment for comparison not equaled anywhere in the state.

Compare Our Prices

Pianos and Players have advanced within the past year from ten to twenty per cent, knowing this advance would come we bought enough instruments to supply our trade until after New Years, giving you the advantage of the old price, and as a special inducement a reduction from now until Christmas of from ten to twenty per cent. This will make a saving of from $100 to $200 on a Piano or Player.

Terms most reasonable—LIBERTY BONDS TAKEN AS PART PAYMENT on Pianos and Players SAME AS CASH.

In connection with our Piano and Player department we have the only exclusive ground floor Phonograph room in the city where we carry a full line of Columbia Grafonolas, and the world's best Phonograph, the AEOLEAN-VOCALION the Phonograph that is different. It must be heard to be appreciated. Don't buy any Phonograph until you have heard the AEOLIAN-VOCALION.

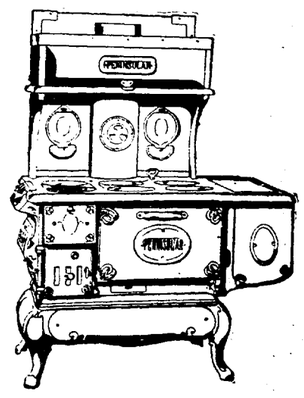
Peninsular Base Burners and Kitchen Ranges

THESE justly famous Stoves need no introduction to housewives the country over, nor do their many exclusive merits need restatement except to urge you to make your selection now, while our stock is most complete and you have the time before sudden cold weather sets in and catches you unprepared. In buying a Peninsular you save money on the initial cost and more money for years to come by fuel economy only possible with the scientifically built Peninsular. Investigate at once.



Peninsular Base Burners Cut Fuel Bills

Peninsular base burners are not just stoves for heating purposes like so many heating stoves of inferior quality. The Peninsular is built upon a plan and method of scientific heat producing qualities from the least amount of fuel and with the least care and attention. Every door, draught, flue, etc., etc., has a purpose to perform in the general scheme of fuel economy productive of the greatest amount of heat. That is why Peninsular base burners HAVE BEEN PROVEN to give more heat from less coal than any other base burner made. Not only are Peninsulars the stoves to save money, but they are attractively built and elegantly finished. Do not fail to investigate the Peninsular before you buy a heating stove.

Peninsular Combination Gas and Coal Range

The same scientific principles of fuel economy and convenience are carried out in Peninsular ranges as have been developed in the base burners. This combination range burns both coal and gas and will furnish you with better baking, cooking and kitchen heating with less fuel than any other range on the market. With it you can cook and heat with the same fuel during cold weather, and during the summer use the gas burners while having the advantage of all the features of sanitation and convenience of the entire range. This is the same one that made such a hit during our recent practical cooking demonstration. Come in and see it. You will find it just the one you contemplated buying and embodying more desirable exclusive features than any other range ever shown you, no matter what the price.

AT THE MAJESTIC

HOWE'S TRAVELS.

Show Life Aboard Super-Dreadnoughts Stripped for Action.

Whether or not one cares for the movies as represented by the dramatic variety, everybody does care for Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival because of its distinction, dignity and difference from posed films. Mr. Howe's exhibition which comes to the Majestic theater on Tuesday and Wednesday, can always be depended upon to broaden one's mental outlook, but his new production promises to do so in a peculiarly vital and timely way. For it conducts spectators aboard our super-dreadnoughts, stripped for action "somewhere in the Atlantic," and so gives every spectator a new and fresh conception of the activities, discipline and maneuvers of our "Sentinels of the deep" under the stress of war. The films radiate the atmosphere of grim realties, not of pomp or pageantry, and every foot teems with vital interest to every true American. Then, too, the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis, Maryland, contributes many stirring scenes from the strenuous and varied training given the splendid corps of "middies." Their tactical exercises are of absorbing interest. Another feature breathes the spirit and life of our great west as it has never been depicted before. It shows the many tense moments and hair-raising episodes occurring during real bronco-breaking contests. It reveals what the west considers rough-riding as compared with the comparatively tame sort seen in the effete east. There are many other subjects such as the perils of climbing Mt. Blanc, the highest mountain in the Alps, a ride over the Continental Divide via the Great Northern railway, etc., that make Howe's new program an exceptionally rich treasure trove of scenes calculated to give mind and heart, as Carlyle puts it, "a real stir-up."

"PARADISE VALLEY."

Musical Comedetta Success at New Palace.

With tuneful songs, an interesting plot, clever principals and a bevy of pretty girls, "Paradise Valley," the musical comedetta at the New Palace for the first half of the week, is scoring an unquestioned success. The attraction is new from start to finish and is staged as only Boyle Woolfolk productions are presented.

The most popular song on the streets today is "She's Just a Little Angel," the air of which runs like a theme through the play. Following its singing by the company here yesterday it immediately got onto the streets until today every newsie on the corners is whistling it. There are other good numbers, too, "Nosey Moon" and "I'd Like to Be Called Dearie," being the most popular.

William B. Morris and Grace Thurston, two of the cleverest artists now playing in tabloid musical comedies, have the leading parts and their work in "Paradise Valley" is of the same calibre as when they created a sensation in "Whose Little Girl Are You?" With these two there are seven other principals and a chorus that is a real chorus. The girls can sing and dance, and when they are not doing either the audience is satisfied just to look at them.

As an added attraction for the first half of the week there is a tiptop musical act staged by the clever banjo entertainers, Billy Kimball and Betty Kenneth. These two are more than musical entertainers for their comedy is of a variety to make their act a riot.

LIBERTY GARDENS HIGH CLASS COMMUNITY

It is very evident that many people form obvious opinions about garden tracts without ever seeing them and consequently lose many very good opportunities. Liberty Gardens, with paved streets, high pressure gas line, new school, gravel streets, interurban close by, are advantages that make this addition exceptionally fine. The newest development being that of securing a grocery which will be erected early next spring.

Liberty Gardens is the third suburban addition placed before the public this year by C. C. Rastetter, realtor, and the first and only suburban addition to be welcomed with a grocery store, as well as gas for light and heat. These are two very important assets to anyone living outside the city or event in the city.

Beauty.

There is an old saying that beauty is only skin deep, but that is far from the truth. Beauty is founded on good health—without that there is no real beauty. You can cover up a muddy or sallow complexion with face powder, but it will not be beautiful. A homely woman in good health is usually more interesting and charming than a bilious dyspeptic beauty. Constipation and a sluggish liver impair good looks. If you are troubled in this way take Chamberlain's Tablets and you will soon be looking better and feeling better.—Advertisement.

ther increases he gave notice that application will be made by eastern carriers for permission to file tariff making such additional increases.

Dominant difficulties of the carriers, outlined by Mr. Patterson, were: "Continuous decline in net operating income, accompanied by steadily mounting operating costs; marked shortage in the labor supply available, for railroad work existence of deferred maintenance when heavy wartime traffic requires the highest standard possible, and inability to raise new capital by issuance of stock, with a resultant impairment of the carriers' credit.

"As the carriers are called upon," said Mr. Patterson, "to meet competition of labor with industries whose prices are regulated or unregulated, or to meet competition of labor with the government itself, the available supply of labor will decrease and its price will rise. And unless the government is prepared not only to conscript labor for the railroads, but also to limit its wage, we must assume that the present cost of labor, measured by wage and efficiency, will not decrease."

Vast Increase of Coal Bills.

Coal bills of the eastern railroads, he said, had been increased by millions, and many roads were buying it for less than the price fixed by the government. This and the exceptional rise in the cost of materials were making it increasingly difficult for the railroads to provide maintenance and up-keep.

He estimated that in 1917 the eastern roads will show a loss of $81,000,000 in net operating income, despite an increase of $161,000,000 in total operating revenues. This, he stated, would represent a return of 5.2 on investment, which is less, he said, than the amount the committee in 1914 found to be too small for public interest.

EIGHT-HOUR DAY FACTOR

"I cannot set an arbitrary rule of settlement for such strikes. And if I did, I could not enforce it. Conditions causing the strike must be considered and the settlement must hinge on co-operation of all the interested parties.

"We will do all we can to co-operate with the government. My sentiments in this matter are the same as those expressed by President Wilson when he spoke at the opening meeting of the federation."

ians have been driven from Monte Tomba, the war office announced today.

The announcement continues:

"Northeast of Aisago the enemy repeated his fruitless and costly attacks to gain the lost heights. Between the Brenta and the Piave the last few days have brought the (Teutonic) allies further successes in difficult mountain fighting."

DRIVE AUSTRIANS BACK.

Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy, Sunday, Nov. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Austrians who forced their way across the Piave river above Zenson have been thrown into the river, drowned, bayonetted, killed or captured until now not an enemy remains on the west bank at that most threatened point. The fight was one of the most fearful chapters of the war and one of the most glorious.

Details of the fight have been gathered from eye witnesses who saw the fearful carnage through Friday night and yesterday and who stayed until the whole west bank was cleared except for the corpses on the shore and in the foreground.

Wounded Too Numerous to Care For.

The wounded were so numerous that many have not yet received succor. The enemy had staked everything on getting to the west bank of the river and the Italians staked everything on keeping him on the eastern bank This nerved both to desperation. The Austrians made the first move Friday in two separate crossings a short distance above Zenson, first at the village of Fagare and then at an old mill called the Sega mill, near Follina.

Several circumstances enabled the invaders to pass. They chose a place where a sand bar ran in mid-stream, giving them a landing and dividing the main stream into two small shallow currents. Also there was a heavy mist screening their movements. They carried material for an improvised bridge with uprights and with iron plates for floor.

Austrians Dash Across.

This was about five o'clock in the morning and in the mist at that early hour they got across the second narrow channel to the west bank. The last ten feet the men waded across in water above their waists. In their first surprise rush they swept past four Italian machine gun batteries, capturing the guns and driving the Italians back into the village of Fagare.

Here the real fight began as the Italians had now recovered from the surprise and they fought like demons. It was a hand to hand fight through the streets of the town with no place for artillery or machine guns, and the Italians using bayonets, hand grenades, knives and gelatine torpedoes.

The Austrians held part of the town near the bank with the Italians on the land side. The Austrians tried to throw a line around the town and succeeded in part on one side until the Italian batteries to the north got the range of the line outside the shelter of the streets.

Italians Hew Their Way.

This line was the first to be demolished and then the Italians on this side of the town advanced, cheering, hewing their way.

The enemy held at first, then began to seek cover and finally broke as the Italians pushed into the town back to the river.

Some plunged into the water and sought to get to the sandbar. All the machine guns were abandoned. Most of the enemy fell along the water's edge and an observer who saw the gruesome sight says the bodies on the river bank and in the water reminded him of heaps of seaweed after the tide had gone out.

Further up the river at Sega mill, the other crossing, had brought on another bloody fight which lasted until late yesterday when the whole shore was cleared of living Austrians. But it was lined with dead.

The movement here began late on Friday night and reached its culmination about 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

Friday night several Austrian battalions got across under the cover of darkness. They chose narrow channels and some of the Austrian officers rode across on horseback. They took a position near the town cemetery and opened on the Italians during the night with machine guns. The Austrians carried two searchlights which they played on the Italian position, while the Italians were without searchlights. It was only by the flashes of the Austrian machine guns that the Italians could direct their fire.

For Native Land.

At daylight yesterday the enemy still held his position at the cemetery. The situation began to look serious and for a time it appeared as though the Italians would have to fall back. But now the famous Bersaglieri brigade was brought up fresh after its heroic rear guard defense of the main army as it retired on the field.

Some of the other troops were from nearby towns and they were stirred to a last desperate effort to save their homes.

The Italians charged shortly after dawn, their lines moving straight up the hill to the cemetery. Against machine gun fire and guns on the bank, the Italians moved on with bayonets, grenades and torpedoes. It was one of those charges inspired by love of home and country which will live always, and it was irresistible.

The enemy wavered and broke just as the Italian artillery on a nearby height got the range of the cemetery. But the main fighting was hand to hand with the enemy being pressed back steadily to the river where they were cut down, drowned, bayonetted or captured. By ten o'clock yesterday all had been swept away except a few straggling croups; by noon not one of the enemy's force was left on the western bank.

Austrian Losses Heavy.

In addition to some 1,500 killed the enemy lost 1,500 prisoners, including two colonels and some thirty officers. All the Austrian machine guns were captured and are now being used by the Italians

The fury of the fighting is shown by the fact that the old Sega mill on the river's brink was taken and retaken six times during the ebb and flow. The mill is full of bullet holes but shows no evidence of shell fire, indicating that the fighting was entirely at close quarters.

Italian stretcher bearers did noble service yesterday after noon in caring for the great number of Austrian wounded who lay along the shore. Two of these stretcher bearers waded out to the sand bank in mid-stream where several seriously wounded Austrians had dragged themselves. They were brought back and cared for carefully by the Italian hospital corps. One of these Austrians was wounded seriously and he was supported between two Italian soldiers on the way to the receiving station. The Italians recovered their dead, some of them at the water's edge. One gunner was found hanging lifeless over his machine gun.

CURBING THE ALIEN ENEMY

Only Germans will be affected by the proclamation as it specifies "enemies" and not "allies of enemies."

Text of the Order.

The proclamation orders registration as follows:

"All alien enemies are hereby required to register at such times and places and in such manner as may be fixed by the attorney general of the United States and the attorney general is hereby authorized and directed to provide as speedily as may be practicable for registration of all alien enemies and for the issuance of registration cards to alien enemies and to make and declare such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary for effecting such registration.

"All alien enemies and all other persons are hereby required to comply with such rules and regulations; and the attorney general in carrying out such regulation is hereby authorized to utilize such agents, agencies, officers and departments of the United States and of the several states, territories, dependencies and municipalities thereof and of the District of Columbia as he may select for the purpose and all such agents, agencies, officers and departments are hereby granted full authority for all acts done by them in the execution of this registration when acting by the direction of the attorney general, and after the date fixed by the attorney general for such registration no enemy alien shall be found within the limits of the United States, its territories or possessions without having his registration card on his person."

Restriction of Traveling.

The restrictions were imposed on free traveling in the following section:

"An alien enemy shall not change his place of abode or occupation or otherwise travel or move from place to place without full compliance of any such regulations as the attorney general of the United States may from time to time make and declare and the attorney general is hereby authorized to make and declare from time to time such regulations concerning the movements of alien enemies as he may deem necessary in the premises and for the public safety and to provide such registrations for monthly, weekly or other periodical report of alien enemies to federal, state or local authorities; and all alien enemies shall report at the times and places and to the authorities specified in such regulations."

British and Germans carried out raids. French artillery has been shelling heavily the German positions south of the town for several days and a thrust by French troops, evidently as feeler, was repulsed by the defenders, Berlin reports.

Although the Teutonic pressure from Asiago to the Piave, continues very strong, the Italians hold vallantly to their positions and the invaders have been unable to make much progress. On the Asiago plateau the Italians repelled violent attacks and near Casera recaptured an advanced position, taking 100 prisoners. Between the Brenta and the Piave the invaders have occupied positions from which the Italians withdrew.

Austro-German efforts to force the Italians back from the western bank of the Piave, at Zenson and Fagare, have failed. The invading force which crossed at Fagare has been driven back across the river, while efforts to debouch from the Bridgehead at Zenson were repelled by Italian counter attacks. On the right bank of the Piave the Italians have been nearly 1,300 prisoners in two days.

Heavy masses of Austro-German troops are being thrown against the Italian lines between the Piave and the Brenta in an effort to drive a wedge between the Italian armies defending the Piave line and those to the west, in the Asiago region.

Comparatively rapid progress has been made in this operation within the last day or two and it is becoming clear that the main Austro-German effort is centered at present upon what is probably the most vulnerable point in the Italian defensive line.

Quero, on the upper Piave, about fifty miles from the coast, was taken by the invaders, who subsequently pushed the left flank of their line west of the river a considerable distance south along that bank.

Further west the massed offensive movement has carried the Teutons to Monte Tomba, some five miles southwest of Quero, and they are attacking the front between this eminence and the river with a force which the Italians are finding it hard to cope with, despite their most desperate efforts. Should the Austro-German thrust be carried much further here the entire upper Piave line, from a point near Conetglino, approximately thirty-five miles from the Adriatic, will be in Teutonic possession and it is difficult to see how the Italians in this case will be able to continue their hold on the southerly stretches of the river which at present they are bravely and successfully defending.

In the eastern Trentino the Italians have begun a counter offensive on the Asiago plateau which has already netted them gains. It is not apparent as yet, however, that this movement is in sufficient strength to constitute any menace to the Austro-German operations further east.

Another army is reported marching on Petrograd to oust the Bolsheviki from control there. The vanguard, which is said to be near Gatchina, thirty miles southwest of the capital, already has had several brushes with the Bolsheviki forces. It is rumored that Premier Kerensky is returning with the new forces. All the reports lack confirmation. There apparently is internal dissension in Petrograd between the Maximalists and the less extreme socialists, who have protested against acts of the Bolsheviki regime.

A report received in London says there has been a split in the Bolsheviki ranks and that some of the ministers have resigned.

In Moscow the revolutionists and the provisional government forces have reached a truce after days of fighting in which several thousand persons were killed and some of Russia's religious shrines within the Kremlin were damaged or destroyed by the artillery of the Bolsheviki forces. The American embassy in Petrograd has asked for a special train to take 200 Americans to Harbin, Manchuria, whence they can reach either Dalny or Vladivostok to take steamers home.

Petrograd newspapers report Germany refusing to treat for peace with the present Bolsheviki government, Emperor William declaring he will negotiate only with the legitimate successor to the imperial government or with the constituent assembly. The extremists are now threatening to makea peace on their own account and to maintain a neutral statuts if the war continues after Nov. 23, which is reported to have been set as the time limit for replies from the belligerents on the Bolsheviki peace proposals.

Jaffa, the ancient Joppa, and the seaport on the Mediterranean for Jerusalem, has been occupied by the British. The Turks gave up this important point without resistance and are retiring northward under pressure. Jerusalem is thirty-five miles southeast of Jaffa, and its occupation by Gen. Allenby's troops probably is a matter of only a few days.

Premier Lloyd-George's recent utterances on the necessity for an allied war council will be debated in the house of commons today. The rBitish leader will defend his position and it is expected that his speech will clear up the threatened ministerial crisis.

Presiden tWilson, through Col. E. M. House, head of the American mission to the allied conference, declares that he considers unity of plan and action between the allies and America is essential in order to achieve a just and permanent peace.

SPURNS THE BOLSHEVIKIS

In this connection the Volia Noroda says it has information that the soldiers' and workmen's government in the event of its failure to receive replies from the belligerents by Nov. 23 reserves the right to make peace on its own account, after which, if the war continues, Russia will occupy a neutral position.

AMERICANS ARE SAFE.

London, Nov. 19.—Robert P. Skinner, the American consul general, has received a telegram dated Saturday, from the American consul at Moscow, saying that he and other Americans in Moscow are all safe. The city was quiet at the time but there has been much fighting, the message said.

FRANCIS MAKES REPORT.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Ambassador Francis, at Petrograd, reported to the state department in a message dated last Friday and received today, that he had recommended that all unattached American women and American men accompanied by women and children leave the city. Arrangements have been made for them to travel on trans-Siberian railroad in two special coaches. The ambassador reported conditions in the Russian capital chaotic, but fairly quiet. There was no central head of government and the embassy dealt directly with the superintendent of passenger service of the railway in arranging for the removal of the Americans. The departments of government were either closed or being operated without their chiefs. Mr. Francis said he feared no damage to the embassy, but conditions were so unstable that he deemed it best to get the Americans out of the city, if possible. Information at the state department indicates there are in Petrograd about 200 Americans.

A report from Moscow sent by American Consul General Summers Saturday, said all Americans there were safe. The Maximalists there he reported had taken over the direction of the government after a week of hard fighting. Basing their opinion on the statement of Lenine that the success of the Bolsheviki was dependent on a world wide revolutionary movement by soldiers and workmen, officials at the Russian embassy today predicted that the followers of the Kerensky government would win either through a military victory or through the evident incapacity of the Bolsheviki to make good their promises to their followers. No late news has been received at the embassy but officials declare that the mention of Captain Pavloff as the commander of troops opposing the Bolsheviki was an encouraging sign. Captain Pavloff is said to be of the staff of the social democratic workmen's party and the opinion was expressed that this means that one of the strongest factions of the opposition had gone over to the moderates.

officials, based on the experience of foreign countries, that instead of adjustment of this single dispute a new agency should be created or the board of mediation or interstate commerce given authority to act.

Harrison's Statement.

Fairfax Harrison, chairman of the executive committee of the American Railway association, commonly known as the war board, wrote this letter to Judge William L. Chambers, chairman of the United States board of mediation and conciliation, who conferred with various railroad executives in New York Saturday, and with the board today:

"We confirm what we said to you this morning in reply to your inquiry as to what will be the attitude of the railroads with respect to the manner of settlement of any demand of increases in pay or change in working conditions which during the war may be made upon them by employes.

If you are to find that new position soon, you must advertise NOW.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 19.—Lieut. Ray P. Harrison has seen service in the first line trenches by this time. In a one page letter from him, received Saturday by his father, Attorney Joseph R. The latter was written October 27 and he was probably in that battalion which was attacked by German forces, who killed three Sammies, besides wounding and taking several prisoners. The lists of casualties of missing does not include the name of Lieut. Harrison, who passed his baptism of fire safely.

WAR STOCKS SHOW RENEWED STRENGTH

New York, Nov. 19.—Equipments, notably those comprising the war divisions, were the strongest stocks at the opening of today's market. Advances of 1 to 2 points soon were registered by American and Baldwin locomotives, marine preferred, American smelting and industrial alcohol. United States steel, Bethlehem steel, General Electric and the motors were firm to strong. Liberty 4's recorded a full 2 per cent discount at the minimum of 98 and 3's meanwhile hardened from 99.64 to 99.

Rails were subjected to fresh pressure before the end of the first hour. A reversal of three-quarters of a point forced Pennsylvania to 46½, the lowest quotation in over twenty years. Steels, shippings, metals, motors and oils suffered temporarily setbacks, but hardened again in the apathetic second hour. Liberty 4's continued to sag to the low price of 97.66, but the 3½'s varied between 99.72 and 99.80.

LAST GAME FOR TUFTS.

Medford, Mass., Nov. 19.—Charles Whelan, Tufts college football coach, announced today that the victory over Dartmouth last Saturday marked the end of Tuft's season. The eleven had been scheduled to play the Boston Navy Yard team next Saturday.

HAY GOES TO $25 MARK ON MARKETS

Old Corn a Thing of the Past —But Little New Corn or Oats.

Hay reached the $25 mark at the city scales Monday morning. Twenty-two loads came to the market but fourteen loads were baled and were sent to the army training camps. The price ranged from $24 to $25 a ton. Old corn was again on the absent list and none was received at the scales. It is believed that all of the old corn is gone. New corn was only represented by two loads and there brought $1 a bushel. Two loads of oats brought a good price of 62 cents a bushel.

Old oats and corn are scarce on the markets now but large amounts of new corn are expected to arrive this week. Hay is still coming in in large amounts, but much of it is baled and is shipped out to the army training camps and cantonments.

RHEUMATICS ARE MADE HAPPY

Satisfied That "Neutrone Prescription 99" Is All That's Claimed.

This reliable prescription has, since being placed in the hands of the public, done more to remove Rheumatic Troubles than all previous remedies combined.

It is different from other remedies in that it does not upset the stomach or impair the heart, a condition heretofore thought impossible.

It is not a cure-all but a remedy to be taken internally treating Rheumatism as a constitutional disease, by its general action through the blood.

The treatment is a most complete combination of rheumatic-reducing elements and is dependable to produce results from the fact it aims at rheumatism as a disease of the blood. 50c and $1.00 the bottle.

OFFICER TO TELL OF EXPERIENCES AT FRONT

Sergeant Flahiff to Speak at the Elks' Temple Thursday Night.

The members of the Elks' lodge have a real treat in store for them Thursday night when Sergeant John T. Flahiff, of the Canadian expeditionary forces, will tell of his experiences in the trenches while "over there." A banquet at 6:30 will precede the officer's talk.

Sergeant Flahiff comes to fill the vacancy caused when Sergeant McGoney, of the French ambulance company, had to go into training camp. The Canadian officer has served in the celebrated Princess "Pat" regiment, and has been in many charges and knows the fullest meaning of the term "over the top." His talk will be very interesting and full of information.

TEUTONS AT GATES OF VENICE

Austro-German forces have advanced to within nine miles of Venice, having pushed across the Piave river to Piava Vecchia, and farther west in the Trentino district German troops have thrust back the Italian defenders in the Sugana valley, defeating Italians at Primolano. A Teuton drive through Bassano and Cittadella (indicated on the map by arrows) would place them in the rear of General Cadorna's line. Teutons then would face the Italians on the west north and east.

IN THE Y. M. C. A. HUTS AT CAMP ZACH TAYLOR

Young Soldiers Appreciate Comforts and Conveniences They Offer.

Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., Nov. 19. The Y. M. C. A. is an important factor in the uplift of the thirty odd thousand select men from Indiana, Kentucky and Southern Illinois in training here for service overseas, as indicated by statistics gathered in the course of a drive for funds to support its activities.

Seventeen thousand four hundred and forty-four of the soldiers in one twenty-day period attended meetings at seven Y. M. C. A. buildings within the cantonment, according to the figures. In the same period twenty-seven bible classes were formed with an attendance of 1,444, two hundred and fifty-two educational classes were attended by 3,777 men in khaki and 1,031 books were distributed from the library.

In the Y. M. C. A. buildings, moreover, in the same twenty-day period, 214,218 letters were written, 4,747 parcel post packages were sent out and arrangements were made to handle $15,706.61 in postal money orders.

But the most intimate glimpse of the men in the relation to the Y. M. C. A. comes in the evening.

The men have had their supper. An unbroken stream is pouring into the doors of the various buildings. Behind the counters a group of secretaries are busy handling out letter paper, envelopes, selling stamps, issuing magazines and books, and serving the men in other ways.

In a few moments the long tables which extend the length of the building on both sides and through the middle and in both wings of the building are crowded with men, writing letters. Various other activities are meanwhile going on in other parts of the building.

Yonder is a group around a pair of huskies who with boxing gloves, are pummelling each other in a wholehearted fashion that brings yells of approval from the ring of spectators. One of these bouts may be succeeded by another and then another, a half hour or more being consumed in this manner.

Then a secretary appears with the news that a moving picture show is about to be put on and there is a rush for the auditorium, which is 120 feet long and 40 feet wide. It is always crowded when a film is shown and the soldiers are as appreciative as children. The films are of varied sorts with comedy productions dominating. They are all of the highest type of their kind.

Sometimes instead of the moving picture shows there are educational addresses; a lecture on the art of war, on the history of France, the principles for which America is fighting, or a lecture on diseases and their prevention.

Three evenings in each week there is a religious meeting at each Y. M. C. A. building. Sobered by the conditions under which they find themselves, the men show a disposition to concern themselves with religious matters more seriously than is usual to young men in such glowing good health under other circumstances.

ENTERTAINED AND ROBBED HE CHARGES

Bert Taylor Accuses His Cousin, Ralph Taylor, of Cash Theft.

Ralph Taylor, arrested Saturday afternoon on a charge of robbery, will come in for a heavy sentence because of his past record, is proved guilty this time. The young man was arrested by Sergeant Immel upon complaint of his cousin, Bert Taylor. In his complaint the cousin states that Ralph Taylor and James Coverdale entertained him a part of Friday evening and then taking him to Coverdale's room robbed him of $41. Taylor's past record shows three arrests, one on a drunk charge, another for assault and battery and a third in 1914 for a statutory offense. Upon the plea of his attorney Taylor had his case continued until Tuesday. Coverdale was ordered held as a witness.

Break Up Beer Party.

A Sunday beer party conducted weekly by a crowd of boys in a barn on McCulloch street was broken up Sunday morning by the police department. The participants, ranging from the ages of 18 to 20 years, were taken to the station but later released. Four cases of beer were also taken to the station, but so far they have not been disposed of.

Take Two Weeks' Wages.

Aaron Forkes, an employe of the rolling mills, was held up and robbed of two weeks' wages—$45—Saturday evening by three men near the Taylor street bridge. Sheriff Gillie is working on the case but so far has been unable to apprehend the thieves.

Chicken Financier.

August Eix denies that he is a chicken thief, stating that all the poultry found in his rooms was bought at a greatly reduced price on the city market. Prosecutor Hoffman grew anxious to locate the cut-rate stand, desiring to do business, but Eix could vouch no further information save that the seller had a red beard. Eix was arrested on a charge filed by Heiney's grocery, when it was found that some of their chickens were missing from a back yard coop. Eix was seen in the alley in back of the grocery store with several chickens in a gunny sack a short time previous. Judge Kerr continued the case in order to obtain more evidence.

Arrest Crap Shooters.

Sergeant Blum and Officer Beverle raided a gambling joint on Lafayette street near Lewis street, and found three negro boys engaged in a game of "craps." All were charged with gambling in police court Monday morning, but were granted a continuance on the plea of their attorney.

A Sure Proof.

Cora Harting, arrested Sunday on a drunk charge, had a sure proof in her estimation as to her sober condition. When asked if she was drunk she stated: "No; I know I wasn't because I asked a friend to pump a bucket of water for be." Judge Kerr decided that her evidence was overbalanced by the officer and a daughter-in-law, who both testified as to her condition, and assessed a fine of $1 and costs. Mack Cane, an old offender, was given $20 and costs, to be served on public roads.

Other Cases.

The cases of Joseph Lippet, charged with loitering; Lawrence Gill, charged with being drunk, and Simon Lantz, charged with assault and battery, were dismissed.

COOKS AND WAITERS TO ENTERTAIN.

The Cooks and Waiters have made arrangements for a social session and a big meeting in their hall, 619 Calhoun street, Wednesday night, December 5. The committee has the assistance of President O. S. Riley, Secretary Homer Matthewson and Treasurer Homer Fry in making arrangements for the event. The business meeting will precede the social, which will have a fine program.

The doors of the Majestic theater will open at 7:30 this evening for the Edison Tone Test concert and the program will commence promptly at 8:15.

SERVICE FLAGS TO FLY.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Display of transparent service flags in windows of homes and of emblems in business places will feature the American Red Cross Christmas membership drive between December 17 and Christmas eve. These emblems are to be so arranged as to indicate the number of people at each place who join the Red Cross. Plans also contemplated are to have church bell chimes at half hour intervals on Christmas eve and to have groups of Red Cross workers march and sing carols as a climax to the membership.

J. G. Roper, spring maker at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, is off by permission, and B. O. Perry, brickmason of the same shop, is on the sick list.

HOW I TOOK MY WRINKLES OUT

After Facial Massage, Creams and Beauty Doctors Had Failed.

By Winifred Grace Forrest.

Trouble, worry and ill health brought me deep lines and wrinkles. I realized that they not only greatly marred my appearance and made me look much older, but that they would greatly interfere with my success because a woman's success, either socially or financially, depends very largely on her appearance. The homely woman, with deep lines and furrows in her face, must fight an unequal battle with her younger and better looking sister. I therefore, bought various brands of cold creams and skin foods and massaged my face with most constant regularity, hoping to regain my former appearance. But the wrinkles simply would not go. On the contrary they seemed to get deeper. Next I went to a Beauty Specialist who told me she could easily rid me of my wrinkles. I paid my money and took the treatment. Sometimes I thought they got less, but after spending all the money I could afford for such treatment I found I still had my wrinkles. So I gave up in despair and concluded I must carry them to my grave. One day a friend who had travelled extensively in France told me of an old French Beauty Secret which I tried with most astonishing results. At last I felt that I was on the right track. I kept on with the treatment following the simple instructions and in a few nights my wrinkles were entirely gone.

Naturally I was overjoyed with my experiment and I want everyone to know how to obtain the same happy results. I have already given it to many of my immediate friends and lo' they have obtained the same remarkable transformation. The process consist of laying a warm cloth on the face each night for about half a minute and then when the cloth is removed a little ordinary amonized cocoa cream is applied over the entire face and neck. This is left on for about two minutes and then what has not been absorbed by the skin is wiped off with a soft dry cloth. Not more than five minutes is required for this simple operation. Yet one treatment will show you most astonishing results. No word short of "Marvellous" can explain how young and fresh this will make a woman look. I am sure that any lady with wrinkles can easily make herself look from 10 to 20 years younger. Any good druggist can supply you with pure amonized cocoa cream and it is so easy to apply that you cannot help but wonder at its remarkable action. These treatments are also fine for the complexion as they nourish the skin, keeping it fair, pink and healthy. Every woman who wants to look young, fresh and charming should by all means give this treatment a trial.

Note:—A large sample of Amonized cocoa cream can be obtained by sending ten cents to the International Products Co., 523 State St., Binghamton, N. Y., who make a specialty of it. This will give you the opportunity of making the remarkable test as explained above. If interested, please write before the 1st of December, as this liberal offer expires on that date.

WILL TURN RAILWAYS OVER TO WILSON

WAR BOARD STATES THAT IS PURPOSED IF TROUBLE COMES

BROTHERHOODS TO ACCEPT MEDIATION

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Formal announcement was mode today by the railroad war board that the railroads of the United States had decided that if any crisis should arise, to place their interests in the hands of President Wilson for protection and such disposition as he may deem necessary to prevent interruption of transportation during the war.

The four brotherhoods who have made demands for increased wages have agreed to mediation of the dispute but have refused an unconditional submission of the questions to a board of arbitration. Today's announcement by the railroad war board is regarded by officials as elminating the possibility of a strike by giving the president a free hand so far as the railroads are concerned when he meets the brotherhood leaders in conference here next Thursday.

"Speaking for all the railroads today, we reiterate our belief in the principle of arbitration. In the midst of war we are, however, prepared to go further. As no interruption of continuous railroad operation can be tolerated under war conditions we are ready, should any crisis now arise, unreservedly to place our interests in the hands of the president for protection and for disposition as he may determine is necessary in the public interest."

The entire war board was present at the conference with Judge Chambers, including Mr. Harrison, who is president of the Southern railway, and former President Howard Elliott, of the New York, New Haven & Hartford, and Presidents Hale G. Holden, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; Julius Kruttschnett, Southern Pacific, and Samuel Rea, Pennsylvania.

Representatives of the brotherhoods will confer Thursday with the president regarding the points at issue and means of settlement. It is expected that the railroad war board will meet immediately after this conference to learn the attitude of their employes. Suggestions are being considered by

Summary of the Day's War News

(By the Associated Press.)

In the Trentino and along the Piave the Italians have the Austro-Germans in check for the moment and there are indications of a reawakening of fighting activity on the western front, especially in Flanders and around St. Quentin.

East and northwest of Ypres the British are now well established on the Passchendaele ridge. These positions have been under heavy bombardment by the Germans for several days, apparent evidence that the Germans are nervous and hope by their artillery fire to check a new British thrust. Around St. Quentin, north, northwest of the Ailette, where the French gained a notable success, recently, German and allied patrols have been busy. North of St. Quentin both

ANOTHER APPEAL FOR WARCAMP SERVICE AID

Washington, Nov. 19.—Appeals to cities and towns which have not yet raised their quota of the $4,000,000 war camp community service fund to do so at the earliest possible moment were issued by the national headquarters of the service here today. The purpose is to look after the soldiers and sailors during their leisure hours. Reports from campaigns already completed show aggregate subscriptions of $1,500,000.

DRY TIMES AND PLENTY OF WORK CUT INEBRIETY

New York, Nov. 19.—Drunkenness has decreased greatly in New York because of the demand for labor caused by the war and indirect prohibition, according to conclusions reached by officials of the board of inebriety and hospital authorities made public today. Arrests for intoxication dwindled from 1,022 in February to 969 in August, while the psycopathis ward in Bellevue hospital has had fewer alcoholic patients in the last six months than at any time in its history. Similar decreases in other hospitals also have been reported.

IS PROBLEM OF DEFENSE

Rail Rate Increases Are No Longer Merely Economic Question.

ROADS NEED HELP TO DO PART IN WAR

Eastern Roads Prepared to Make Demand for Still Higher Rates.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Inadequacy of wartime revenues of the nation's railroads is no longer a purely economic problem, but a vital question of national defense, George Stuart Patterson, counsel for the east roads today told the interstate commerce commission in his closing argument for the carriers in the 15 per cent advance case.

He asked for a sweeping readjustment of prevailing rates to allow roads to meet soaring operating costs and serve more efficiently the transportation needs of the nation in the present emergency.

An increase of $97,000,000 produced by rate increases granted by the commission earlier in the year, taken in conjunction with the supplemental advance now asked, Mr. Patterson said, would give a total of $155,000,000, or a little more than half the advance of $278,000,000 in operating expenses.

To Ask Further Increases.

GEN. MAUDE IS CALLED

Britain's Brilliant Commander in Mesopotamia is Dead.

ILLNESS REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN BRIEF

Was Hero of Campaign to Capture Bagdad and Career Was Long.

London, Nov. 19.—Gen. Maude, British commander in Mesopotamia, died yesterday.

An official announcement issued today says Gen. Maude died in Mesopotamia yesterday evening after a brief illness.

Major General Frederick Stanley Maude, the captor of Bagdad, was rated as one of the most brilliant commanders of the war. After a series of British defeats in Mesopotamia Gen. Maude was placed in command last year and won an unbroken series of successes. Advancing from the Babylonian plains, he captured Kut-el-Amara, where Gen. Townsend's army had been compelled to surrender. He continued his drive up the Tigris, advancing ninety miles in two weeks, and last March captured Bagdad.

With the opening of the new campaign this fall he pushed up the Tigris more than 100 miles beyond Bagdad, his operations being designed primarily to defeat the expected attempt of the Germans and Turks to recapture the city.

Gen. Maude was 53 years old. He had a distinguished military record before the war. He took part in the Sudan campaign in 1885 and received the medal and the Khedive's star. He served with distinction in the South African war, where he won the distinguished service order and the queen's medal with six clasps.

Prior to taking command in Mesopotamia Gen. Maude saw service in France, where he was wounded. He was mentioned five times in the dispatches and made a commander of the Bath.

From 1901 to 1904 he was military secretary to the governor general of Canada.

GERMAN RAIDER CREW PAID HIM FOR HIS LABOR

San Francisco, Nov. 19.—Two hundred and fifty German marks were paid John M. Tweed, first mate of the schooner A. B. Johnson, during his captivity on the island of Mophea, after being taken prisoner by the crew of the German raider Seeadler, which was wrecked on that island. Tweed arrived here today from Tahiti. His work on the island consisted of building quarters for his captors and other prisoners. With Tweed were three members of the crew of the schooner R. C. Slade, who also were compelled to work while on the island.

The men were rescued by a trading schooner after the Seeadler was wrecked and the Germans sailed away on a captured ship. The marooned men were left three months' provisions.

Tweed said the German officers drew a dead line about the prisoners' camp and told them they would be shot if they stepped across it, pointing to four graves on the island to emphasize the threat.

RAILROAD GIVEN PRIORITY.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Orders to insure adequate supplies of coal to the Lehigh Valley and the Chesapeake & Ohio railroads were issued today by the fuel administration. Bituminous mines along the Chesapeake & Ohio are directed to apportion among themselves the railroads' requirements. The Lehigh Valley is supplied by mines not located along its line and its needs will be filled by giving priority for shipments from its mines.

EIGHT-HOUR DAY FACTOR

Must Be Considered in All Industries Where It is the Rule.

GOMPERS SAYS IT IS A PEACE BASIS

War Work in Industry Cannot Be Steadfast if It Be Violated.

Buffalo, Nov. 19.—Questions involving the extent of the application of the eight-hour day to contracts on government work connected with the war were expected to come before the delegates at the thirty-seventh annual convention of the American Federation of Labor this week.

Federation leaders were hopeful that no action would be taken that would hamper the spirit of co-operation that thus far has marked their negotiations with President Wilson. There was a determination, however, to stand behind the individual unions of the federation in any reasonable demands that may be made.

"If," said President Gompers today, discussing general industrial conditions in relation to wartime strikes, "employers in munition plants and ship yards make unjust demands on the workers, nothing can be done by the American Federation of Labor to settle strikes.

KOKOMO RAISES HER Y. M. C. A. BIT AT REVIVAL

Kokomo, Ind., Nov. 19.—Over $2,500 of the $3,400 that remained to be collected to put the Y. M. C. A. war work campaign "over the top" in Howard county was raised in an hour among 5,000 people at a revival being held here, last week. One subscription of $300 and several $100 brought the congregation to their feet waving handkerchiefs and flags. One widow supporting four children gave $10 for a boy in France. Many like offerings featured the monster meeting.

The campaign will be completed for the minimum today and a large oversubscription is assured.

Alaskan Liner Mariposa is Lost With Cargo, But All Lives Saved.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 19.—The steamer Mariposa, which grounded on the rocks in the narrow passage of Sumner strait, southeastern Alaska, slipped from its perch and sank at a late hour last night, according to word received here today. The Mariposa was one of the largest in the service of the Alaska Steamship company and carried a cargo of 1,100 tons of ore and 5,000 cases of salmon.

LATINS HURL A COUNTER STROKE AT THE INVADERS

TEUTONS UNABLE TO GET ACROSS PIAVE

Rome, Nov. 19.—Italian forces have begun an offensive on the Asiago plateau and have occupied advanced elements of trenches, the war office announces today.

Further attempts of the Austro-Germans to cross the Piave have been stopped.

The statement reads:

"Last night there was lively artillery activity between Lake Garda and the Astico.

"On the Asiago plain the enemy made violent concentrations of fire on our positions at Monte Toubrecar and Monte Badenocche without following up with any infantry. Our parties in new offensive operations reoccupied advanced elements of trenches, capturing six officers and 202 men.

"South of Quero enemy forces in great numbers are attacking our Monte Monfenera and Monte Tomba lines.

"On the plains the vigilance of our troops has stopped the enemy from renewing any attempt whatsoever to cross the Piave."

JAPAN WILL NOT SELL SHIPS TO UNITED STATES

Washington, Nov. 19.—Coming coincidentally with the beginning of a semi-week of festivities in honor of the Japanese economic and financial commission here to broaden commercial relations with the United States, news from Tokio, of Japan's apparent refusal to sell her ships at the price offered in an exchange for American steel caused interest, but not surprise, today, to officials making the negotiations. The officials remain confident, however, that the negotiations will be successfully concluded as the price is the only issue involved.

The matter runs back to last summer when a United States embargo was placed on steel exports, denying steel shipments for allies in the war. Japan, which had pending large orders here for ship plates, protested and the United States agreed to furnish steel if Japan would divert tonnage to the trans-Atlantic service. The United States finally offered to release 100,000 tons of steel and to purchase outright at $175 a ton any amount of Japanese ship tonnage. Japan's attitude is indicated by the fact that ships are selling in the open market as high as $300 a ton.

AMERICAN CAPTAIN USES CAMOUFLAGE TO DECEIVE U-BOAT

An Atlantic Port, Nov. 19.—Fires kindled on the hatches of an American freighter saved it from submarine attack recently, according to officers of the steamer which arrived here yesterday. Shortly after leaving a European port a U-boat was observed approaching. The captain ordered small blazes made on the hatches, using material almost non-combustible but which produced heavy smoke.

When the submarine came close the steamer was stopped. The captain told the U-boat commander he carried explosives and that on account of the fire he was about to abandon ship. The submarine immediately departed, its commander evidently believing an explosion was imminent.

At a well attended meeting of the Bowser volunteer fire department held in the shop office last week, a set of resolutions were adopted in honor of the former members who are serving the government. The resolutions are as follows:

Whereas, President Wilson, on April 6th, 1917, did proclaim that a state of war did exist between the United States of America and the imperial government of Germany, and

Whereas, The president did issue a call for all loyal American citizens to enlist their services in the defense of our flag and for the defense of humanity against the tyranny and oppression of imperialism, and

Whereas, Everett Litchfield and Glenn Burt did, on September 10, 1917, enter into the services of their country from the ranks of the Bowser volunteer fire department, be it

Resolved, That we, as members of this organizatioin, show our respect for their loyal and patriotic act by giving them not only every encouragement possible, but also by giving them our support and assistance, when called upon to do so, so far as it is possible for us to do.

Be it further resolved, that we cause their names to be placed upon the records of this organization as honorary members of the same, and be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this organization and one sent to the family of each.

We wish them God speed in all the duties they may be called upon to perform while in the service of their country and an honorable discharge from service as soon as peace has been declared.

S. H. RODGERS,

Committee.

After the resolutions had been adopted the members were surprised by being invited to a rabbit supper by the officials of the fire department, and the boys had a great time, as one of the officials expressed himself in this way: "They sure did pitch in and eat, but that is all right," he added, "the fire boys at Bowser's always do pitch in when there is a fire."

VENICE HEARS THE BOOM OF BIG GUNS

Venice, Italy, Sunday, Nov. 18.—(By the Associated Press:)—The rumble of guns is heard throughout the city by night and day as the fleet and Venice coast batteries shell the enemy at the mouth of the Piave. At 3 o'clock yestedray an Austrian airplane flew over the city, but it dropped no bombs. The batteries of Venice did not fire, but when the machine flew over the Grand canal Italian torpedo boats discharged a score of shots with effect.

The city's water supply has not been interrupted, although it is feared the mains coming from the north will be cut. The American wife of a Milan writer named Barelli has had an unusual experience. She was at Venice, while three of her horses and two blooded hounds were at Mestre, a suburb. The railway refused to take the horses and dogs, owing to the needs of the military. She mounted one horse, took the two others and the dogs by leash and rode night and day to Bologna, 200 miles away, over roads packed with military traffic and refugees.

SHIN PLASTER ERA IN JAPAN.

Tokio, Nov. 19.—Japan seems to be entering a shin plaster era. Her stock of small coins is inadequate to keep pace with the advance in the price of commodities and an issue of 50, 20 and 10-sen bills is under consideration and may be issued toward the end of the year. The present high price of silver has tempted some to melt the coins and to transform them into the more valuable form of bullion. This is forbidden by law; but a good example, if any were needed, was given by the Yokohama Specie bank which, upon the declaration of the gold ban by the United States, threw all its American gold dollars into the melting pot to allay the nervous fears of the Japanese dentists and jewelers.

London, Nov. 19.—It is officially announced that the approximate quantities of tea and unrefined sugar in bonded warehouses in the United Kingdom on September 30, 1917, were, tea, 3,415,000 pounds and sugar, 3,914,000 cwt. which compares with tea, 118,663,000 pounds and sugar, 2,112,000 cwt. on September 30, 1916.

COAL SITUATION IN ALLEN COUNTY

Fuel Administrator Henry Beadell Urges Everybody to Save Fuel.

Henry Beadell, fuel administrator of Allen county, has issued the following statement on the coal situation in this city and county:

"On November 1st there was about 7,000 tons of coal among the dealers of Fort Wayne, while there should have been about 70,000 tons. This is why deliveries are restricted to one ton at a time. In the surrounding towns of Huntertown, Grabill, Harlan, Woodburn, Gar Creek and others, the situation was worse, many of them having no coal at all. Up to the present my entire time has been devoted to getting coal to the places where the need was very urgent. On November 3rd, 132 cars of coal were in transit to Fort Wayne and Allen county; on November 19th 86 cars, and orders sent in November 17th were for 72 cars.

"Everybody must economize and save the fuel. Except hospitals, no houses, churches, schools, public buildings, factories and business blocks should have a temperature of over 70 Lithographic posters will be sent to all firemen of large buildings as a stimulus to them to be saving with the coal.

"In regard to the price of coal, this will be taken up in a few days. There may be a slight reduction on bituminous coal. Prices must be fair to the public and fair to the dealer. The president's proclamation of October 1st, 1917, states that the dealer's margin (the price in excess of the cost of coal landed at his siding) shall be the same as in the year 1915 plus 30 per cent. The 30 per cent is to make up as near as possible the increased cost of labor and other items that enter into the conduct of this business. Wages of the miners have been increased considerably and no class of toilers were more entitled to it. On November 17th anthracite miners were granted an increase from 15 to 44 per cent in wages; $1.40 per day increase has been granted to miners of Kentucky and West Virginia. The railroads (and they needed it) in some districts have been allowed an increase in freight rates from 15c to 45c per ton. In consideration of these facts, cheaper coal can hardly be expected.

"On account of the car shortage it is essential that the freight agents of the various railroads co-operate with us and see that cars of coal are switched over without delay to the consigned dealers; the dealers must unload the cars at once and the railroads must take up the empty cars promptly and rush them back to the mines. Freight agents and dealers can report to me any slow service or delay in these transactions.

"Fuel Administrator Allen County."

THE NEED OF A HEAD.

There appears to be some violence of dissent in Great Britain from the proposal that the entente allies pool their military operations, put their armies and their employment of other resources under the direction of a single head, co-ordinate all their efforts and go in to win the war. So violent, indeed, is the objection that out of it has issued the premonitory symptoms of a cabinet crisis. The ministerial situation most probably will be cleared up and perhaps some tolerance may be found for a fair discussion, if not an altogether friendly reception, of the proposal to knit the allies together in a supreme endeavor to overcome the foe and bring the war to a victorious conclusion.

The want of supreme military direction has cost the allies enough to make the lesson of it clear. The situation on the Russian and Italian fronts and the moveless enterprise in the Balkans show in a painful way the continuing price of independent operations and hit and miss smashing. It is conceivable that the complete demoralization of Russian arms might never have come about had there been among the allies some semblance of that coherence of forces and concord of effort that have been the chief marks of the Germanic conduct of the war. It is to be recognized, of course, that not under any circumstances can the allies place all their military concerns under any domination so complete and absolute as that imposed by Germany upon her allies, for whatever our allies may do to this end must be a free and unconstrained acquiescence in measures for the general good, while Germany's allies are subordinated to the supreme will of the kaiser and his general staff by compulsions they dare not question.

It is known that the government at Washington views with misgivings the failure of the allies to make headway against the central powers. It sees ahead the necessity to shatter German power by effectual strokes or the inescapable alternative of a war terribly prolonged and at a cost that will be staggering. If America is going to finance the conflict America must have high authority in the conduct of the war. This country is going into the fight with its all. It has everything to expend that victory may be made speedy, complete and conclusive, but nothing to waste that narrow opinion, political distrust and stubborn selfishness may have their way.

The coming winter should witness a consolidation of the allies into a military machine as effective in its co-ordination and arrangements as Germany's and vastly more powerful. With all their inestimable resources of men, money and materials the allies have only to develop and apply their undeniable potentialities to secure and seal the victory. The United States must be given a proper place in the councils and conceded a suitable authority in the conduct of the war. This nation is seeking nothing but its own security. It wants no territory, no indemnity, no revenge. Its purpose is now as it will be to the end what it was at the outset. It is resolved to smash the military autocracy that has insulted its flag, violated its rights, assaulted its integrity and threatened its security. That achieved and proper hostage taken for the future, America's part in the war is accomplished.

There cannot be victory until the central powers have been checked on all the fronts. Today the German campaigns are offensive everywhere save along the Franco-Belgian line. Russia has been put out of the war and Italy is in the midst of a most critical struggle to keep herself in the war. We are just getting into the welter. It will take yet many months before our strength can be exerted sufficiently to constitute any sort of counterbalance to what the allies have lost by the defection of Russia and a year or two to offset the allied depletion if the Austro-German drive into Italy should succeed. It is time for this government to assert its view, as it is understood the purpose is in sending a special commission abroad to sit in the councils of its allies.

STILL MUST GIVE.

Fort Wayne went "over the top" with its Y. M. C. A. war work campaign fund in distinguished fashion. More than the quota of the city was subscribed and the community's record for coming fully up to every demand made upon it for the war stands in all its shining integrity.

But the giving has not been made an end of. Another campaign for money is afoot. The Young Women's Christian association is now moving for the collection of a fund to carry on its work among the women of the cantonment towns and cities. This is a vital labor of the war and an imperative duty of society. It has bearing at once upon the welfare of the young men in the camps and the future of that class of women it is purposed to reach. No other agency can so well undertake this work as the Young Women's Christian association. To accomplish results there must be organization of effort and persistent endeavor. This will take a good deal of money.

The Northeastern Indiana district for the collection of money for the fund is expected to raise $21,000. Over a territory so extensive, populous and wealthy that does not look like an undertaking offering many difficulties and we do not believe there is going to be any difficulty about it. Fort Wayne, however, must be the backbone of the movement to get this money. In this city the work of the Y. W. C. A. has furnished its glowing example and the people are familiar with the vast good it has done and is doing. Outside of the city there has been no opportunity for the people to understand this quite so well and the need of raising this fund for the association's work may not make so strong an appeal as here in this community.

It is not to be doubted that other parts of the Fort Wayne district will be ready and willing to assume their share of this task, but Fort Wayne is looked to for insuring the success of the movement to raise $21,000. Do not underestimate the importance of this work the Y. W. C. A. is undertaking about the cantonments. It is a necessary and a righteous labor for which everything can be said and against which nothing can be urged. It looks to the morals, the health and the fighting strength of the armies in a very essential way and it will have effect not to be estimated in saving both young men and young women. It is a part of the great purpose of the government and people of America to make the armies of liberty the finest and cleanest armies that ever in the whole world's history have gone forth to battle.

TRY TO UNDERSTAND IT.

Nothing humanly possible at this time can avert a general shortage of fuel throughout the winter that is now upon us. That is the opinion of all the experts of one sort and another who have given any opinion. It is the conservative estimate that there now is a shortage of fifty million tons of coal. With cold weather coming on to increase and accentuate the natural difficulties of transportation and the government's war preparations making a continually heavier draft upon the railroads there can be no great measure of relief expected.

What the government and the railroads are undertaking to do is to employ all possible measures that there may be no actual distress in the country for want of coal. Fuel must go abroad to the allies that need it. Fuel must be kept going in a steady stream to industries here that are performing work without which the war cannot be carried on and to all industries essential to the employment and prosperity of the country. It is a vast problem with many complexities.

The people can help greatly by understanding how vital to the situation is the conservation of fuel. There cannot be waste and there cannot be extravagance, but there will be fuel enough distributed to prevent suffering if all consumers of coal will join together in common purpose to make the best of a situation for which there is no complete remedy. Understand your part in it and help.

The food administration has not yet made it clear whether there is to be turkey and cranberries or chuck roast and dried apples for Thanksgiving. We judge, however, that the price of the big birds is due for a moderate drop now or a crash later on.

NOVEMBER.

Upon a garden wall with winding way,
A clinging vine kept creeping noiselessly.
While nourished by the mouldering wall's decay,
Upon a garden wall with winding way
The vine still grew a little, day by day;
And Summer wept and smiled so cheerfully,—
Upon a garden wall with winding way,
The clinging vine kept creeping noiselessly.

He pressed the vine still closer to the wall.
The green leaves paled, a varied hue was cast,
When Autumn came with bleak and chilling blast—
To try it, then, and see if it were fast,
He shook the vine and caused the leaves to fall,
For Autumn came with bleak and chilling blast,

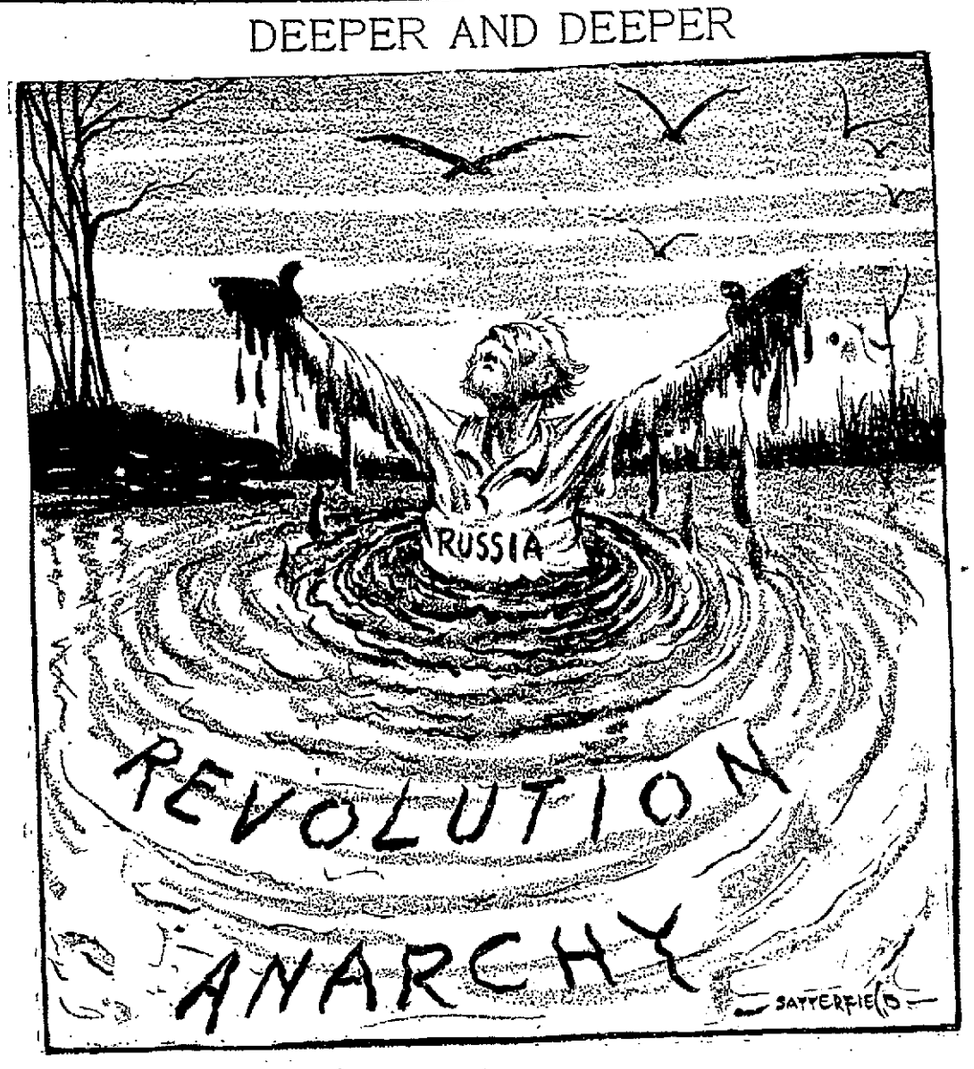
DEEPER AND DEEPER



HOW UNCLE SAM IS GOING TO WORK HIS NEW SCHEME FOR FINANCING THE WAR

BY MILTON BRONNER.

Mr., Mrs., Miss, or Master American Citizen, have you 25 cents?

If so, Uncle Sam wants you to lend it to him to help whip the Huns.

That is the meaning of one of the most gigantic financial plans in the world, which will be launched on December 3, and extend over a year.

The government has raised huge quantities of money in two liberty loans, which appealed to every citizen who had $50 or $100 or more to spare.

The campaign to sell war savings certificates is designed to raise $2,000,000,000 from people who did not feel they could afford $50 at a time, and yet are anxious to prove their Americanism.

The method is simple; on and after December 3, at any postoffice, bank or trust company, and at many railroad offices, stores and factories, THRIFT STAMPS and WAR SAVINGS STAMPS will be on sale.

Here is how it works out: Little Mary Jones, milliner, wants to help her government win the war. When she draws her week's wages she feels she can spare 25 cents. She goes to the postoffice and buys a thrift stamp. At the same time they give her a thrift card, which has spaces for 16 thrift stamps.

She pastes her thrift stamp on the thrift card, and writes her name and address in ink. Then if she loses it, the finder can drop it in any letter box and the postoffice department will return it to her. As soon as Mary has bought 16 thrift stamps, at 25 cents each, her thrift card is filled.

War savings stamps sell at different prices. During December, 1917, and January, 1918, they will sell at $4.12 each; in February, 1918, at $4.13; in March at $4.14; and so on, increasing regularly one cent each month. Now if Mary Jones completes her thrift card in March, 1918, she trades it in to the government, giving with it 14 cents, and then becomes the owner of a war savings stamp. She gets with this war savings certificate, which has spaces for 20 war saving stamps. If she buys just one stamp, at the end of five years—January, 1923—instead of getting back her original $4.14, she gets back from Uncle Sam $5.

In other words, her money has paid her four per cent. at compound interest.

The moment Mary pastes her war savings stamp on the war savings certificate, she has something that is safe from thieves or fire. She can take it to any postoffice and have it registered in her name free of charge. No one else can then cash in on it, and if it is destroyed, upon proof, she gets a new one.

When a war savings certificate is registered it is payable only to the owner, and at the postoffice where it was registered.

If Mary Jones becomes hard up next year and needs money, she can surrender her war savings certificate and get her money back, plus 3 per cent. interest. However, the government hopes every buyer will hold the certificates until they mature in 1923.

The price at which war savings stamps were to be sold was determined for each month by taking the number of dollars and cents which at 4 per cent. interest compounded, quarterly, will on January 1, 1923, equal $5.

The 25-cent thrift stamps are green and little larger than a postage stamp. The war savings stamps, also green, are about four times the size of a postage stamp. On each side is engraved a list on the months during which they will be sold, and the price during that month.

As often as Mary Jones buys a war savings stamp she pastes this on her war savings certificate until she has 20. This fills the certificate, and she can then start on another. Purchases are limited to $100 maximum at one time, and to $1,000 to any one person. If a person bought 20 war savings stamps next December or January he would pay $82.40 and get back $100 on January 1, 1923, making $17.50 interest.

MAKE THE NATION'S WATERPOWER AID TO WIN THE GREAT WAR

BY GIFFORD PINCHOT.

The great war in which our nation is engaged will be won not alone by food and men, but by mechanical power as well. Without mechanical power we could not make or move the weapons with which we fight—guns, ammunition, ships and supplies. Our national resources of power, whether from coal, oil or water power are national war necessities. We need them to win the war.

In this gigantic struggle our security requires us to use all these great resources and to use them wisely and well. The people of the United States own some fifty million undeveloped water horsepower, or about enough to run every train, trolley, factory, mill, mine and electric power plant we have.

For ten years the friends of conservation have urged the development of public waterpowers in the public interest. But development has been held back by a little group of waterpower magnates and their friends in congress, who have blocked all legislation which would not give them these valuable properties forever and for nothing.

Today, when the nation needs all its resources, the same men who have been blocking reasonable waterpower legislation own and are holding millions of water horsepower undeveloped and out of use while clamoring for more.

The time has come when such obstruction threatens the nation's safety and success. We need the development of these powers in war even more than in peace. At the coming session of congress sound waterpower legislation should be enacted as a war measure, based upon principles fair to all sides. These principles I believe to be as follows:

(1) The thing to do with waterpower is to develop it. Whatever retards or restricts the development of public waterpowers on terms fair to the public is against public policy and hostile to the general welfare.

(2) Waterpower belongs to the people. The sites where it is produced should always be held in public hands, for only so can effective control in the general interest be secured.

(3) Where public development is not desired, the right to use waterpower sites should be leased for periods long enough to permit sound, attractive and profitable investment, but never longer than fifty years. At the end of each lease all rights should return to the people who gave them.

(4) In order to protect the consumer against extortion, rates and service should be regulated by federal authority when state or local authorities fail to do so.

(5) Reasonably prompt and complete development and continuous operation, subject to market conditions, should be required. Already millions of water horsepower are held out of use to further monopoly by private corporations.

(6) Corporations or individuals who make money out of rights granted by people should share their profits with the people.

(7) The public has a right to complete information about every business based on the use of public property.

These are the principles for which the friends of conservation have been contending. Many waterpower men believe them to be fair and sound. They will, I hope, commend themselves to you as wise and reasonable. I am writing to ask your support for immediate legislation, based upon them, when congress meets.

This is no time to give away public assets necessary for the welfare of our people, both in the war and after the war, and we should not longer tolerate the selfishness of private interests which take the dog-in-the-manger position that they must have these waterpowers on their own terms or no one shall use them at all.

As the president has said: "The supreme test of the nation has come. We must all speak, act and serve together."

WAR ON OUR OWN GROUND.

(Indianapolis Star.)

If we do not win the war in Europe the conflict will be transferred to this side and fought out on our own soil, but there are ways of carrying on war other than by contest of arms, and some of them apparently are in operation in this country now. They are stealthy, cunning, dishonorable ways at which the common enemy has proved itself adept. One is the circulation of seditious sentiment—opposition to the war, false peace propaganda, subtle efforts to weaken the war spirit, the dissemination of falsehoods concerning war conditions—another the destruction of food, munitions and other property important to the prosecution of the war.

The extent of this destruction, so far as it affects insurance companies, is easily and exactly measured. Statistics recently published show that since the United States entered the war more than $25,000,000 worth of food has been destroyed by fire. This is at the rate of about $45,000,000 a year, or enough to feed an army of a million men for almost a third of a year. From known facts and from well-based inferences it is estimated that three-fourths of this loss has been incendiary.

One ground for this conclusion is the fact that the total incendiary loss in the United States in 1915 was $10,000,000. The total loss in 1916 showed an increase in the total of incendiary fire losses of $40,000,000, chiefly in munition fires and explosions. What is known as the Black Tom explosion caused a loss of $11,000,000, but this item is not listed as incendiary by underwriters, since it is not definitely proved that it was caused by enemy agents, though there is little doubt that this was the case. This year the work of the anti-American "firebugs" has been directed more to foods than to other property. The items include the Rochester fire, $1,000,000; the Kansas City stock yard fire, $1,500,000; the Brooklyn elevator fire, $2,000,000; the Baltimore fire, $5,000,000; food loss from other fires in October may run easily, to $10,000,000. The Rochester, Brooklyn, Kansas City and Baltimore fires are admittedly the work of incendiaries.

These figures supply a definite measure of the underground war campaign that is being carried on in this country. On the other side we fight an enemy in the open field; here it steals upon us in the night and with the torch. Considering the danger from this source, no intelligent person can afford to look at the war lightheartedly and feel safe because it is so far away. The war is already with us.

Telegrams were sent all along the line of the Pennsylvania this afternoon to arrest a man who had possession of train No. 1 with a revolver and was running it to suit himself. At a number of stations the police were present to make the arrest, but were afraid to tackle the desperado, who was armed with a big 42 calibre revolver. The police force of the city was notified and Lieutenant Lapp and Officer Quinn were at the station with the patrol wagon. The train was two hours late. When it arrived Conductor James C. Craig stepped to a window and told the police that the desperado was in the rear coach and had his revolver. Both officers closed in on the man and after a desperate struggle, handcuffed him and rolled him into the patrol wagon. A forty-two calibre revolver was taken from him. At the station the man gave his name as Henry Kaufman and said he was a hotel porter living at Delphos, Ohio. He said he had been out the night before with an actor and both got drunk. He got on the train at Delphos. The passengers lived in terror of the fellow all the way. He walked up and down with his revolver ready to shoot the first one who disputed his possession of the train. A large bottle of whisky was on his person. The fellow is a desperado.

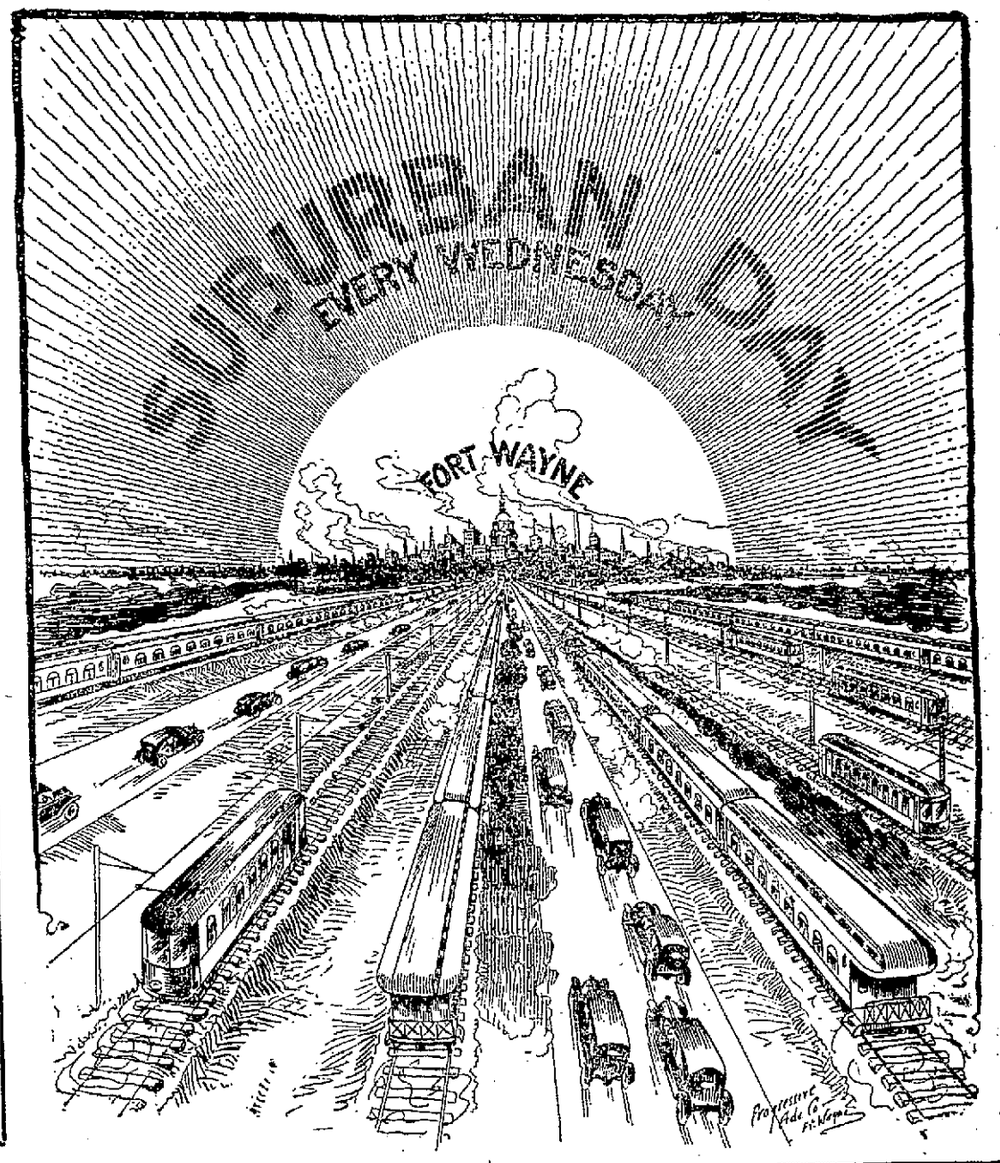
Suburban Day Fort Wayne's great weekly shopping event, has already accomplished four important objects:

1—It has proven to be a wonderful money-saving institution. And the holidays are approaching!
2—It has shown the out-of-town people that Fort Wayne can supply the needs, and it is not necessary to turn to the metropolitan cities or to the mail order houses.
3—It has promoted a close friendship between the merchant and the people of the neighboring cities and farming districts.
4—It has taught the people to support the merchant in the home town by proclaiming the advice: "Try your home merchant first—then try Fort Wayne."

Come to Fort Wayne this week Wednesday. The stores are filled with seasonable goods at attractive prices. The theaters have splendid attractions. "Indiana's Second City" is a delightful place to spend a day for profit or recration. Make your plans NOW to come WEDNESDAY.



Uncle Harry Explains The Importance of The New American-Japanese Agreement

"What's the lesson this evening?" asked Uncle Harry, looking over Joe's shoulder at the geography that his nephew had spread out on the table. "Oh, Japan; that's interesting—and very timely."

"Why do you say it's timely, Uncle Harry?" asked Helen, who had stopped her knitting for a moment. "Do you mean the new treaty or whatever it is that Japan and the United States have just signed?"

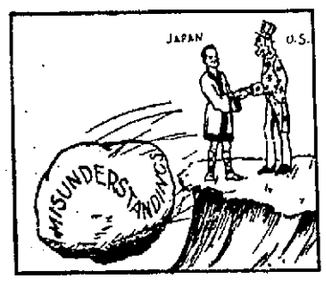
"That's the very thing," answered Uncle Harry.

"The newspapers have printed a lot about the treaty and it seems to be very important, but I don't understand why," added Helen. "Japan and our country have been good friends; haven't they Uncle Harry?"

"Yes, the two countries have been good friends," said Uncle Harry. "But they are even better friends now; they understand one another better, and the treaty and the conferences between Mr. Lansing, our secretary of state, and Viscount Ishii, which led up to the treaty, or rather agreement, for it isn't, strictly speaking, a treaty even though it serves practically the same purpose as a treaty, will mark the beginning of increased good will between many millions of people."

"Who did you say held the conferences with Secretary Lansing?" asked Jimmy.

"Viscount Ishii, one of Japan's foremost statesmen, who has lately visited our country at the head of a delegation of other Japanese statesmen, who came here for the express purpose of talking over with our government officials, the interests that the two countries have in China—for it has been China, the great new republic of the Orient, with its vast natural resources, very largely undeveloped, that many people believed might lead to trouble, and possibly war between the United States and Japan."



"There has been a lot of talk about trouble between our country and Japan, for a long time, hasn't there?" asked Joe.

"Yes, there has," answered Uncle Harry, "and President Wilson and Secretary Lansing, and the leading officials of Japan, have been very wise in meeting and talking the whole matter over and coming to what seems to be a very sensible agreement.

"Japan and China, you know, are very, very old countries," Uncle Harry continued. "Japan is a small, island nation, and China is big in territory and tremendously rich in natural resources. But it has only been during the last half century that Japan and China have been trading, to any extent, with the rest of the world. It is true that China has made much greater progress politically, in recent years, and is now a republic; but Japan has developed much more in a business way—principally in manufacturing. Japanese manufacturers need the raw materials that are to be found in China, and during the last few years many people have become to believe that Japan intended to take advantage of China, get possession of her resources and prevent the rest of the world from trading with China."

"Is that what people mean when they talk about Japan closing the 'open door' in China?" asked Joe.

"Exactly," said Uncle Harry. "And, the Philippine Islands being one of our possessions, many people said that Japan might same day try to take the Philippines away from us. Then there was the trouble in California, a few years ago, about Japanese attending the public schools, and owning land. Then, too, you remember there were rumors from time to time that Japan was looking for an opportunity to get some land in Mexico. Finally, our government revealed the would-be plot of the German government to get Mexico and Japan to attack the United States, in case we went to war with Germany."

"I don't wonder people were a little suspicious of Japan with all that talk," said Helen.

"That was the very point," said Uncle Harry. "There was so much talk and so few people really knew just how Japan felt toward the United States, that our officials and the Japanese officials decided that they ought to get together and talk the whole matter over; come to a definite understanding, and then make a complete announcement to the people of both countries. And that is just what has been done. Japan has announced in the new agreement that she has no intention of interfering with China's independence or taking any Chinese territory, and that instead of wanting to close the 'open door' to China, she is in favor of keeping it wide open. Our government says that it recognizes that Japan, because of her nearness to China naturally has special interests in China, but at the same time believes that Japan intends to play fair with China and every other nation."

"And after the agreement had been signed," said Uncle Harry, "Secretary Lansing and Viscount Ishii gave statements to the newspapers which make it very clear to the people in Japan as well as in the United States, that only the most friendly feelings exist between the two governments, and that there is no reason at all for talk about unfriendly relations between the two peoples and no reason for trouble."

"Why, that sounds as though progress were being made toward a continued and assured peace in one part of the world at least, even in the midst of the world's greatest war," spoke up the boys' father, who had come into the room a little while before and had been listening to Uncle Harry's talk.

"Yes, and without a single shot being fired," replied Uncle Harry. "Which just goes to show what can be done when people are willing to sit down together and talk things over and be fair and reasonable with one another, as Secretary Lansing and Viscount Ishii were when they held their conferences in Washington."

Editor's Note—Uncle Harry will be glad to answer inquiries, either in this column or by mail, provided letters are signed with the full name and address of the persons writing. The correspondents' names will not appear in the articles.

Rapid Transit To Country Club Gardens

The convenience of rapid transit is one of the numerous features of Country Club gardens, located just west of the Country club. There is the Huntington road on the north and Taylor street on the south, both smooth roads, connecting with the city pavements, and also the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana traction line, which makes quick trips between the gardens and the city. This removes the last obstacle of life in the country, which so many people desire. Country Club gardens make it possible for the city man or woman to purchase a small tract at a price which comes back to them in real returns from the products of the ground within a short time, while they are partaking of the real joy of living

Howard Pfeiffer, 1218 Rivermet, a carpenter, has just purchased from the City and Suburban Building company a lot in the gardens, where he expects to build in the spring.

POILUS LAUGH UNDER SHELLS

Correspondent Lyon Has a Bit of a Frolic on French Front.

WRITER IS IN THE VERY HEART OF WAR

Unshaken Spirit of the French Shows They Are Good Sports.

BY C. C. LYON.

(Staff Correspondent of The Daily Sentinel.)

With the French Army on the Western Front, Oct. 26.—A terrific artillery duel was on, the day we crawled up the winding tortuous approaches to "Dead Man's Hill" in the Verdun sector.

Across the way, on Hill 304, we could plainly see, through our glasses, the French infantry that for days had been holding the first line trenches against the repeated counter assaults of the Germans.

The roads were almost obliterated by the intense cannon fire that had gone on day and night, unceasingly, for weeks.

Within the range of vision there was not a building of any kind whose roof or walls had not been shattered by German shot.

On the very edge of this desolate, fire-swept world the French guide had stopped his small party of Americans and had said:

"Somebody is being killed around here every hour almost. It is very dangerous. Each of you must declare he understands the situation and accepts the risk."

We all so declared and accepted.

"Then follow me closely," he said, and he led us up the slope into what a few weeks before had been the first line French trench, but which had been left behind when the French pushed forward into new positions.

Hidden in the hills behind us, the French artillery, with deadly accuracy, was planting shell after shell in the German trenches.

Fascinated, we watched the black clouds of smoke and debris that indicated where each shot found its mark.

He didn't finish. Just then a big German shell fell with an ear-splitting explosion not more than 150 yards from us.

A minute later a second shell came within 100 yards.

The French guide, who had been under shell fire hundreds of times, admonished us.

"There's no use ducking your heads. The shells you hear never hit you and the shells that hit you you never hear."

"Nevertheless," said Harris Dickson, short story writer, who was along, "I get a good deal of consolation out of these ducks, and if you don't mind I'll take a few more."

"And as for me, gentlemen," said Irving Batcheller, author of "Eben Holden," "I think I'll be going back down hill. I'm not afraid of the shells, understand, but I don't want to get this new raincoat of mine all spattered with mud."

At the foot of the hill we came upon a group of French soldiers examining a brand new shell hole.

"Why don't you get away from there?" I asked one of them.

"Because I might get hit if I did," he answered. "Shells seldom, if ever, strike twice in exactly the same place."

A little farther along a French ambulance was backed up to a shattered wall and a wounded poilu was being loaded into it. He was gay as he laughed and chatted with the ambulance men.

His left arm had been shattered.

"C'est la guerre (It is war)," he called to us. "I'm thankful it wasn't my head. ANYWAY, I STILL HAVE MY GOOD RIGHT ARM TO MAKE LOVE WITH."

"That's the secret of the strength of the French army," our guide observed. "The French soldier is a good sport, as you would say in America. He takes what comes and makes the best of it."

While we were in the vicinity of Dead Man's Hill and Hill 304 a number of French airplanes took to the air and flew far behind the German lines.

Each was a target for scores of shots from the enemy's anti-aircraft guns but none of the machines was hit.

"The German airmen are afraid of us today," said a French officer. "You've noticed, haven't you, that they're not offering us an air battle." us today," said a French officer. up with an invitation from the French general to visit his headquarters.

We found his office and living quarters to consist of several rooms cut out of solid rock about 30 feet underground.

As we sat around his table we could hear German shells breaking overhead.

"I'm very sorry I have to bring you so far underground to offer you my poor hospitality," he said.

"Oh, that's all right," said the American who responded. "We assure you some of us would feel more comfortable if you were down 60 feet instead of only 30!"

ANNUAL REPORT IS SPLENDID.

Needlework Guild Round-Up Shows Great Progress.

The Fort Wayne branch of the Needlework Guild of America presents this year at its annual round-up a remarkable showing of work of garment members. From a total of twenty-three sections 6,005 new garments were turned in while the shoe fund donated by men, women and children, summed up $192.26. A further showing of interest in the work is noted by the fact that ten sections sent in many more than their required number of new garments, which must be twenty-two and a money member besides. Ten sections sent in over 200 garments each and one section sent in over 700, so it was no wonder that instead of a total of 506, the required number of twenty-three sections, the energetic directors and section presidents got so interested that they multiplied that number several times. Two new sections are counted in this year, having been organized in time for the report and there are thirty-six new directors. A director is one who pledges herself to secure ten garment members, or members enough to contribute 110 new garments, household linen included as a "garment." Five of these directors form a section and the one who gets her ten garment members and secures the aid of four other women, men or children to act in the same capacity as herself becomes a section president and the other four with their garment members come under her jurisdiction. New section presidents for the coming year are Mrs. O. R. Kelsey, Mrs. F. J. Thieme, Mrs. Allen Courtney, Mrs. E. R. Ruff, Mrs. Frank Bohn, making a total of twenty-eight. The thirty-six new directors include Mrs. F. D. Bond, Mrs. F. S. Hunting, Mrs. Charles Bales, Mrs. I. L. Walker, Mrs. Harry Fletcher, Mrs. C. M. Niezer, Mrs. Cora Eiter, Mrs. C. W. Honeck, Mrs. O. L. Hutchins, Mrs. A. Weinstein, Miss Ruth Levy, Mrs. Henry Jordan, Mrs. William Horner, Mrs. S. Hinds, Miss Irene Hazzard, Mrs. Theodore Koch, Mrs. Myra Vesey, Miss Marguerite Langford, Miss Margaret Ann Keegan, Mrs. C. L. Baird, Miss Mabel Bowers, Miss Helen Gilmartin, Miss Stella Merz, Miss Maud Jolliff, Mrs. George Hibbins, Mrs. Dean Metcalf, Mrs. Fred Martin, Mrs. C. Mize, Mrs. Francis Miles, Mrs. Charles Paul, Mrs. George Philbrick, Mrs. E. R. Ruf, Mrs. Frank Tolan, Mrs. Gus Willson, Mrs. Noah Zehr. New section presidents reported from last year are Mrs. Charles Hughes and Mrs. Charles Bales.

The distribution of the 6,005 garments sent in is made always partly according to requests from institutions and from principals of schools concerning children in their respective buildings. The distributions are:

Dr. Barnard Suggests Women Watch Cooking

"Who is the greatest slacker, the cook in the kitchen who wastes food because she has never learned the value of thrift or the mistress who will not take the trouble to teach her better methods of work?" asks State Food Director Barnard. "It is easy to shift responsibility and blame the cook for the ever-increasing grocery bills. It would be more patriotic to go into the kitchen and see that every waste is stopped. I am quite aware of the fact that trouble somtimes comes to women who with the best intent, try to change the working methods of their helpers. But the possibility of a conflict over the proper way to pare potatoes or utilize drippings should no longer deter any woman from taking action when action is necessary. It may be bringing the war into the home to tell some cooks that they are wasteful, but the boys in the trenches over there are aided or injured by what we do here to save or waste food and if kitchen warfare is necessary to put a quick stop to extravagance, why let us have war.

"I do not make the assertion that all cooks are wasteful and all heads of homes thrifty. Often the contrary is the case. But I do want to emphasize the fixed belief of many men that if their wives did the cooking as they did in the early days of their home making the family table would cost far less than it does now, when club work, and socks for soldiers and all the other activities of the life of modern woman leaves little time for the supervision of the buying and preparation of food.

"It is hard to purchase personal interest with servants' wages. And that is why the best service many women may give their country is a renewed attention to the kitchen end of the home. There is no stirring appeal that makes the blood rush the quicker, in the baking of cornmeal muffins, instead of biscuits. It may be more inspiring to roll Red Cross bandages than to follow the precepts of 'Hoover Thrift' cards; it surely is not more necessary and when the records are written the woman who has helped in the war in her kitchen will share equal honors with those who have served closer to the battle line."

Sensible Sweets for Thanksgiving

BY BIDDY BYE.

The omission of pumpkin pie from the Thanksgiving spread would be even more calamitous than the omission of turkey and since the ingredients of this plump yellow delicacy are still within reach of the ordinary purse we hasten to add an excellent recipe for the standard pie and recipe in which eggs are absent.

PUMPKIN PIE—One and one-half cupfuls steamed and strained pumpkin, 2-3 cupfuls brown sugar, 1 teaspoonful cinnamon, 1-2 teaspoonful ginger, 1-2 teaspoonful salt, 2 eggs lightly beaten, 1 1-2 cupfuls milk, 1-2 cupful cream. Mix as for custard and bake in rich pastry crust.

EGGLESS PUMPKIN PIE—One pint of prepared pumpkin, 1 quart rich milk, 3 tablespoonfuls flour, 1-2 teaspoonful cinnamon, 1-4 teaspoonful allspice, 1-4 teaspoonful cloves. Fill crusts and bake slowly. This recipe makes three pies.

FROZEN CHOCOLATE WITH WHIPPED CREAM—Two squares bitter chocolate, 1 cupful sugar, pinch of salt, 1 cupful boiling water, 3 cupfuls rich milk.

Scald the milk and melt chocolate in saucepan set in hot water, adding one-half the sugar, salt, and gradually, the boiling water. Boil for 5 minutes and then add to scalded milk and remaining sugar. Cool mixture and freeze. Serve in tall glasses garnished with whipped cream, sweetened and vanilla flavored.

CRANBERRY FRAPPE—One quart of cranberries, 2 cupfuls water, 2 cupfuls sugar, juice of 2 lemons.

Cook cranberries and water 8 minutes, then force through a sieve. Add sugar and lemon juice and freeze to a thick mush, using equal parts of ice and salt.

ICEBERGS—Four cupfuls sugar, 3-4 cupfuls lemon juice, green vegetable coloring, creme de menthe to flavor.

Make a sirup by boiling water and sugar 20 minutes. Cool, add lemon juice and coloring. Freeze and serve in champagne glasses, pouring 1 teaspoonful of creme de menthe over each portion and sprinkling with chopped nut-meats.

EVERYBODY'S KNITTING FOR SAMMIES IN FRANCE
SOME FIRST THINGS TO REMEMBER IF YOU HELP

BY GRACE JOHNSTON.

New York, Nov. 19.—One of the largest auditoriums in the city of New York was crowded with women. They had come together at the invitation of the womens' committee of one hundred for non-partisan government to hear Mayor John Purroy Mitchel speak.

It was not a roaring, noisy, wild gathering such as men are wont to make of their political meetings. The women sat composed and quiet, diligently applying themselves to their knitting. But when the mayor rose to address them, a burst of enthusaism greeted him and a perfect sea of gray and khaki worsted waved before him. Then the knitting of sweaters and scarfs and helmets was resumed while the "fighting mayor" presented the campaign issues to an interested audience.

In a middle western city a preacher patriotic preaches severy Sunday morning to an audience, half of which—no, probably at least three-fourths of which—are women who knit and listen, knit and listen, knit and listen.

In New York women knit in automobiles, at the theaters, at tea in the hotels. They knit in the railroad stations, in the subway and on the street corners.

A gorgeous knitting bag of silk or velvet or chintz trimmed with satin flowers and gold lace or wool embroidery or beading is as important a part of a new fall costume as veil or collar or any other trapping.

To be sociable, you must knit; to be smart you must knit; to be patriotic, you must knit.

And most important of all, you must knit according to directions so that your work will be serviceable—there is need for all your knitting—none should be useless because it has not been made according to directions. Red Cross official directions must be followed as to the weight of the wool used, the size of the needles, the color of the yarn and the fashioning of the article.

The matter of color has been considered with the authorities of the war department and with the American Red Cross commissioner for Europe who is stationed in Paris. Either gray or khaki is acceptable to both these sources.

There is difficulty in securing khaki colored yarn in large quantities and the American Red Cross supply bureau is carrying the gray yarn (oxford mixture, 4-ply 01's construction.)

The needles recommended are standardized Red Cross needles, the diameter as follows:

No. 1—125-1000 inch.

No. 2—175-1000 inch.

No. 3—200-1000 inch.

No. 1 needles are supplied in either steel or celluloid.

When yarn and needles other than those of Red Cross standard are used knitters must be careful to observe the measurements given for each article, and a larger or smaller number of stitches used as may be required to meet the specified measurements.

Mr. Kruse was born in Germany and came to American when very young and settled in DeKalb county. His first wife died in this city twenty-two years ago. In 1900 he married again and his wife and eight children survive. The funeral was held Monday morning at St. Mark's Lutheran church, of which the deceased was a member. Rev. S. E. Slater had charge of the services and interment was at Woodlawn.

Death of Mrs. Seydell.

Auburn Short Notes.

The Auburn high school basketball team defeated the team from St. Joe Friday evening in a game played at St. Joe. The score was 43 to 17. This is the second game the Auburn lads have won from St. Joe this year.

Two violators of the game laws were arraigned in Justice Chester Hodge's court Saturday afternoon and were fined each $5 and costs, making the sum of $25 for each violator to pay. The parties were Walter Hose, whose home is three and a half miles south of Butler, and Charles Riser, of three miles east of Butler. Both pleaded guilty to killing fur-bearing animals out of season. Neither of the men had a hunting license, which would prohibit them from hunting at any time.

Deputy Sheriff Fisher, of Berrien county, Michigan, was in this city Saturday and with Sheriff Frank Baltz, of Auburn, went to the Double Fabric company and arrested Allen L. Blood on a charge of wife and child desertion. He said he would return to Buchanan, Mich., with the sheriff without extradition papers. He also claims that his wife refused to live here with him, stating that she returned to Michigan last August. He has been working in Auburn since May.

The marriage of Clifford G. Hart aged 20, and Miss Vera M. Guilford, aged 17, occurred Saturday afternoon at the Lutheran parsonage in this city, Rev. Slater officiating. The groom is from Monroeville, while his bride is an Auburn resident. They will make their home on a farm near Monroeville.

Rev. A. J. Bourns returned Saturday from Spring Lake, Mich., where he was called to officiate at the funeral of a former parishioner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hall, of Paoli Ind., came Sunday for a few weeks visit with their son, Dr. E. O. Hall, and wife, of North Main street.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENTS.

A machine driven by L. W. Heimlen of Garrett, and a car driven by J. A. Koehler, 2704 Maumee avenue, collided at the corner of Harrison and Taber streets Sunday afternoon. A baby in the Heimlen machine was thrown to the pavement but escaped without injury. Mrs. Heimlen and Mrs. Frances Vanderbach and daughter, Lucile, escaped with minor injuries. Both parties reported at police headquarters. C. W. Fultz, 330 Kinniard avenue, reported to the police that he struck a rig driven by James Potter, R. R. 10. Mr. Potter and another man were thrown to the pavement, but escaped serious injury.

Daughters of Workmen will give a pedro party in Dehm's hall on Tuesday evening to which the public is invited

Ice Cream Price Goes Up

The unusual advance in milk products and all other things used in the manufacture of ice cream, makes it necessary to raise the price of ice cream.

Ice cream contains nothing but food products. While it goes through a special preparation that makes it more pleasing to the taste, it is never-the-less a food in its highest form. Wholesome, delicious and nourishing.

Water ices and sherbets require 3 times as much sugar as ice cream and have very little food value. For that reason, the ice cream factories of Fort Wayne will not make sherbets until sugar becomes plentiful.

FARMERS WHO HOARD POTATOES NOT WISE

Crop is Immense and History Shows What Will Happen by Spring.

Indianapolis, Nov. 19.—Indiana farmers and growers who are hoarding potatoes are asked by the Indiana state food administration and the Indiana state council of defense to give attention to statistics which have been compiled by the federal authorities. This is in order that they may not be deceived either as to the extent of the potato crop or the price at which potatoes may sell next spring. Dr. Harry E. Barnard, state food administrator, authorizes the following official executive statement through the Indiana state council of defense on this vitally important subject:

"The price of potatoes is at present $1.65 per bushel. Crop reports for October give the crop for 1917 as 453,000,000 bushels. This is the biggest crop of potatoes in the history of the United States. In view of this fact the prices are all out of proportion to what they should be. The farmers all over the country are storing the crop in hope of higher prices in the spring. No more foolish practice could be imagined. It will be very surprising if the big drop does not come before April.

"The year books of the United States department of agriculture show that whenever a poor crop is followed by a good crop, the prices in the fall of the good crop are always high and the spring prices are low. In 1908 the potato crop was poor, followed by a good crop in 1909. In September, 1909, potatoes were selling at 65 cents per bushel; in October for 55 cents; December, 58 cents; April, 1910, 31 cents, and May and June at 34 and 28 cents, respectively.

"In 1911 there was a short crop, followed by a heavy crop in 1912. In September, 1911, the price of potatoes was $1.30 per bushel; in October the price was 85 cents; November, 95 cents; December, $1; January, 1912, $1.15, and in April $1.70. Then came the heavy crop in the fall. In September the price was 95 cents; December, 65 cents; January, 1913, 52 cents; April, 43 cents, and June, 36 cents.

"It is almost certain that a similar situation will come about this year. The crop is being held for higher prices which will not come. The man who is worrying about the price to be paid for potatoes next spring is making a mistake, because the price undoubtedly will be less than a dollar a bushel."

Only recently the Indiana state council of defense was informed that potatoes were being shipped into the state from Colorado and the local retail price met, which would indicate that the Indiana producer is going to find a market pretty generously supplied when he does bring forth his potatoes, now not apparent on the market.

CAN'T SELL THEIR CORN TO THE DISTILLERIES

Dr. Barnard Counsels the Farmers of Northern Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 19.—Farmers of central and northern Indiana who are holding their 1917 corn in the expectation that they will realize more on it through sale to the distilleries are urged to disillusion themselves. "There isn't a chance," says Dr. Harry E. Barnard, Indiana food administrator, who is working through the Indiana State Council for Defense and county councils in an effort to save perhaps 15,000,000 of the late corn which suffered from frost.

The Indiana State Council of Defense has figures to prove that even the distillers are directed by the federal government to proceed with the manufacture of commercial alcohol and stock feed from all the corn they can handle, their capacity isn't large enough to take care of all the corn in that section of the state which early in the spring was flooded, thus necessitating a recultivation of the corn crop. If it is possible to save any of this crop it will be given preferred attention, first because of its proximity to the distilleries and second because of the inability of the growers to realize from t n any other way.

In the central and northern sections of the state almost all of the standing corn may be used profitably for feed. Farmers are urged to gather crop where it is ready and feed it before the rot prevents. Where the corn is still standing it is suggested that it be permitted to mature and then turned into feed, at once. Otherwise their corn may be a total loss, for the federal government has no plan whereby they can be given any relief.

A Good Suggestion.

Try Chamberlain's Tablets when bilious or constipated. You are certain to be much pleased with them. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. —Advertisement.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY THE SCHOOL BOARD

In Memory of Late Chester T. Lane, for Years High School Principal.

Resolutions in memory of the late Prof. Chester T. Lane, for years principal of the Fort Wayne high school, have been passed by the school board. The resolutions are as follows:

On October 21st there passed from this life, Chester T. Lane, who for thirty-six years, the span of a generation, had given, as its principal, direction and impulse to the Fort Wayne high and manual training school. Thousands of men and women, citizens of our community, owe to his vision and his work a debt which can in no wise be measured. He came to Fort Wayne and to Indiana at a time when the High School was an experiment in education. To his far-sighted direction, to his ability in foreseeing criticism and demand, the high schools of the state are largely indebted for their present standing in the educational system of Indiana.

Mr. Lane, as principal of the high school, established as its fundamental principles, two qualities—work and discipline. A thorough scholar himself, he tolerated nothing but the student's best efforts. Himself an honest and discriminating citizen, he demanded from all his pupils that unquestioning obedience to authority which forms the only secure foundation for citizenship. We feel that the solidity of our institution in this city, the careful conservatism which marks our reputation in the state are due in no small measure to the standards held up before our young people for all these years by this man.

Proper and fitting, therefore, it is, that the Board of Education of the City of Fort Wayne shall make this public acknowledgement of his ability and his services.

The resolutions were signed by A. L. Randall, E. W. Cook and W. H. Shambaugh, the members of the Fort Wayne school board.

Backache? Rheumatism? Run-Down?

Those of us who are past middle age are prone to eat too much meat and in consequence deposit lime-salts in the arteries, veins and joints. We often suffer from twinges of rheumatism or lumbago, sometimes from gout, swollen hands or feet. There is no need of this as the new prescription, Anuric, is bound to give immediate results as it is many times more potent than lithia, in ridding the impoverished blood of its poisons by way of the kidneys. Simply ask for Anuric (double strength) for kidneys or backache, the discovery of Dr. Pierce. It will overcome such conditions as rheumatism, dropsical swellings, cold extremities, scalding and burning urine and sleeplessness due to arising from bed.

A MARVELOUS HERBAL TONIC FOR WOMEN.

Elkhart, Ind.—"After becoming a mother I did not get along well, could not gain back my strength. I was extremely nervous and became very weak; was in a general run-down condition and two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription built me up in good health, cured me of all nervousness and my general health was better than it had been for some time. I can recommend 'Favorite Prescription' as being a splendid medicine for women." —Mrs. G. E. Timerman, 513 William St.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been sold by druggists for nearly fifty years. It is put up in both liquid or tablets. If not obtainable at your dealer's send 50 cents to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and he will mail direct a package of the tablets.

WILL PLEAD FOR GIRLS

Women Workers Present Peril of Young Women in Camp Towns.

Y. W. C. A. CAMPAIGN ON THIS AFTERNOON

In her address Sunday afternoon Miss Frances M. Crittenden said: "To mobilize the girls in and around the cantonment centers—for instance, at Rockford, Ill., from which place the men off duty go so far away as Beloit, Wis., which is not in the 'dry' belt, and where we have to face the matter of the spoilation of women and girls by other women and girls—has brought to us a terrific problem. * * The most unheard-of situations brought suddenly into being through the establishment of military camps containing 30,000 to 50,000 men—in many instances in the neighborhood of small settlements—has made necessary the bringing together of thousands of women and girls to meet the legitimate needs of the camp town. As soon as the government representatives awoke to the startling situation they appealed to the Y. W. C. A. for help."

Following an intensely impressive meeting this afternoon of the one hundred and fifty young women who are to be responsible for the success of the Y. W. C. A. drive for funds to help save the young women of the cantonment towns and thereby strengthen the army of the United States in its stupendous task of winning the war, the workers have started on their rounds. The Fort Wayne district must produce $31,000 or fall short of the nation's expectations.

Pictures Deplorable Need.

Yesterday afternoon, before a large audience of earnest men and women, Miss Frances M. Crittenden, of Chicago, who has made an inspection of cantonment conditions and assisted in organizing the work for the betterment of the conditions of the women and girls, gave an address in the gymnasium of the Y. W. C. A. building.

Miss Crittenden made clear the fact that from the beginning of time it has evidently been the place of woman in the world to meet emergencies. The call of the Fosdick commission to the Y. W. C. A. to undertake this big task is the logical thing in the scheme of the nation's affairs. Already the importance of the work has been recognized to the extent that $50,000 has been subscribed by the international committee of the Y. W. C. A.; $50,000 by Rev. W. A. Sunday, $500,000 by the Rockefeller Foundation—in fact, a total of $768,000 on condition that the association meet the challenge to raise the funds to undertake all that the government's representatives have asked it to do.

The Work to Be Done.

Miss Crittenden drew an impressive, if not appalling, picture of conditions which necessarily prevail in many of the contonment communities. In some of these centers where associations were already at work, additional secretaries and workers were added, and the situation was handled with immediate success, but in thirty-two of the cantonment centers there was no organization, and the situation had to be handled from the ground up. One happy thought has seemed to come as a godsend to the women to whom was given the great task of discovering a means of taking thousands of girls of all types and degrees in the social scale and uniting them in large bodies to teach them the true ideals of life and to give to their country the great expression of patriotism. It is the organization known as the "Patriotic League," whose members subscribe to a pledge which requires the member to (a) do her work every day better than she ever did it before, (b) to do whatever duty her country calls her to do, and (c) to be careful of her conduct so that no one may be wrongly led by her example. Each member wears a white button containing a blue square.

TWO—WILL PLEAD

Miss Crittenden asserted that the organization of these leagues in each of the cantonments and cantonment towns has worked wonders in keeping girls and young women from entering upon the evil ways which are so easily invited by camp conditions. There's only one way to meet the problem and that is to induce the girl to join with other girls in some organization of such size and attractiveness that it will appeal to all the girls of a community. You can't set a girl on a bench and teach her morale. We have to deal with high school girls, grade school girls, girls who work, girls who don't work, the girl tramp—the loafer—every class of girl; and unless we can engage them in something that is really patriotic, the cause is lost. The 'Patriotic League' is meeting the need. But the problem grows."

Business Girls Active.

Under the generalship of Miss Anna Rochm, of the general Y. W. C. A. campaign committee, two teams of business girls have been appointed for work in the industrial centers. The personnel of the teams is as follows:

PFLIEGER IS UNABLE TO GET $1,000 BOND

Louis J. Pflieger, the Chicago man arrested by Sergeant Detective Brennen and Lieutenant H. Grimme, on a charge of shooting and seriously wounding his wife, is still in jail at Chicago. Although the man's bond has been set at $1,000 he is unable to furnish it and no friends have offered to come to his rescue.

Just before Pflieger left Fort Wayne he stated that he had any number of friends in Chicago who would help him out in a short time, but these friends are evidently lacking. When asked if the Wells Construction company, for whom he was working, would fight his case, he stated that it was not necessary, that he had plenty of friends without them.

In the meantime Pflieger's wife is slowly recovering in a Chicago hospital. Her ultimate recovery is certain, and Pflieger's sentence will probably be comparatively light, as he has made a good record previous to this time.

NOVEMBER TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT OPENS

Most of the Day is Devoted to Hearing of Criminal Cases.

The November term of the circuit court convened Monday morning with one of the biggest dockets for several terms. The opening day was devoted principally to the hearing of criminal cases.

James Taylor, colored, was found not guilty of petit larceny. He was charged with stealing a pair of shoes from a Pennsylvania box car. The court stated that while circumstances led to Taylor's guilt, the testimony presented had not been sufficient to convict.

Charles Frederick, charged with wife neglect, was found not guilty.

The case against George Mills, charged with child neglect, was postponed and Mills was allowed to go on his own recognizance.

The case against Arthur Swain, charged with the unlawful possession of an automobile, was dismissed. The same action was taken in the case of Willis Weber, charged with grand larceny.

SURETY SUED.

Clover Leaf Casualty Co. Demands $150 from Homer J. Kelsey.

Suit for $150 was filed in the superior court Monday by the Clover Leaf Casualty company against Homer J. Kelsey. The complaint sets out that Kelsey was surety for Mott R. Long, an agent for the casualty company, who, it is charged, collected and has failed to pay over to the company the sum asked for in the suit.

DRANK EXCESSIVELY.

Eliza Stephenson Sues John M. Stephenson for Divorce.

Because her husband is addicted to the drink habit, Eliza Stephenson filed suit Monday in the superior court, through Attorneys Hartzell and Todd, asking for a divorce from John M. Stephenson. Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson were married in March, 1902, and separated November, 1912. Mrs. Stephenson lives at 1127 East Washington street.

CRUELTY CHARGED.

Alma Tinsley Also Says Her Husband is Habitual Drunkard.

Charging her husband with extreme cruelty, with having a violent temper and with being an habitual drunkard, Alma Tinsley filed suit Monday asking for a divorce from James Tinsley. She is represented by Attorneys Emrick & Emrick. In addition to a divorce Mrs. Tinsley is asking for a restraining order to prevent Tinsley from molesting her. Mr. and Mrs. Tinsley were married on Nov. 6, 1915, and separated Nov. 5, 1917.

Many Tax Remittances.

During the last two weeks of tax-paying County Treasurer William F. Ranke received exactly 19,096 pieces of mail. This shows that the sending in of tax remittances by mail is becoming more popular inasuch as it does way with the necessity of waiting in the long line of the cashier's window.

Will Call Dockets.

The civil and claim dockets will be called Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock by Judge J. W. Eggeman in the circuit court.

On His Way Home.

David C. Stout, county clerk, who has been hunting for the past week in the wilds of northern Michigan, is expected home Tuesday. The following card has been received by the "bunch" at the county clerk's office: "I got one big buck and the crowd has killed four deer all told. Start for civilization Sunday night."

Notes of the Courts.

James I. Evans has brought suit for $125 and foreclosure of a chattel mortgage against Edward G. Elliott.

URGE FRIDAY AS MEATLESS

State Food Commission in Suggestion for Saving More Food.

DR. BARNARD BACK FROM CONFERENCE

Declares Food Situation in Country Much Worse Than Realized.

Indianapolis, Nov. 19.—The Indiana food commission today recommended the observance of a meatless Friday in addition to a meatless Tuesday. Dr. H. E. Barnard, state food administrator, who attended a conference with Herbert Hoover, national food director last week, today said the situation is much worse than generally is realized. He declared that efforts to save more wheat, sugar and animal fats must be made. The following program was recommended:

Meatless Tuesday, meatless Friday; wheatless Wednesday, no bacon at breakfast at any time, one wheatless meal each day; use less sugar, use less animal fat.

Dr. Barnard also suggested that all after-luncheons and lunches usually given after card parties and entertainments be eliminated.

Defining meatless days, he said it meant no beef, pork or mutton in any form.

WAITERS IN CHICAGO SAID TO BE SPIES

Chicago, Nov. 19.—Investigation of charges that waiters employed in Chicago hotels were alien enemies, agents of foreign espionage corps eager to glean information from the men of affairs they served, has been ordered by the Chicago Federation of Labor. The federation intends to report the result of its inquiry to federal authorities. The charges were made by B. M. Parker, representing the Waiters' union. Parker asserted that most waiters serving in large hotels are members of an organization known as the Geneva association, with headquarters in Dresden, Germany, and that 75 per cent of these waiters are not citizens and that a majority of the mare German and Austrian subjects.

LADY WITNESS STILL UP IN SHAY MURDER CASE

Indianapolis, Nov. 19.—The cross-examination of Mrs. Gertrude Anderson, the woman companion of Dan Shay in the cafe of a local hotel the night of May 3 when Shay is alleged to have shot a negro waiter, continued in his trial here today. Her testimony under cross-questions by the prosecution, was similar to her story Saturday when first called by the defense. She continued to say that the waiter started the trouble. She admitted under cross-examination that although she knew the police were searching for her as a witness after the trouble she kept her identity hidden for several days.

SAND POINT LADIES GIVE RED CROSS $71

Proceeds of Chicken Supper Held Friday Night Yields This Sum.

The ladies of Sand Point realized $71 from the supper they served last Friday night at the Sand Point school and turned this amount over to the general fund of the Red Cross Monday afternoon. The ladies gave a "perfectly wonderful" chicken supper, to quote from an enthusiastic Red Cross worker, and only charged twenty-five cents for a meal served in real country style. The place was filled, as is shown by the excellent sum realized. The ladies are deserving of much appreciation for their work for everything served was donated by the women of the district.

Mrs. Freda Straus will open her French classes Monday night at the Red Cross headquarters on East Berry street. The classes are open to everybody, but those who expect to leave soon for the army are especially urged to attend. The classes are to be free, but if anyone feels like paying for the instruction the money will be turned over to the general Red Cross fund.

On a recent visit of a Red Cross representative to the First Baptist church she found twenty-five women working on hospital garments. They were using seventeen machines for the work. This is a record that shows how the American women of all factions are helping in the war.

One woman created a new record for individual Red Cross work last week. This was Mrs. J. E. Wolf, 1526 Lake avenue, who made and turned into the Red Cross twelve suits of pajamas.

Miss Frances Ott will not be able to meet with her classes at the Red Cross headquarters Monday night, as word has been received that she is very ill at her home in Plymouth. She will be present Tuesday night and will meet with all of the classes at 7 o'clock.

The classes in surgical dressing, which will be held this week, will commence Tuesday morning in charge of experienced teachers. Anyone interested may take the course which will be taught by Mrs. Fred Heine, Mrs. Arthur K. Remmel and Miss Mallie Johns.

Sixteen local Red Cross workers have received their cards entitling them to teach classes as recognized teachers. Those receiving this honor are: Mrs. A. L. Johns, Mrs. George Sears, Miss Sadie Fleming, Mrs. Arthur K. Remmel, Mrs. W. W. Rockhill, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Herman Mackwitz, Miss Carrie Schraeder, Mrs. W. K. Noble, Mrs. Fred Heine, Miss Mallie Johns, Mrs. Elizabeth Harkenrider, Miss Winifred Callahan, Mrs. Hal Reher, Mrs. Ralph Clark and Miss Jane Branson.

The mite-box still keeps up its good record at the local chapter headquarters and averages around a dollar a day. Monday morning it contained $1.86.

The women of the St. Patrick's Catholic church have sent in an order for 100 cut garments which they are going to finish and turn over to the Red Cross.

The information desk at the Red Cross headquarters is adding another duty to its many daily tasks. The ladies are going to keep a roster showing the location of every Allen county soldier and sailor. They want the next relative of every departed soldier and sailor to leave his present and home address at the desk and each name will go into the roster. All those leaving for the national army are requested to come in and leave their name and address before going.

The Red Cross warehouse received large shipments from Bluffton and Rensselaer Monday morning. Word was received that all knitted socks sent to the warehouse should be thoroughly washed with white soap. This is done to keep them from shrinking any more than can be helped.

SEVENTY-EIGHT JOIN ARMY SINCE NOV. 1

There have been seventy-eight enlistments at the Fort Wayne recruiting station since the first of the month. Sixteen men left Monday for various branches of the service. The eight Italians who enlisted last week left Monday for service in the aviation corps. Three others went to the coast artillery, two to the medical reserve and three to the aviation corps. The news that men of draft age cannot enlist after December 15 has caused a rush at the local station and November promises to be a record breaker.

TRIAL OF BIANCA DE SAULLES IS BEGUN

Mineola, N. Y., Nov. 19.—The trial of Mrs. Bianca De Saulles, Chilean heiress, for the murder of her divorced husband, John Longer De Saulles, politician and former Yale athlete, began here today. The greater part of the day was devoted to obtaining a jury. Indications were that the defense would be insanity. Talesmen were questioned by her lawyers in a way to give that impression. Mrs. De Saulles is alleged to have shot her former husband during a quarrel about their four-year-old son, the custody of whom was divided between the parents.

ONE CAUSE FOR THE SPREAD OF SMALLPOX

Case is Cited Where Rules of the Health Board Were Ignored.

A case was brought to the attention of the health board Monday which, as stated by Dr. L. P. Drayer, is a cause for the spread of smallpox. Over two weeks ago a case of smallpox broke out in the family of Eugene Heaney, 603 Prospect avenue, and in a short time all members of the family excepting the father became ill with the disease. No word, however, was sent to the health board, no quarantine kept nor a doctor summoned. Sunday the father became ill and shortly broke out with the eruptions. Instead of calling a doctor he proceeded down town, exposing many people to the disease. The doctor promptly sent him home and quarantined the house. With the exception of the breaking of quarantine by one person, no other cases of disregard for the orders of the health board have been reported.

Reject Bids on Trucks.

The board of works met Monday afternoon for a final decision on the automobile truck question for the garbage plant. At the meeting held last week the salesmen from various factories placed their bids and presented the merits of their cars and the board decided to prolong the decision for one week. At the meeting Monday afternoon the bids were rejected and the project will be readvertised. It will probably be some time before a truck will be contracted for as the board has decided to give the buying of the truck a thorough discussion to avoid a mistake in choice.

Park Developments.

The Lincoln cabin erected in Foster park has been fully completed and is now ready for dedication. The structure is an exact duplicate of the original structure. RED CROSS CIVILIAN COMMITTEE TO MEET

Many Matters of Importance to Be Brought Up Tuesday Evening.

The Civilian Relief committee of the Red Cross has been called to meet at 8 o'clock tomorrow, Tuesday evening, at the Commercial club. Copies of the law have been received by the chairman and the committee will read it and discuss their duties under its terms. The committee consists of C. R. Lane, chairman; O. E. Mohler, Mrs. Lew Ellingham, Rev. Joseph F. Delaney, O. A. Newall, P. A. Thompson, W. H. Kruse, Miss Minnette Baum and Dr. M. F. Porter, sr. The law became operative November 1 as to payments and the treasury department which has charge of it, is having the blanks filled out so that payments may begin. This is a large task and it may be several months before those entitled to payments will begin to receive them. The payment of half the soldier's pay to the wife is compulsory and it is also compulsory as to any divorced wife who has not remarried and is entitled to alimony. The soldier must also pay half to the support of children who have no mother. All payments to other dependents are voluntary. The payments are made by the government to the persons named in the application. The amount due a wife with children is $15 from her husband, if a private and to $15 from the government making $30 in all; to a wife with one child $25 in addition to the half of her husband's pay; to a wife with two children $32.50 and $5 for each additional child up to $50 a month, in addition to the half from her husband

FIVE DIVERS IN ONE DAY

SAYS HE NO LONGER FEARS SUBMARINES

Ex-Premier Asquith Talks Against Plan of Allied War Council.

London, Nov. 19.—Five German submarines were destroyed on Saturday. Premier Lloyd George made this announcement today in the house of commons.

In the house of commons today former Premier Asquith opened the debate in the creation of an allied war council and the recent utterances of Premier Lloyd George.

Mr. Asquith deprecated the setting up of any organization to supersede or interfere with "the unfettered activity and independent position" of the general staff. He opposed interference with the ultimate responsibility of each allied government for its own forces and to its own peoples.

Has No Bias.

Mr. Asquith said he looked at the new machinery without bias to see how far it would conduce toefficiency in prosecution of the war by the allies. The new scheme had been launched, he declared, in an indictment of the general strategy of the allies on the ground that it had been in several instances dilatory or misdirected. He felt that he would be failing his duty if he did not call attention to it.

Replying to Mr. Asquith Mr. Lloyd George said the machinery for consultation among the allies had become inadequate and that they had suffered previously on account of defects of the system.

His Former Criticism.

The premier said that any criticism which he had directed against the conduct of affairs of the past, in proposing the change, was not directed against any staffs or commander-in-chief of this or any other country.

The premier, continued Lord Kitchener, suggested an inter-allied council. It was again proposed last July by the military heads of the allies. As far as he could gauge public opinion in America would have preferred a council with executive powers but there were reasons why he thought it undesirable to set up a council with full executive authority unless the allies were absolutely driven to it by failure of the present scheme.

The premier said he had no further fears of submarines.

SAMMY IS MAKING HIS WINTER PREPARATIONS

With the American Army in France, Nov. 19.—(By Associated Press.)—Preparations for winter were begun actively today by the American troops. Various units have been ordered to cease drills temporarily on account of this work. The principal tasks are found in the towns where the soldiers are billeted in buildings which are draughty and in some cases damp. The weather has been cold and wet for the last week and the troops welcome the opportunity to provide for their own comfort.

INDIANA BEATS MINIMUM IN LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 19.—The sixty-eight Indiana counties in the Seventh federal reserve district subscribed $69,652,600 to the second Liberty Bond Loan according to a report received here today from district headquarters in Chicago. The estimate at the close of the campaign was $72,000,000. The shrinkage was caused by duplications and mistakes in reports. The amount subscribed was $14,291,320, more than the minimum allotment. The maximum allotment was $92,200,000.

ONLY THE AMERICAN ARTILLERY ENGAGED

With the American Army in France, Sunday, Nov. 18.—(The Associated Press.)—The artillery fighting and patrol activities continue on the American sector. The infantry had not taken any part in engagements and for the past few nights the Germans have not been coming near the American lines, apparently having learned that it is dangerous to do so. Nothing of special interest has been reported from this front during the past twenty-four hours.

TWO DIE IN AUTO SMASH.

Kokomo, Ind., Nov. 19.—Mrs. William S. Johnson, aged 64 years, and Benjamin Johnson, aged 45 years, both of Indianapolis, are dead as a result of an automobile accident occurring near Underhill, north of here last evening. There were nine persons in the machine when it struck some fresh gravel at a curve and turned over. All the other passengers were injured but not seriously.

FRIARS DEFEAT HEAVY COLUMBUS PANHANDLES

Spectacular Playing First Quarter Gives Locals Two Touchdowns.

The speedy Fort Wayne Friars swept the heavy Columbus Panhandles off their feet during the first quarter of Sunday's game and did all the scoring of the afternoon before they were stopped. The final score was 13 to 0. Specht, Pliska, Chambers and Dorais gained at will during this period and it is well they did, for the Buckeyes braced and were hard to beat after that. The Columbus aggregation, billed as a light team, outweighed the Friars to a man. Their back field was light, however.

Coming before the two biggest games of the season, with Wabash and Hammond, Sunday's game had a decidedly unfavorable ending, because Al Feeney, the Friars' star center, sustained injuries that will probably put him out for the remainder of the season. During the second quarter Feeney had his knee severely wrenched. Soon after Dorais was thrown into the fence but was not severely injured. The Panhandles had a hard way of playing which detracted from the interest in the game and made it dangerous for any of the Friars who got in their way.

First Quarter.

Captain Dorais won the toss and chose to defend the north goal. Fred Nesser kicked off to Lockwood, who was downed in his tracks. On two end runs Specht and Pliska made first down for the Friars. Specht followed with a twenty yard gain around the left end, aided by good interference. On two plays Pliska made eight yards and Chambers made two more through center. With the ball on the Panhandles' twenty yard line Chambers made two, Specht added six, but Helvie lacked three inches of making it first down. Chambers made the gain through center carrying the ball to the five yard line. On the next play Helvie bucked center to the one yard line, but the Friars were penalized for off-side play. Specht was given the ball and started on a wide end run, but he suddenly whirled, retraced his steps and shot through center for a touchdown. This was the first ever scored by the locals against the Panhandles and the crowd went wild. Dorais missed His kick. Score, Friars 6, Columbus 0.

Fred Nesser kicked to Dorais, who made a pretty return to mid-field. With a six point lead Dorais opened the Friar aerial attack, but the first attempt was intercepted by Corcoran. Gulke hit the line for a five yard gain. Ted Nesser hit for three, but a pass to Fred Nesser failed and it was the Friars' ball. After Dorais failed to gain he followed with a pretty forty yard pass into Rochne's arms. On the next play the Friars were penalized for off-side play. A pass into Pliska's hands slipped through his fingers. Dorais broke loose for a twenty yard gain and Specht made it first down. Pliska hit center for a touchdown. Dorais kicked the goal. Score, Friars 13, Columbus 0.

Fred Nesser kicked off to Dorais, who returned to the Friars' forty-five yard line. Chambers failed to gain, a long pass to Helvie went wild and a pass to Pliska was missed as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter.

It was the Panhandles' ball and Gulke dropped the ball after hitting center for five yards. Feeney recovered. The Friars failed to gain and after receiving a penalty Dorais tried a long pass, which was intercepted by Gulke. On the next play Gulke made three through center, Ted Nesser added three more, and a pass to Gulke made first down. Pliska was hurt trying to break up the play, but resumed after a brief rest. Here Feeney received a badly wrenched knee that may put him out for the rest of the season. The fans cheered the popular Al as he was carried to the Friar bench. Nesser's pass to Kuehner was wild, and on the next attempt Pliska intercepted.

Dorais tried to gain after a fumble, but was thrown for a five-yard loss. The Friars could not gain and Dorais punted. The Panhandles could make but little headway and Fred Nesser punted to the Friars' twelve-yard line. Specht carried the ball for fifteen yards out of danger. Dorais followed with twenty more. After several losses Dorais gained twenty yards on a spectacular play, but was thrown into the fence and forced to retire from the game. Ambrose went in for Dorais. Glockson went in for Dennison.

Glockson kicked to J. Nesser and it was the Panhandles' ball. Glockson stopped the first two Buckeye advances. Chambers intercepted a pass as the half ended.

Second Half.

During this half neither team had much of a chance to score. The Friars were weakened with injuries and were not let lose for a sensational run, but playing the game safe. Even now the heavy Panhandles could not gain. Fred Nesser kicked off. The Friars could not gain and Glockson kicked to J. Nesser. Several passes were broken up and Fred Nesser punted to Specht. Specht made a ten-yard gain. Several passes failed and Glockson punted to J. Nesser. Berghoff intercepted Ted Nesser's pass and returned ten yards. The Panhandle line held and the Friars lost the ball by a few inches. The Friar line held and Fred Nesser punted to Specht. After a few short gains Specht punted. Nesser's passes went wild and Gulke punted to Ambrose. The Friars could not gain and Glockson punted to the Panhandle thirty-yard line. Smith went in for Pliska and received Nesser's punt. Glockson kicked to mid-field. A pass from Gulke to Fred Nesser made fifteen yards. Young went in for Chambers and intercepted Nesser's pass. Smith, Specht and Young made eighteen yards on three plays. Specht failed for the first time on making a gain and Huntington went in for him. Young again intercepted Nesser's pass, but Ted Nesser got it right back by intercepting Ambrose's pass. Berghoff kept it up by nabbing the next pass. Both teams were passing wildly.

Glockson punted to J. Nesser. The Panhandles made their biggest gain when Ted Nesser broke through the line for thirty yards. His slowness kept him from making a touchdown for with a clear field before him Smith ran him down and made the tackle. The Panhandles lost it right back by being penalized twenty-five yards for dirty playing. The game ended with the ball in their possession. Score: Friars, 13; Columbus, 0.

AFTER THE GAME.

Three straight wins for the Friars and they are looking better all the time. Wabash and Hammond will furnish the next two victims.

It will sure be tough to start a game without the old reliable Al Feeney in the line-up.

Specht has established a record this season for hard work. No back field man ever had a bigger stock of work, fight and "pep" than has he. With only a few regulars in the line Sunday he kept them fighting all the way and when others could not gain the ball went to Specht and the gain was made. His efforts at keeping Bashaw fighting, when he was nearly out, had such an effect that Bashaw stopped everything that came his way.

Glockson was greeted with a warm reception as he went in for Dennison. The big boy is welcome on the Friar lot. He played a nice game, although the wind stopped his puting power.

Ted Nesser, Panhandle fullback, is not as young as he was once, and his playing caused amusement on several occasions. He is a fighter though, and kept going all the way.

Rockne played another star game at end and had the same ability to catch a pass as he had last Sunday. Elward and Rockne are one and the same, but his real name was withheld last Sunday.

Pliska has been having a string of hard luck the last two games. He has failed to catch several passes by a few inches which would have resulted in touchdowns if he could have got them.

Ambrose made several attempts to could not make it. "Am" has made a record at this kind of play.

Smith played a hard game during the last quarter and if he was thirty pounds heavier would have few equals at his position.

Young has learned a number of new tricks this season and has them all going at fullback. He has learned to follow the ball so closely that it is no unusual occurrence to see "Bull" recover a fumble or intercept a pass. He hits the line with twice as much steam as last season.

The Panhandles did not look as dangerous as on their two previous visits to the local field.

And now our old rivals, Wabash, will be here next Sunday. The hardest and best game of the season will no doubt be waged, as the Wabash team has always proven to be a dangerous bunch to the Friars.

WABASH TICKETS TUESDAY.

Tickets for the Wabash game next Sunday will go on sale early Tuesday morning at the Wayne and Calhoun streets store of the Meyer Drug company, where all reservations will be made, including those from out of town. If, however, any requests for tickets accompanied by remittances are received through the mails in the meantime, they will be given prompt attention by the management.

SUPER-BACKFIELD MEN MAKE THE UNBEATABLE GEORGIA TECH ELEVEN WONDER TEAM OF COUNTRY

Vanderbilt university has always been looked upon as about the toughest football nut to crack in the south, year in, year out.

The teams of the Tennessee school have always been placed on a pedestal similar to that occupied by Yale and Harvard in the east and Chicago and Minnesota in the west.

This rating is no doubt just. Vanderbilt has won the southern title more times than any other member of the conference. On several occasions the Vanderbilt warriors have come north and always have given a good account of themselves.

All of which leads up to the case in point—the victorious season of Georgia Tech, the wonder team of America.

It is not for us to say that Georgia Tech has the greatest team in the country. Pittsburg or Ohio State both have great teams and the issue will never be satisfactorily settled.

But a team that can beat Vanderbilt 83 to 0 is far out of the ordinary—and deserves the name "the wonder team."

The rest of the team is not much inferior to these stars and working under the leadership of J. W. Heisman has developed into one of the most feared scoring machines of the decade.

Clabbys, However, Are Outclassed in the First Three Quarters.

Wabash, Ind., Nov. 19.—Outclassed in the first three quarters of the game, Hammond by a concerted spurt in the last quarter shoved Holstrom across the goal for the only touchdown and for the second time this year defeated Wabash. The count was 7 to 0. Captain Blocker of the visitors, participated in almost every play, but his prowess hardly equalled that of Captain Miller, of the locals, who hit the Hammond line for big gains. Allen's tackling, Reno's fast footwork, and heavy line smashing of Falcon, formerly of Evanston, gave Wabash the best of it in the three periods. The lineups:

HAMMOND.	Pos.	WABASH.
Kole	L. E.	Gurtner
Whitlock	L. T.	Yount
Sulliger	L. G.	Schneider-McMurray
F. Blocker	Center	Tibbs

Henderson	L. H.	Allen
Holstom	R. H.	Adams

ALBION HIGH DEFEATS THE CHURUBUSCO TEAM

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Albion, Ind., Nov. 19.—Albion high school basketball team in a heated engagement with the Churubusco team at the opera house Friday evening completely routed the visitors and scored a satisfactory victory, which atones for the drubbing administered our boys in the first struggle for supremacy at Churubusco. The attendance was good and cheers were long and loud when victory became assured.

G. E. JUNIORS WIN.

In a good game at the Cathedral gym Saturday afternoon the G. E. Juniors triumphed over the St. Mary's high school team by the score of 20 to 10. Excellent guarding and fast work on the floor featured the play on both sides. The lineups and scores:

Suber	F.	Ball
Horstman	F.	Moses
Fox	C.	Zurbuch
Causephoie	G.	Jauch
Passino	G.	Woehnkor

PROSPECTS DIMMED.

Minneapolis, Nov. 17.—Prospects of a repetition of last year's success when Minnesota tied with Illinois for the Western Conference basketball championship, are somewhat dimmed owing to the lack of veterans and promising material this season.

Captain Douglas and "Pudge" Wyman are in military service, Stadsvold has graduated and all members of last year's second team either have graduated or are ineligible. Thus L. J. Cooke, coach, is facing a difficult problem.

Captain Gillen and Kingsley are the only veterans who are expected to answer the first call, but the Gopher coach hopes to complete the quintet with Arntson, Hauser and Schroeder or Eklund, all football men.

DEFIANCE DEFEATED.

TIGERS DEFEAT THE OVERLAND SPECIALS

In the preliminary game at League park Sunday afternoon the Tigers defeated the Overlands in a fast and hard-fought game by the close score of 7 to 0. It was not until the third period that a touchdown was made and this was done by means of a twenty-yard forward pass. The lineup of the two teams was as follows:

OVERLANDS.	Pos.	TIGERS.
Martin	L. E.	Bruner
E. Martin	L. T.	Burlage
Holstine	L. G.	Millhouse
Magers	Center	Murphy

NOT CUSTER TEAM THAT PLAYED HERE.

Elsewhere on this page appears a story by wire telling of the defeat of Camp Custer by Pine Village. It was not, however, the Camp Custer team that opened the season here with a win over the Friars. The team which played Pine Village Sunday was an eleven representing Company C, 329th machine gun battalion.

"TOMMY" ATKINS SET FOR GO WITH EMMETT

Tommy Atkins, the classy little local battler, is training hard and faithfully for his coming fight November 30 with "Frankie" Emmett at Indianapolis. At their former meeting Atkins lost on a decision but is full of confidence now and counts on an easy victory. In his training at the Lucky Athletic club, 120 East Wayne street, he has shown that he has developed a punch. This is what he lacked in the previous fight.

The bout at the capital city is a ten round go, but Atkins don't think it will go over six, for he intends to jump right after Emmett on the start and stop it as soon as he can. From the steam and punch he has been showing in his training his words are not mere idle remarks. The addition of the punch to his stock of ring tactics has given Atkins a world of confidence and his comeback is sure to stick.

PINE VILLAGE TEAM BEATS CAMP CUSTER

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 19.—Pine Village played in improved form yesterday and defeated the Camp Custer soldier eleven 2 to 0. King, the great Harvard player, made two touchdowns and was in every play. Bacon and Fenter also made touchdowns. The game was a fast one and the soldier boys played strong at times. The Custer team was outweighed twenty pounds to the man and Harry Costello, Custer quarterback, played a dashing game. Thompson and Miller also played good defensive ball.

WILL FLY SERVICE FLAG.

Chicago, Nov. 17.—A "service flag" will fly in every park in the American league next season, if a suggestion made to B. B. Johnson, president of the league, is carried out. Mr. Johnson has taken the plan under consideration.

It has been suggested that the flags be uniform and show the total number of ball players who have left the league to join the forces of Uncle Sam. Some of the clubs may display a second "service" flag to show how many of its members have joined the army or navy. To date several ball players have been called to the colors; some have entered officers' reserve training camps, and others are expecting a call in the next drawing for the national army.

OAKWOODS ARE WINNERS.

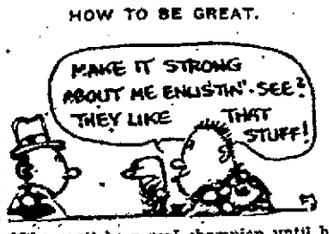
The Oakwood basketball team opened its season at the Smart gymnasium by defeating the Internationals by the score of 30 to 10.

SPORT CHATTER

THE PEST.

He sits behind you at the game
His chatter always is the same
There's old Ty Cobb, why him and me
Is buddies, close as we can be.
I knowed him when he was a kid.
I used to strike him out, I did.
And Grover Cleveland Alexander
I used to get up his dander;
He pitched 'em slow, he pitched 'em hot.
I knocked 'em all outside the lot.
I know 'em all, they're friends of mine.
We'll go and meet 'em all sometime."

HOW TO BE GREAT.



Mike can't be a real champion until he press agents that he is going to enlist and then doesn't.

St. Paul has at last corralled the middleweight championship, but it's a safe bet that Mike Gibbons doesn't feel any better about it.

100 IS NEARER.

It takes ten years to build a championship ball club according to Charlie Comiskey. Garry Herrmann probably doesn't agree with him.

Wrinkles Disappear "As If By Magic"

"In the removal of wrinkles, I have discarded cosmetics entirely," writes Mme. Corsan, the celebrated beauty expert. "The results they produce are deceptive and never permanent. Massaging is only partially successful and it is too slow a method.

"I've never seen anything work such wonders as a simple, harmless solution any woman can prepare and use at home without the least trouble. A half pint of witch hazel and an ounce of good powdered saxolite are all you'll need. Mix the two and apply this refreshing solution to your face daily. The effect is marvelous—instantaneous. The skin becomes firmer, 'tighter'—every wrinkle and sag is affected. You feel so refreshed after using the wash; you look refreshed, too; soon you will look ten years younger."

HIBERNIANS TO HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICE

An entertainment under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will be held at 8 o'clock Friday evening in commemoration of the anniversary of the Manchester martyrs, Allen, Larkin and O'Brien. Claude G. Bowers will make the keynote address and in addition a musical program will be given. All members of the A. O. H. and friends are invited to attend. There will be no admission charged.

HOLIDAY SHOPPERS FROM OUT OF TOWN

Many During Past Week, Especially on Wednesday and Saturday.

The past week witnessed unusual activity in the retail stores, which report exceptionally large movements of holiday goods. Many of these were purchased by out-of-town shoppers, who came on the regular Saturday visit, but a great portion of the business was transacted on Wednesday, the new mid-week Suburban shopping day. Large numbers of people from the counties of northwestern Ohio were here on Wednesday. This portion of Ohio has always considered Fort Wayne as its logical trade center.

Many who are now making a regular trip to Fort Wayne on Wednesday of each week could not have done so in the years gone by for the reason that the automobile and the interurban car have revolutionized the lives of the people in the rural districts and the smaller towns. So, although many continue to visit Fort Wayne on Saturday as regularly as ever, they find it convenient and agreeable to make a visit to the city on the now popular Suburban shopping day in the mid-week.

Preparations for this week Wednesday's trade specials are completed and The Sentinel of tomorrow will contain the announcements of many splendid, money-saving items.

A. H. Hans, successor to Fred Kreibaum, wall paper and paint store, is now on the corner of Barr and Wayne. Phone 717.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN CHICAGO

Mrs. Mary Dalman Passes Away After an Illness of Four Years.

Mrs. Mary Dalman, age 70, a former resident of Fort Wayne, died Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Agnes Staugh, in Chicago, after a four years' illness, due to heart trouble. Surviving are the following children: Mrs. Mattie Gray, Elkhart George Dalman, living on the family farm at Shipshewana, Ind.; Mrs. Agnes Staugh, of Chicago, and E. W. Dalman, of Fort Wayne. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Irvin Koontz, Mrs. L. Dolan and Mrs. Andrew Miller, of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Lizzie Bradbury, south of the city; Mrs. Amelia Mills, west of Fort Wayne, and Mrs. Lydia Lehman, of Roanoke.

The deceased was born in Fort Wayne seventy years ago, when it was just a small village and moved to the family home in Shipshewana forty years ago.

The body will be sent to her late home in Shipshewana for burial. The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon from the First M. E. church of that place. Interment in the Davis cemetery, beside the grave of her husband.

SPORT JOTTINGS.

Indiana turned an unexpected trick on Depauw and piled up a 35 to 0 score on the Methodists. After the previous showing of the Greencastle team, especially holding Purdue to a 7 to 6 win, Indiana's overwhelming victory was a surprise. The state athletes used only straight football but the plunges of Howard and Cravens proved to be too much for Depauw.

Purdue had a harder time with Wabash than was expected and only piled up a 28 to 0 score. On the basis of comparative scores Indiana is made the big favorites over the boilermakers in their annual clash next Saturday.

Ohio State again won the conference championship by defeating Illinois in the championship struggle. It was another case of too much Harley Michigan and Chicago, the two other undefeated conference teams, went down in surprise defeats.

The first real setback for the West came in Michigan's defeat Saturday. The warriors of Yost had been making such a wonderful showing all season that they were expected to have an easy time Saturday. Alas! The worm will turn.

Minnesota pulled that expected surprise and reversal of form that was anticipated and romped all over Chicago.

"Of all the sad words of tongue or pen, The saddest are these, the 'Aggies' lost again."

* * *

Notre Dame marched through the Michigan farmers for an easy victory. The "Aggies" have been represented with so many good teams that their showing this season has been a bitter disappointment.

* * *

"We were privileged" to announce, exclusively, last Saturday, that the Friars had signed to play Hammond on December 2. Where have we heard those words before?

RETAINS GOLD MEDAL.

In a three-game match at the Olympic alleys George Schellhammer, holder of the Kirkhoff gold medal, successfully defended his right to its retention against E. A. Molitor, the challenger. Clarence Kinder is the next in line to roll for the trophy. The scores:

Schellhammer	174	182	150	515
Molitor	166	169	155	490

Pianos for Christmas

--It is hardly possible that Christmas is only about six weeks off.

Now is the time to select your instrument.

"Yes, It's a Steinway"

Never in the history of Fort Wayne was shown such a wonderful line of fine Pianos, Players and Grands of all sizes and different woods than at the present time at the JACOBS MUSIC HOUSE.

Choice examples for our Holiday displays in all the new finishes have arrived from Steinway & Sons, Kranich & Bach, Sohmer, A. B. Chase, Krakauer, Lyon & Healy, Shoninger, Brinkerhoff, and other factories.

We like you to hear the most wonderful, most natural reproducing Player-Piano, the Melville Clark Solo Art-Apollo that renders an exact re-creation of hand playing of all the great Masters, whenever you desire.

Next in line we have the Welte Mignon and Dina Chord reproducing Pianos of national reputation, both are electrically driven; these Players can be had in any make Piano desired.

In foot power players we have the Kranich & Bach, Apollo Krakauer, Air Oplayer (all metal action), Schieffer, Brinkerhoff, Washburn, Smith & Barnes, Strohber, and others, which gives you an assortment for comparison not equaled anywhere in the state.

Compare Our Prices

Pianos and Players have advanced within the past year from ten to twenty per cent, knowing this advance would come we bought enough instruments to supply our trade until after New Years, giving you the advantage of the old price, and as a special inducement a reduction from now until Christmas of from ten to twenty per cent. This will make a saving of from $100 to $200 on a Piano or Player.

Terms most reasonable—LIBERTY BONDS TAKEN AS PART PAYMENT on Pianos and Players SAME AS CASH.

In connection with our Piano and Player department we have the only exclusive ground floor Phonograph room in the city where we carry a full line of Columbia Grafonolas, and the world's best Phonograph, the AEOLEAN-VOCALION the Phonograph that is different. It must be heard to be appreciated. Don't buy any Phonograph until you have heard the AEOLIAN-VOCALION.

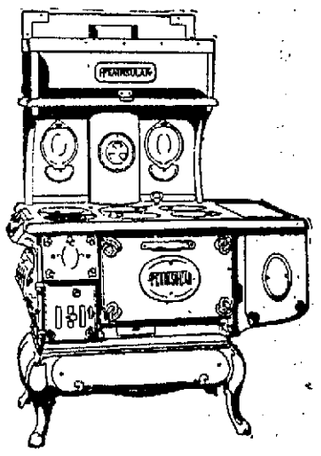
Peninsular Base Burners and Kitchen Ranges



THESE justly famous Stoves need no introduction to housewives the country over, nor do their many exclusive merits need restatement except to urge you to make your selection now, while our stock is most complete and you have the time before sudden cold weather sets in and catches you unprepared. In buying a Peninsular you save money on the initial cost and more money for years to come by fuel economy only possible with the scientifically built Peninsular. Investigate at once.

Peninsular Base Burners Cut Fuel Bills

Peninsular base burners are not just stoves for heating purposes like so many heating stoves of inferior quality. The Peninsular is built upon a plan and method of scientific heat producing qualities from the least amount of fuel and with the least care and attention. Every door, draught, flue, etc., etc., has a purpose to perform in the general scheme of fuel economy productive of the greatest amount of heat. That is why Peninsular base burners HAVE BEEN PROVEN to give more heat from less coal than any other base burner made. Not only are Peninsulars the stoves to save money, but they are attractively built and elegantly finished. Do not fail to investigate the Peninsular before you buy a heating stove.

Peninsular Combination Gas and Coal Range

The same scientific principles of fuel economy and convenience are carried out in Peninsular ranges as have been developed in the base burners. This combination range burns both coal and gas and will furnish you with better baking, cooking and kitchen heating with less fuel than any other range on the market. With it you can cook and heat with the same fuel during cold weather, and during the summer use the gas burners while having the advantage of all the features of sanitation and convenience of the entire range. This is the same one that made such a hit during our recent practical cooking demonstration. Come in and see it. You will find it just the one you contemplated buying and embodying more desirable exclusive features than any other range ever shown you, no matter what the price.

AT THE MAJESTIC

HOWE'S TRAVELS.

Whether or not one cares for the movies as represented by the dramatic variety, everybody does care for Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival because of its distinction, dignity and difference from posed films. Mr. Howe's exhibition which comes to the Majestic theater on Tuesday and Wednesday, can always be depended upon to broaden one's mental outlook, but his new production promises to do so in a peculiarly vital and timely way. For it conducts spectators aboard our super-dreadnoughts, stripped for action "somewhere in the Atlantic," and so gives every spectator a new and fresh conception of the activities, discipline and maneuvers of our "Sentinels of the deep" under the stress of war. The films radiate the atmosphere of grim realties, not of pomp or pageantry, and every foot teems with vital interest to every true American. Then, too, the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis, Maryland, contributes many stirring scenes from the strenuous and varied training given the splendid corps of "middies." Their tactical exercises are of absorbing interest.

Another feature breathes the spirit and life of our great west as it has never been depicted before. It shows the many tense moments and hair-raising episodes occurring during real bronco-breaking contests. It reveals what the west considers rough-riding as compared with the comparatively tame sort seen in the effete east. There are many other subjects such as the perils of climbing Mt. Blanc, the highest mountain in the Alps, a ride over the Continental Divide via the Great Northern railway, etc., that make Howe's new program an exceptionally rich treasure trove of scenes calculated to give mind and heart, as Carlyle puts it, "a real stir-up."

A super-de-luxe photoplay from the stirring, red-blooded story by Larry Evans which created a sensation in the Saturday Evening Post under the title of "The Painted Lady." Virile and full of grit and determination is Farnum in his role of the fighting man who gets what he goes after. It is greater than "The Conqueror."

AT THE PALACE

"PARADISE VALLEY."

Musical Comedetta Success at New Palace.

With tuneful songs, an interesting plot, clever principals and a bevy of pretty girls, "Paradise Valley," the musical comedetta at the New Palace for the first half of the week, is scoring an unquestioned success. The attraction is new from start to finish and is staged as only Boyle Woolfolk productions are presented.

The most popular song on the streets today is "She's Just a Little Angel," the air of which runs like a theme through the play. Following its singing by the company here yesterday it immediately got onto the streets until today every newsie on the corners is whistling it. There are other good numbers, too, "Nosey Moon" and "I'd Like to Be Called Dearie," being the most popular.

William B. Morris and Grace Thurston, two of the cleverest artists now playing in tabloid musical comedies, have the leading parts and their work in "Paradise Valley" is of the same calibre as when they created a sensation in "Whose Little Girl Are You?" With these two there are seven other principals and a chorus that is a real chorus. The girls can sing and dance, and when they are not doing either the audience is satisfied just to look at them.

As an added attraction for the first half of the week there is a tiptop musical act staged by the clever banjo entertainers, Billy Kimball and Betty Kenneth. These two are more than musical entertainers for their comedy is of a variety to make their act a riot.

Introduce Some Sweetness Into 'Home, Sweet Home'

Home is the best place in the world. No matter what your worries and cares may be, home is the shrine of the highest and noblest principles in life.

PACKARD PIANOS

give to your home one additional quality that is required to make home more homelike—more inviting.

By the year, the Packard costs the least! Their maintenance during a lifetime is not much more than the cost of the average motor car during a single month.

We invite you to call and inspect—and test the Packard.

We ask you to come prepared to be just as critical as you can possibly be in your examination of these instruments. You will understand—after that visit—why the Packard will bring more beauty and harmony and satisfaction into your home.

Why not arrange to call very soon? Bring some other member of the family or a friend.

LIBERTY GARDENS HIGH CLASS COMMUNITY

It is very evident that many people form obvious opinions about garden tracts without ever seeing them and consequently lose many very good opportunities. Liberty Gardens, with paved streets, high pressure gas line, new school, gravel streets, interurban close by, are advantages that make this addition exceptionally fine. The newest development being that of securing a grocery which will be erected early next spring.

Liberty Gardens is the third suburban addition placed before the public this year by C. C. Rastetter, realtor, and the first and only suburban addition to be welcomed with a grocery store, as well as gas for light and heat. These are two very important assets to anyone living outside the city or event in the city.

Beauty.

There is an old saying that beauty is only skin deep, but that is far from the truth. Beauty is founded on good health—without that there is no real beauty. You can cover up a muddy or sallow complexion with face powder, but it will not be beautiful. A homely woman in good health is usually more interesting and charming than a billous dyspeptic beauty. Constipation and a sluggish liver impair good looks. If you are troubled in this way take Chamberlain's Tablets and you will soon be looking better and feeling better.—Advertisement.

ther increases he gave notice that application will be made by eastern carriers for permission to file tariff making such additional increases.

Dominant difficulties of the carriers, outlined by Mr. Patterson, were: "Continuous decline in net operating income, accompanied by steadily mounting operating costs; marked shortage in the labor supply available for railroad work existence of deferred maintenance when heavy wartime traffic requires the highest standard possible, and inability to raise new capital by issuance of stock, with a resultant impairment of the carriers' credit.

"As the carriers are called upon," said Mr. Patterson, "to meet competition of labor with industries whose prices are regulated or unregulated, or to meet competition of labor with the government itself, the available supply of labor will decrease and its price will rise. And unless the government is prepared not only to conscript labor for the railroads, but also to limit its wage, we must assume that the present cost of labor, measured by wage and efficiency, will not decrease."

Vast Increase of Coal Bills.

Coal bills of the eastern railroads, he said, had been increased by millions, and many roads were buying it for less than the price fixed by the government. This and the exceptional rise in the cost of materials were making it increasingly difficult for the railroads to provide maintenance and up-keep.

He estimated that in 1917 the eastern roads will show a loss of $81,000,000 in net operating income, despite an increase of $161,000,000 in total operating revenues. This, he stated, would represent a return of 5.2 on investment, which is less, he said, than the amount the committee in 1914 found to be too small for public interest.

EIGHT-HOUR DAY FACTOR

"I cannot set an arbitrary rule of settlement for such strikes. And if I did, I could not enforce it. Conditions causing the strike must be considered and the settlement must hinge on co-operation of all the interested parties.

"We will do all we can to co-operate with the government. My sentiments in this matter are the same as those expressed by President Wilson when he spoke at the opening meeting of the federation."

ians have been driven from Monte Tomba, the war office announced today.

The announcement continues:

"Northeast of Asiago the enemy repeated his fruitless and costly attacks to gain the lost heights. Between the Brenta and the Piave the last few days have brought the (Teutonic) allies further successes in difficult mountain fighting."

DRIVE AUSTRIANS BACK.

Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy, Sunday, Nov. 18.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Austrians who forced their way across the Piave river above Zenson have been thrown into the river, drowned, bayonetted, killed or captured until now not an enemy remains on the west bank at that most threatened point. The fight was one of the most fearful chapters of the war and one of the most glorious.

Details of the fight have been gathered from eye witnesses who saw the fearful carnage through Friday night and yesterday and who stayed until the whole west bank was cleared except for the corpses on the shore and in the foreground.

Wounded Too Numerous to Care For.

The wounded were so numerous that many have not yet received succor. The enemy had staked everything on getting to the west bank of the river and the Italians staked everything on keeping him on the eastern bank This nerved both to desperation. The Austrians made the first move Friday in two separate crossings a short distance above Zenson, first at the village of Fagare and then at an old mill called the Sega mill, near Follina.

Several circumstances enabled the invaders to pass. They chose a place where a sand bar ran in mid-stream, giving them a landing and dividing the main stream into two small shallow currents. Also there was a heavy mist screening their movements. They carried material for an improvised bridge with uprights and with iron plates for floor.

Austrians Dash Across.

This was about five o'clock in the morning and in the mist at that early hour they got across the second narrow channel to the west bank. The last ten feet the men waded across in water above their waists. In their first surprise rush they swept past four Italian machine gun batteries, capturing the guns and driving the Italians back into the village of Fagare.

Here the real fight began as the Italians had now recovered from the surprise and they fought like demons. It was a hand to hand fight through the streets of the town with no place for artillery or machine guns, and the Italians using bayonets, hand grenades, knives and gelatine torpedoes.

The Austrians held part of the town near the bank with the Italians on the land side. The Austrians tried to throw a line around the town and succeeded in part on one side until the Italian batteries to the north got the range of the line outside the shelter of the streets.

Italians Hew Their Way.

This line was the first to be demolished and then the Italians on this side of the town advanced, cheering, hewing their way.

The enemy held at first, then began to seek cover and finally broke as the Italians pushed into the town back to the river.

Some plunged into the water and sought to get to the sandbar. All the machine guns were abandoned. Most of the enemy fell along the water's edge and an observer who saw the gruesome sight says the bodies on the river bank and in the water reminded him of heaps of seaweed after the tide had gone out.

Further up the river at Sega mill, the other crossing, had brought on another bloody fight which lasted until late yesterday when the whole shore was cleared of living Austrians. But it was lined with dead.

The movement here began late on Friday night and reached its culmination about 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

Friday night several Austrian battalions got across under the cover of darkness. They chose narrow channels and some of the Austrian officers rode across on horseback. They took a position near the town cemetery and opened on the Italians during the night with machine guns. The Austrians carried two searchlights which they played on the Italian position, while the Italians were without searchlights. It was only by the flashes of the Austrian machine guns that the Italians could direct their fire.

For Native Land.

At daylight yesterday the enemy still held his position at the cemetery. The situation began to look serious and for a time it appeared as though the Italians would have to fall back. But now the famous Bersaglieri brigade was brought up fresh after its heroic rear guard defense of the main army as it retired on the field.

Some of the other troops were from nearby towns and they were stirred to a last desperate effort to save their homes.

The Italians charged shortly after dawn, their lines moving straight up the hill to the cemetery. Against machine gun fire and guns on the bank, the Italians moved on with bayonets, grenades and torpedoes. It was one of those charges inspired by love of home and country which will live always, and it was irresistible.

The enemy wavered and broke just as the Italian artillery on a nearby height got the range of the cemetery. But the main fighting was hand to hand with the enemy being pressed back steadily to the river where they were cut down, drowned, bayonetted or captured. By ten o'clock yesterday all had been swept away except a few straggling groups; by noon not one of the enemy's force was left on the western bank.

Austrian Losses Heavy.

In addition to some 1,500 killed the enemy lost 1,500 prisoners, including two colonels and some thirty officers. All the Austrian machine guns were captured and are now being used by the Italians

The fury of the fighting is shown by the fact that the old Sega mill on the river's brink was taken and retaken six times during the ebb and flow. The mill is full of bullet holes but shows no evidence of shell fire, indicating that the fighting was entirely at close quarters.

Italian stretcher bearers did noble service yesterday after noon in caring for the great number of Austrian wounded who lay along the shore. Two of these stretcher bearers waded out to the sand bank in mid-stream where several seriously wounded Austrians had dragged themselves. They were brought back and cared for carefully by the Italian hospital corps. One of these Austrians was wounded seriously and he was supported between two Italian soldiers on the way to the receiving station. The Italians recovered their dead, some of them at the water's edge. One gunner was found hanging lifeless over his machine gun.

Only Germans will be affected by the proclamation as it specifies "enemies" and not "allies of enemies."

Text of the Order.

The proclamation orders registration as follows:

"All alien enemies are hereby required to register at such times and places and in such manner as may be fixed by the attorney general of the United States and the attorney general is hereby authorized and directed to provide as speedily as may be practicable for registration of all alien enemies and for the issuance of registration cards to alien enemies and to make and declare such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary for effecting such registration.

"All alien enemies and all other persons are hereby required to comply with such rules and regulations; and the attorney general in carrying out such regulation is hereby authorized to utilize such agents, agencies, officers and departments of the United States and of the several states, territories, dependencies and municipalities thereof and of the District of Columbia as he may select for the purpose and all such agents, agencies, officers and departments are hereby granted full authority for all acts done by them in the execution of this registration when acting by the direction of the attorney general, and after the date fixed by the attorney general for such registration no enemy alien shall be found within the limits of the United States, its territories or possessions without having his registration card on his person."

Restriction of Traveling.

The restrictions were imposed on free traveling in the following section:

"An alien enemy shall not change his place of abode or occupation or otherwise travel or move from place to place without full compliance of any such regulations as the attorney general of the United States may from time to time make and declare and the attorney general is hereby authorized to make and declare from time to time such regulations concerning the movements of alien enemies as he may deem necessary in the premises and for the public safety and to provide such registrations for monthly, weekly or other periodical report of alien enemies to federal, state or local authorities; and all alien enemies shall report at the times and places and to the authorities specified in such regulations."

SUMMARY OF THE DAY'S WAR NEWS

British and Germans carried out raids. French artillery has been shelling heavily the German positions south of the town for several days and a thrust by French troops, evidently as feeler, was repulsed by the defenders, Berlin reports.

Although the Teutonic pressure from Asiago to the Piave, continues very strong, the Italians hold valiantly to their positions and the invaders have been unable to make much progress. On the Asiago plateau the Italians repelled violent attacks and near Casera recaptured an advanced position, taking 100 prisoners. Between the Brenta and the Piave the invaders have occupied positions from which the Italians withdrew.

Austro-German efforts to force the Italians back from the western bank of the Piave, at Zenson and Fagare, have failed. The invading force which crossed at Fagare has been driven back across the river, while efforts to debouch from the Bridgehead at Zenson were repelled by Italian counter attacks. On the right bank of the Piave the Italians have been nearly 1,300 prisoners in two days.

Heavy masses of Austro-German troops are being thrown against the Italian lines between the Piave and the Brenta in an effort to drive a wedge between the Italian armies defending the Piave line and those to the west, in the Asiago region.

Comparatively rapid progress has been made in this operation within the last day or two and it is becoming clear that the main Austro-German effort is centered at present upon what is probably the most vulnerable point in the Italian defensive line.

Quero, on the upper Piave, about fifty miles from the coast, was taken by the invaders, who subsequently pushed the left flank of their line west of the river a considerable distance south along that bank.

Further west the massed offensive movement has carried the Teutons to Monte Tomba, some five miles southwest of Quero, and they are attacking the front between this eminence and the river with a force which the Italians are finding it hard to cope with, despite their most desperate efforts. Should the Austro-German thrust be carried much further here the entire upper Piave line, from a point near Conetglino, approximately thirty-five miles from the Adriatic, will be in Teutonic possession and it is difficult to see how the Italians in this case will be able to continue their hold on the southerly stretches of the river which at present they are bravely and successfully defending.

In the eastern Trentino the Italians have begun a counter offensive on the Asiago plateau which has already netted them gains. It is not apparent as yet, however, that this movement is in sufficient strength to constitute any menace to the Austro-German operations further east.

Another army is reported marching on Petrograd to oust the Bolsheviki from control there. The vanguard, which is said to be near Gatchina, thirty miles southwest of the capital, already has had several brushes with the Bolsheviki forces. It is rumored that Premier Kerensky is returning with the new forces. All the reports lack confirmation. There apparently is internal dissension in Petrograd between the Maximalists and the less extreme socialists, who have protested against acts of the Bolsheviki regime.

A report received in London says there has been a split in the Bolsheviki ranks and that some of the ministers have resigned.

In Moscow the revolutionists and the provisional government forces have reached a truce after days of fighting in which several thousand persons were killed and some of Russia's religious shrines within the Kremlin were damaged or destroyed by the artillery of the Bolsheviki forces. The American embassy in Petrograd has asked for a special train to take 200 Americans to Harbin, Manchuria, whence they can reach either Dalny or Vladivostok to take steamers home.

Petrograd newspapers report Germany refusing to treat for peace with the present Bolsheviki government, Emperor William declaring he will negotiate only with the legitimate successor to the imperial government or with the constituent assembly. The extremists are now threatening to makea peace on their own account and to maintain a neutral statuts if the war continues after Nov. 23, which is reported to have been set as the time limit for replies from the belligerents on the Bolsheviki peace proposals.

Jaffa, the ancient Joppa, and the seaport on the Mediterranean for Jerusalem, has been occupied by the British. The Turks gave up this important point without resistance and are retiring northward under pressure. Jerusalem is thirty-five miles southeast of Jaffa, and its occupation by Gen. Allenby's troops probably is a matter of only a few days.

Premier Lloyd-George's recent utterances on the necessity for an allied war council will be debated in the house of commons today. The rBitish leader will defend his position and it is expected that his speech will clear up the threatened ministerial crisis.

Presiden tWilson, through Col. E. M. House, head of the American mission to the allied conference, declares that he considers unity of plan and action between the allies and America is essential in order to achieve a just and permanent peace.

In this connection the Volia Noroda says it has information that the soldiers' and workmen's government in the event of its failure to receive replies from the belligerents by Nov. 23 reserves the right to make peace on its own account, after which, if the war continues, Russia will occupy a neutral position.

AMERICANS ARE SAFE.

London, Nov. 19.—Robert P. Skinner, the American consul general, has received a telegram dated Saturday, from the American consul at Moscow, saying that he and other Americans in Moscow are all safe. The city was quiet at the time but there has been much fighting, the message said.

FRANCIS MAKES REPORT.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Ambassador Francis, at Petrograd, reported to the state department in a message dated last Friday and received today, that he had recommended that all unattached American women and American men accompanied by women and children leave the city. Arrangements have been made for them to travel on trans-Siberian railroad in two special coaches. The ambassador reported conditions in the Russian capital chaotic, but fairly quiet. There was no central head of government and the embassy dealt directly with the superintendent of passenger service of the railway in arranging for the removal of the Americans. The departments of government were either closed or being operated without their chiefs. Mr. Francis said he feared no damage to the embassy, but conditions were so unstable that he deemed it best to get the Americans out of the city, if possible. Information at the state department indicates there are in Petrograd about 200 Americans.

A report from Moscow sent by American Consul General Summers Saturday, said all Americans there were safe. The Maximalists there he reported had taken over the direction of the government after a week of hard fighting. Basing their opinion on the statement of Lenine that the success of the Bolsheviki was dependent on a world wide revolutionary movement by soldiers and workmen, officials at the Russian embassy today predicted that the followers of the Kerensky government would win either through a military victory or through the evident incapacity of the Bolsheviki to make good their promises to their followers. No late news has been received at the embassy but officials declare that the mention of Captain Pavloff as the commander of troops opposing the Bolsheviki was an encouraging sign. Captain Pavloff is said to be of the staff of the social democratic workmen's party and the opinion was expressed that this means that one of the strongest factions of the opposition had gone over to the moderates.

officials, based on the experience of foreign countries, that instead of adjustment of this single dispute a new agency should be created or the board of mediation or interstate commerce given authority to act.

Harrison's Statement.

Fairfax Harrison, chairman of the executive committee of the American Railway association, commonly known as the war board, wrote this letter to Judge William L. Chambers, chairman of the United States board of mediation and conciliation, who conferred with various railroad executives in New York Saturday, and with the board today:

"We confirm what we said to you this morning in reply to your inquiry as to what will be the attitude of the railroads with respect to the manner of settlement of any demand of increases in pay or change in working conditions which during the war may be made upon them by employes.

If you are to find that new position soon, you must advertise NOW.

Columbia City, Ind., Nov. 19.—Lieut. Ray P. Harrison has seen service in the first line trenches by this time. In a one page letter from him, received Saturday by his father, Attorney Joseph R. The latter was written October 27 and he was probably in that battalion which was attacked by German forces, who killed three Sammies, besides wounding and taking several prisoners. The lists of casualties of missing does not include the name of Lieut. Harrison, who passed his baptism of fire safely.

MAJOR THOMAS RYAN VISITS FORT WAYNE

Major Thomas F. Ryan, formerly in command of the Fort Wayne recruiting station of the United States army, arrived in Fort Wayne Sunday and spent several hours at his former office. Major Ryan expressed himself well pleased with the work of the local office, which is now in charge of Sergeant Arthur Turner.

In speaking of the past Major Ryan recalled the fact that while he was stationed here approximately 10,000 passed into the army throughout the local station, breaking the record of all recruiting districts in the United States.

WAR STOCKS SHOW RENEWED STRENGTH

New York, Nov. 19.—Equipments, notably those comprising the war divisions, were the strongest stocks at the opening of today's market. Advances of 1 to 2 points soon were registered by American and Baldwin locomotives, marine preferred, American smelting and industrial alcohol. United States steel, Bethlehem steel, General Electric and the motors were firm to strong. Liberty 4's recorded a full 2 per cent discount at the minimum of 98 and 3's meanwhile hardened from 99.64 to 99.

Rails were subjected to fresh pressure before the end of the first hour. A reversal of three-quarters of a point forced Pennsylvania to 46½, the lowest quotation in over twenty years. Steels, shippings, metals, motors and oils suffered temporarily setbacks, but hardened again in the apathetic second hour. Liberty 4's continued to sag to the low price of 97.66, but the 3½'s varied between 99.72 and 99.80.

LAST GAME FOR TUFTS.

Medford, Mass., Nov. 19.—Charles Whelan, Tufts college football coach, announced today that the victory over Dartmouth last Saturday marked the end of Tuft's season. The eleven had been scheduled to play the Boston Navy Yard team next Saturday.

HAY GOES TO $25 MARK ON MARKETS

Old Corn a Thing of the Past —But Little New Corn or Oats.

Hay reached the $25 mark at the city scales Monday morning. Twenty-two loads came to the market but fourteen loads were baled and were sent to the army training camps. The price ranged from $24 to $25 a ton. Old corn was again on the absent list and none was received at the scales. It is believed that all of the old corn is gone. New corn was only represented by two loads and there brought $1 a bushel. Two loads of oats brought a good price of 62 cents a bushel.

Old oats and corn are scarce on the markets now but large amounts of new corn are expected to arrive this week. Hay is still coming in in large amounts, but much of it is baled and is shipped out to the army training camps and cantonments.

OFFICER TO TELL OF EXPERIENCES AT FRONT

The members of the Elks' lodge have a real treat in store for them Thursday night when Sergeant John T. Flahiff, of the Canadian expeditionary forces, will tell of his experiences in the trenches while "over there." A banquet at 6:30 will precede the officer's talk.

Sergeant Flahiff comes to fill the vacancy caused when Sergeant McGibney, of the French ambulance company, had to go into training camp. The Canadian officer has served in the celebrated Princess "Pat" regiment, and has been in many charges and knows the fullest meaning of the term "over the top." His talk will be very interesting and full of information.

The Thanksgiving number of the Antler also announces the program for memorial services to be given on Dec. 2 in honor of the seventeen deceased members:

TEUTONS AT GATES OF VENICE

Austro-German forces have advanced to within nine miles of Venice, having pushed across the Piave river to Piava Vecchia, and farther west in the Trentino district German troops have thrust back the Italian defenders in the Sugana valley, defeating Italians at Primolano. A Teuton drive through Bassano and Cittadella (indicated on the map by arrows) would place them in the rear of General Cadorna's line. Teutons then would face the Italians on the west north and east.

IN THE Y. M. C. A. HUTS AT CAMP ZACH TAYLOR

Young Soldiers Appreciate Comforts and Conveniences They Offer.

Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., Nov. 19. The Y. M. C. A. is an important factor in the uplift of the thirty odd thousand select men from Indiana, Kentucky and Southern Illinois in training here for service overseas, as indicated by statistics gathered in the course of a drive for funds to support its activities.

Seventeen thousand four hundred and forty-four of the soldiers in one twenty-day period attended meetings at seven Y. M. C. A. buildings within the cantonment, according to the figures. In the same period twenty-seven bible classes were formed with an attendance of 1,444, two hundred and fifty-two educational classes were attended by 3,777 men in khaki and 1,031 books were distributed from the library.

In the Y. M. C. A. buildings, moreover, in the same twenty-day period, 214,218 letters were written, 4,747 parcel post packages were sent out and arrangements were made to handle $15,706.61 in postal money orders.

But the most intimate glimpse of the men in the relation to the Y. M. C. A. comes in the evening.

The men have had their supper. An unbroken stream is pouring into the doors of the various buildings. Behind the counters a group of secretaries are busy handling out letter paper, envelopes, selling stamps, issuing magazines and books, and serving the men in other ways.

In a few moments the long tables which extend the length of the building on both sides and through the middle and in both wings of the building are crowded with men, writing letters. Various other activities are meanwhile going on in other parts of the building.

Yonder is a group around a pair of huskies who with boxing gloves, are pummelling each other in a wholehearted fashion that brings yells of approval from the ring of spectators. One of these bouts may be succeeded by another and then another, a half hour or more being consumed in this manner.

Then a secretary appears with the news that a moving picture show is about to be put on and there is a rush for the auditorium, which is 120 feet long and 40 feet wide. It is always crowded when a film is shown and the soldiers are as appreciative as children. The films are of varied sorts with comedy productions dominating. They are all of the highest type of their kind.

Sometimes instead of the moving picture shows there are educational addresses; a lecture on the art of war, on the history of France, the principles for which America is fighting, or a lecture on diseases and their prevention.

Three evenings in each week there is a religious meeting at each Y. M. C. A. building. Sobered by the conditions under which they find themselves, the men show a disposition to concern themselves with religious matters more seriously than is usual to young men in such glowing good health under other circumstances.

ENTERTAINED AND ROBBED HE CHARGES

Bert Taylor Accuses His Cousin, Ralph Taylor, of Cash Theft.

Ralph Taylor, arrested Saturday afternoon on a charge of robbery, will come in for a heavy sentence because of his past record, is proved guilty this time. The young man was arrested by Sergeant Immel upon complaint of his cousin, Bert Taylor. In his complaint the cousin states that Ralph Taylor and James Coverdale entertained him a part of Friday evening and then taking him to Coverdale's room robbed him of $41. Taylor's past record shows three arrests, one on a drunk charge, another for assault and battery and a third in 1914 for a statutory offense. Upon the plea of his attorney Taylor had his case continued until Tuesday. Coverdale was ordered held as a witness.

Break Up Beer Party.

A Sunday beer party conducted weekly by a crowd of boys in a barn on McCulloch street was broken up Sunday morning by the police department. The participants, ranging from the ages of 18 to 20 years, were taken to the station but later released. Four cases of beer were also taken to the station, but so far they have not been disposed of.

Take Two Weeks' Wages.

Aaron Forkes, an employe of the rolling mills, was held up and robbed of two weeks' wages—$45—Saturday evening by three men near the Taylor street bridge. Sheriff Gillie is working on the case but so far has been unable to apprehend the thieves.

Chicken Financier.

August Eix denies that he is a chicken thief, stating that all the poultry found in his rooms was bought at a greatly reduced price on the city market. Prosecutor Hoffman grew anxious to locate the cut-rate stand, desiring to do business, but Eix could vouch no further information save that the seller had a red beard. Eix was arrested on a charge filed by Heiney's grocery, when it was found that some of their chickens were missing from a back yard coop. Eix was seen in the alley in back of the grocery store with several chickens in a gunny sack a short time previous. Judge Kerr continued the case in order to obtain more evidence.

Arrest Crap Shooters.

Sergeant Blum and Officer Beyerle raided a gambling joint on Lafayette street near Lewis street, and found three negro boys engaged in a game of "craps." All were charged with gambling in police court Monday morning, but were granted a continuance on the plea of their attorney.

A Sure Proof.

Cora Harting, arrested Sunday on a drunk charge, had a sure proof in her estimation as to her sober condition. When asked if she was drunk she stated: "No; I know I wasn't because I asked a friend to pump a bucket of water for he." Judge Kerr decided that her evidence was overbalanced by the officer and a daughter-in-law, who both testified as to her condition, and assessed a fine of $1 and costs. Mack Cane, an old offender, was given $20 and costs, to be served on public roads.

Other Cases.

The cases of Joseph Lippet, charged with loitering; Lawrence Gill, charged with being drunk, and Simon Lantz, charged with assault and battery, were dismissed.

HOW I TOOK MY WRINKLES OUT

After Facial Massage, Creams and Beauty Doctors Had Failed.

By Winifred Grace Forrest.

Trouble, worry and ill health brought me deep lines and wrinkles. I realized that they not only greatly marred my appearance and made me look much older, but that they would greatly interfere with my success because a woman's success, either socially or financially, depends very largely on her appearance. The homely woman, with deep lines and furrows in her face, must fight an unequal battle with her younger and better looking sister. I therefore, bought various brands of cold creams and skin foods and massaged my face with most constant regularity, hoping to regain my former appearance. But the wrinkles simply would not go. On the contrary they seemed to get deeper. Next I went to a Beauty Specialist who told me she could easily rid me of my wrinkles. I paid my money and took the treatment. Sometimes I thought they got less, but after spending all the money I could afford for such treatment I found I still had my wrinkles. So I gave up in despair and concluded I must carry them to my grave. One day a friend who had travelled extensively in France told me of an old French Beauty Secret which I tried with most astonishing results. At last I felt that I was on the right track. I kept on with the treatment following the simple instructions and in a few nights my wrinkles were entirely gone.

Naturally I was overjoyed with my experiment and I want everyone to know how to obtain the same happy results. I have already given it to many of my immediate friends and lo they have obtained the same remarkable transformation. The process consist of laying a warm cloth on the face each night for about half a minute and then when the cloth is removed a little ordinary amonized cocoa cream is applied over the entire face and neck. This is left on for about two minutes and then what has not been absorbed by the skin is wiped off with a soft dry cloth. Not more than five minutes is required for this simple operation. Yet one treatment will show you most astonishing results. No word short of "Marvellous" can explain how young and fresh this will make a woman look. I am sure that any lady with wrinkles can easily make herself look from 10 to 20 years younger. Any good druggist can supply you with pure amonized cocoa cream and it is so easy to apply that you cannot help but wonder at its remarkable action. These treatments are also fine for the complexion as they nourish the skin, keeping it fair, pink and healthy. Every woman who wants to look young, fresh and charming should by all means give this treatment a trial.

Note:—A large sample of Amonized cocoa cream can be obtained by sending ten cents to the International Products Co., 523 State St., Binghamton, N. Y., who make a specialty of it. This will give you the opportunity of making the remarkable test as explained above. If interested, please write before the 1st of December, as this liberal offer expires on that date.

SERVICE FLAGS TO FLY.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Display of transparent service flags in windows of homes and of emblems in business places will feature the American Red Cross Christmas membership drive between December 17 and Christmas eve. These emblems are to be so arranged as to indicate the number of people at each place who join the Red Cross. Plans also contemplated are to have church bell chimes at half hour intervals on Christmas eve and to have groups of Red Cross workers march and sing carols as a climax to the membership.

This reliable prescription has, since being placed in the hands of the public, done more to remove Rheumatic Troubles than all previous remedies combined.

It is different from other remedies in that it does not upset the stomach or impair the heart, a condition heretofore thought impossible.

It is not a cure-all but a remedy to be taken internally treating Rheumatism as a constitutional disease, by its general action through the blood.

The treatment is a most complete combination of rheumatic-reducing elements and is dependable to produce results from the fact it aims at rheumatism as a disease of the blood. 50c and $1.00 the bottle.

OFFICER TO TELL OF EXPERIENCES AT FRONT

Sergeant Flahiff to Speak at the Elks' Temple Thursday Night.

The members of the Elks' lodge have a real treat in store for them Thursday night when Sergeant John T. Flahiff, of the Canadian expeditionary forces, will tell of his experiences in the trenches while "over there." A banquet at 6:30 will precede the officer's talk.

Sergeant Flahiff comes to fill the vacancy caused when Sergeant McGibney, of the French ambulance company, had to go into training camp. The Canadian officer has served in the celebrated Princess "Pat" regiment, and has been in many charges and knows the fullest meaning of the term "over the top." His talk will be very interesting and full of information.

TEUTONS AT GATES OF VENICE

Austro-German forces have advanced to within nine miles of Venice, having pushed across the Piave river to Piava Vecchia, and farther west in the Trentino district German troops have thrust back the Italian defenders in the Sugana valley, defeating Italians at Primolano. A Teuton drive through Bassano and Cittadella (indicated on the map by arrows) would place them in the rear of General Cadorna's line. Teutons then would face the Italians on the west north and east.

IN THE Y. M. C. A. HUTS AT CAMP ZACH TAYLOR

Young Soldiers Appreciate Comforts and Conveniences They Offer.

Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., Nov. 19. The Y. M. C. A. is an important factor in the uplift of the thirty odd thousand select men from Indiana, Kentucky and Southern Illinois in training here for service overseas, as indicated by statistics gathered in the course of a drive for funds to support its activities.

Seventeen thousand four hundred and forty-four of the soldiers in one twenty-day period attended meetings at seven Y. M. C. A. buildings within the cantonment, according to the figures. In the same period twenty-seven bible classes were formed with an attendance of 1,444, two hundred and fifty-two educational classes were attended by 3,777 men in khaki and 1,031 books were distributed from the library.

In the Y. M. C. A. buildings, moreover, in the same twenty-day period, 214,218 letters were written, 4,747 parcel post packages were sent out and arrangements were made to handle $15,706.61 in postal money orders.

But the most intimate glimpse of the men in the relation to the Y. M. C. A. comes in the evening.

The men have had their supper. An unbroken stream is pouring into the doors of the various buildings. Behind the counters a group of secretaries are busy handling out letter paper, envelopes, selling stamps, issuing magazines and books, and serving the men in other ways.

In a few moments the long tables which extend the length of the building on both sides and through the middle and in both wings of the building are crowded with men, writing letters. Various other activities are meanwhile going on in other parts of the building.

Yonder is a group around a pair of huskies who with boxing gloves, are pummelling each other in a wholehearted fashion that brings yells of approval from the ring of spectators. One of these bouts may be succeeded by another and then another, a half hour or more being consumed in this manner.

Then a secretary appears with the news that a moving picture show is about to be put on and there is a rush for the auditorium, which is 120 feet long and 40 feet wide. It is always crowded when a film is shown and the soldiers are as appreciative as children. The films are of varied sorts with comedy productions dominating. They are all of the highest type of their kind.

Sometimes instead of the moving picture shows there are educational addresses; a lecture on the art of war, on the history of France, the principles for which America is fighting, or a lecture on diseases and their prevention.

Three evenings in each week there is a religious meeting at each Y. M. C. A. building. Sobered by the conditions under which they find themselves, the men show a disposition to concern themselves with religious matters more seriously than is usual to young men in such glowing good health under other circumstances.

ENTERTAINED AND ROBBED HE CHARGES

Bert Taylor Accuses His Cousin, Ralph Taylor, of Cash Theft.

Ralph Taylor, arrested Saturday afternoon on a charge of robbery, will come in for a heavy sentence because of his past record, is proved guilty this time. The young man was arrested by Sergeant Immel upon complaint of his cousin, Bert Taylor. In his complaint the cousin states that Ralph Taylor and James Coverdale entertained him a part of Friday evening and then taking him to Coverdale's room robbed him of $41. Taylor's past record shows three arrests, one on a drunk charge, another for assault and battery and a third in 1914 for a statutory offense. Upon the plea of his attorney Taylor had his case continued until Tuesday. Coverdale was ordered held as a witness.

Break Up Beer Party.

A Sunday beer party conducted weekly by a crowd of boys in a barn on McCulloch street was broken up Sunday morning by the police department. The participants, ranging from the ages of 18 to 20 years, were taken to the station but later released. Four cases of beer were also taken to the station, but so far they have not been disposed of.

Take Two Weeks' Wages.

Aaron Forkes, an employe of the rolling mills, was held up and robbed of two weeks' wages—$45—Saturday evening by three men near the Taylor street bridge. Sheriff Gillie is working on the case but so far has been unable to apprehend the thieves.

Chicken Financier.

August Eix denies that he is a chicken thief, stating that all the poultry found in his rooms was bought at a greatly reduced price on the city market. Prosecutor Hoffman grew anxious to locate the cut-rate stand, desiring to do business, but Eix could vouch no further information save that the seller had a red beard. Eix was arrested on a charge filed by Heiney's grocery, when it was found that some of their chickens were missing from a back yard coop. Eix was seen in the alley in back of the grocery store with several chickens in a gunny sack a short time previous. Judge Kerr continued the case in order to obtain more evidence.

Arrest Crap Shooters.

Sergeant Blum and Officer Beyerle raided a gambling joint on Lafayette street near Lewis street, and found three negro boys engaged in a game of "craps." All were charged with gambling in police court Monday morning, but were granted a continuance on the plea of their attorney.

A Sure Proof.

Cora Harting, arrested Sunday on a drunk charge, had a sure proof in her estimation as to her sober condition. When asked if she was drunk she stated: "No; I know I wasn't because I asked a friend to pump a bucket of water for he." Judge Kerr decided that her evidence was overbalanced by the officer and a daughter-in-law, who both testified as to her condition, and assessed a fine of $1 and costs. Mack Cane, an old offender, was given $20 and costs, to be served on public roads.

Other Cases.

The cases of Joseph Lippet, charged with loitering; Lawrence Gill, charged with being drunk, and Simon Lantz, charged with assault and battery, were dismissed.

COOKS AND WAITERS TO ENTERTAIN.

The Cooks and Waiters have made arrangements for a social session and a big meeting in their hall, 619 Calhoun street, Wednesday night, December 5. The committee has the assistance of President O. S. Riley, Secretary Homer Matthewson and Treasurer Homer Fry in making arrangements for the event. The business meeting will precede the social, which will have a fine program.

The doors of the Majestic theater will open at 7:30 this evening for the Edison Tone Test concert and the program will commence promptly at 8:15.

HOW I TOOK MY WRINKLES OUT

By Winifred Grace Forrest.

Trouble, worry and ill health brought me deep lines and wrinkles. I realized that they not only greatly marred my appearance and made me look much older, but that they would greatly interfere with my success because a woman's sucess, either socially or financially, depends very largely on her appearance. The homely woman, with deep lines and furrows in her face, must fight an unequal battle with her younger and better looking sister. I therefore, bought various brands of cold creams and skin foods and massaged my face with most constant regularity, hoping to regain my former appearance. But the wrinkles simply would not go. Oh the contrary they seemed to get deeper. Next I went to a Beauty Specialist who told me she could easily rid me of my wrinkles. I paid my money and took the treatment. Sometimes I thought they got less, but after spending all the money I could afford for such treatment I found I still had my wrinkles. So I gave up in despair and concluded I must carry them to my grave. One day a friend who had travelled extensively in France told me of an old French Beauty Secret which I tried with most astonishing results. At last I felt that I was on the right track. I kept on with the treatment following the simple instructions and in a few nights my wrinkles were entirely gone.

Naturally I was overjoyed with my experiment and I want everyone to know how to obtain the same happy results. I have already given it to many of my immediate friends and lo' they have obtained the same remarkable transformation. The process consist of laying a warm cloth on the face each night for about half a minute and then when the cloth is removed a little ordinary amonized cocoa cream is applied over the entire face and neck. This is left on for about two minutes and then what has not been absorbed by the skin is wiped off with a soft dry cloth. Not more than five minutes is required for this simple operation. Yet one treatment will show you most astonishing results. No word short of "Marvellous" can explain how young and fresh this will make a woman look. I am sure that any lady with wrinkles can easily make herself look from 15 to 20 years younger. Any good druggist can supply you with pure amonized cocoa cream and it is so easy to apply that you cannot help but wonder at its remarkable action. These treatments are also fine for the complexion as they nourish the skin, keeping it fair, pink and healthy. Every woman who wants to look young, fresh and charming should by all means give this treatment a trial.

Note:—A large sample of Amonized cocoa cream can be obtained by sending ten cents to the International Products Co., 523 State St., Binghamton, N. Y., who make a specialty of it. This will give you the opportunity of making the remarkable test as explained above. If interested, please write before the 1st of December, as this liberal offer expires on that date.

SERVICE FLAGS TO FLY.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—Display of transparent service flags in windows of homes and of emblems in business places will feature the American Red Cross Christmas membership drive between December 17 and Christmas eve. These emblems are to be so arranged as to indicate the number of people at each place who join the Red Cross. Plans also contemplated are to have church bell chimes at half hour intervals on Christmas eve and to have groups of Red Cross workers march and sing carols as a climax to the membership.

J. G. Roper, spring maker at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, is off by permission, and B. O. Perry, brickmason of the same shop, is on the sick list.

COUNTY AGENTS HOLD INTERESTING MEETING

Prof. J. W. Schwab, of Purdue, Urges Seed Corn Selection in County.

At a meeting Monday afternoon of the Northeastern Indiana Agricultural conference an organization of county agricultural agents of this part of the state, Prof. J. W. Schwab, of Purdue university, urged that seed corn be selected and that the pork production be increased. The speaker told of his trips through a number of the western states and spoke of the shortage of good seed corn. He proposed a plan whereby all Indiana farmers select seed corn and if any have a surplus it should be sent to other farmers who are less fortunate.

Mr. Schwab also spoke of the necessity of pork production. He told of many ways in which the short crop might be saved by the use of substitute foods. C. E. Troyer, the federal corn expert working in this county now, L. J. Brosemer, poultry expert, and J. C. Martindale, of Hendricks county, also spoke at the meeting. The county agents who attended the meetings besides Mr. Hutchins, were: B. M. Hummel, Whitley; A. Z. Arehart, Dekalb; V. A. Place, Wabash; Harry Gray, Wells; M. H. Overton, Adams; A. L. Hodgson, Randolph, and F. F. Johnson, Noble and Lagrange emergency demonstration agent.

Returns for Y. M. C. A. War Fund Will Carry District Over Quota.

Final returns for the great Y. M. C. A. war work drive have not yet been completed but enough districts have reported to give a fair estimation of the possible result. Dispatches from Indianapolis show that the state's total will far exceed the quota. With eight districts yet to report the total had already reached $1,228,000 Monday evening.

Allen county's quota was set at $45,000, but with some of the figures still coming in the subscriptions will undoubtedly reach $48,000. The seven counties of this section were assigned a quota of $84,000, their resulting figure has already reached the $98,619 mark and with subscriptions still coming in will without a daubt reach the $100,000 mark or over.

The war work headquarters were officially closed Monday evening, and beginning today all subscriptions will be paid at the Citizens' Trust company with checks made out to Owen N. Heaton, the treasurer.

ONE ARRESTED FOR THEFT OF A SAFE

George Thompson was arrested at 4 o'clock Tuesday morning by Sheriff George Gillie, charged with being implicated in the taking of a safe from the store of Zack Brodigan in the rolling mill district. Thompson was found in a straw stack on the Rockhill farm.

The safe was carried to a corn field, where the door was forced open with chisels and hammers. About $30 was taken. The sheriff is now looking for a tall individual who is believed to have been implicated. Thompson stoutly maintains his innocence.

TESTIFY AT BATTLE CREEK.

Detective Sergeant Walter Immel left Tuesday morning for Battle Creek, Mich., to testify against Ernest Trimbell whom he arrested here a few days ago. Trimbell stole $60,000 at Battle Creek and successfully fled from that place. The Michigan authorities wired the local headquarters to be on the lookout for him, and the detection by Detective Immel followed.
